Chiropractor,
Nurses Convicted

PORTLAND (AP)—A circuit court jury Thursday night convicted a Portland chiropractor and two of his office nurses of maintaining a public nuisance by operating a place where abortions could be obtained.

Those convicted were Dr. H. R. Dewey, Doris Hoffstra and Johanna Ezema. The maximum penalty is a six-month jail sentence or a $200 fine. They will be sentenced Monday.

A third nurse, Clara Allen, was freed, Judge Eugene K. Oppenheimer dismissing her from the case after the state indicated it did not have enough evidence.

In a 1951 trial Dr. Dewey was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter by abortion.

Jap Movie-Goes to See
Sinking of the Yamato

TOKYO (AP)—The last day of a battleship—the death of the mammoth Yamato on a suicide mission late in the Pacific war—will be shown Japanese moviegoers this month in a new documentary film.

The Japanese say the 72,800-ton Yamato, sunk by U. S. carrier planes, was the biggest fighting ship ever built, dwarfing by more than 20,000 tons the largest American battleship afloat.

The Yamato was wrapped in so much secrecy from the time it was built in 1935 until it sank off Kyushu on April 7, 1945—that not even a picture was released. The Japanese Navy refused to confirm there was such a ship.

The last day of the Yamato is not a pleasant memory for any Japanese, but the Japanese people do not resent grim pictures.

Several months ago, the Toei Motion Picture Company filmed "Wild Lily Tower," an account of Okinawa high school girls who volunteered as nurses, and perished in the Okinawa battle. The picture was an all-time boxoffice success. Toei followed with "Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita," describing the losing battle of The Philippines. This also was a smash hit.

Now Shin Toho Motion Picture Company, producers of several naval epics, including the "sinking" of the U. S. Pacific fleet at Pearl Harbor, has made the Yamato story.

The Yamato, 891 feet long and mounting nine 18-inch guns was equipped with six airplanes, radar and every modern instrument.

The Yamato made its last sortie on a kamikaze special attack (suicide) mission—leaving out of Kure Naval Base for Okinawa with enough fuel for only a one-way trip. None of the 3,333 crew members expected to return.

There was no air cover at all. Japan couldn't afford it. Only eight destroyers and a cruiser escorted the suicide battlewagon on its final mission. They represented the last of the once great Japanese Navy. The desperate mission wound up in utter failure. Instead of reaching Okinawa as intended, some 1,000 U. S. carrier planes assaulted the Yamato off Kyushu, Japan's southern island, and sank it after a two-hour battle.

Sometimes We Ford Dealers wish our Used Cars weren't so good!

Folks come in all steamed up to buy a new '53 Ford. Excited as they should be. Then they take a look at some of the A-1 cars on our used car lot.

And that sets them to thinking. And debating. And pondering. Because most all of our used cars are as young as Springtime and shiny as a new dime. Folks look at the price tag and say "Humm... Now... maybe we ought to..."

That's when we wish our used cars weren't so good. But you know there's nothing quite like a new '53 Ford (even our good used cars). And new Ford "wanters" know it, too. So a new Ford is what they take.

Maybe you're different. For any number of personal reasons you may want a used car—a good used car. If so, we've got them. Here are some examples:

1952 FORD V-8 BUSINESS COUPE	$1695
Radio and heater
1952 FORD CUSTOM CLUB COUPE	$1995
6 Cyl. Radio and heater
1952 FORD CUSTOM TUDOR	$1845

1951 FORD CUSTOM TUDOR	$1495

1950 FORD DELUXE TUDOR	$1195
Heater, Overdrive, V-8
1950 FORD BUSINESS COUPE	$945
