

Spring Arrives in June . . . in the Backyard of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Martin, 1111 Pacific Terrace

Herald and News

THIS PICTURE . . . should be in color to do justice to the lacy green of the Chinese birch in the background — the vari-colored tulips and primroses. Not in the picture, are two pink dogwood—(and one white)—blossoming beautifully against the rustic fence. Mrs. Martin and Fritz, the family pet, rest between diggings and plantings, trying to keep up with Harold Ventura, the man Friday, of the household.

fin said she would gladly show it to anyone interested. The flowering crab-apple tree at the right is on the page just because the photographer thought it was "pretty"—and so it is—gracing the front yard. Many more blooms will be in evidence later, but this happened to be one of the first days that the sun was shining intermittently, and we couldn't wait. Incidentally, Mrs. Martin has made tentative plans to delve a bit in the sod of Ireland late this summer.

Pink dogwood is almost unheard of in Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Mar-

—Photo by Kettler

Reception at Andrew Collier Home During PEO State Convention

MRS. DOROTHY KERNS . . . far right, member of Klamath Chapter CF, PEO, chats with out-of-town members at the Monday night reception. Center, Mrs. Jennie J. Magnuson, Chapter J, Woodburn; and Mrs. Gladys Hughes, Chapter AH, Portland.

GREETINGS TO PEO DELEGATES were warmly extended Monday evening, June 1, when Mrs. Andrew Collier offered the hospitality of her Pine Grove home to visiting and local members for a reception, which was a social highlight in the three day session. Chapter U, Klamath Falls, was official hostess of the reception.

The lace draped tea table was centered with a distinctive arrangement of yellow roses in a silver bowl; yellow and white tapers flickered in silver candelabra; and an abundance of spring flowers all carried out PEO colors. Mrs. Alfred Collier, committee chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Porter, Mrs. O. K. Puckett and Mrs. A. V. McVey.

At the door with Mrs. Collier to greet the many local and out-of-town guests were Orpha Hudson and Lyravine Fish, general chairmen of the convention. Pouring were, Mrs. Marvin Norseth, president of Chapter U; Mrs. Francis Olds, president of Chapter AU; Mrs. Gilbert Fleet and Mrs. Lloyd B. Emery. Assisting at the tea table were Mrs. Frederick Ehler and Mrs. Ross Ragland, Mrs. Buford Hargus and Mrs. S. W. Raymond.

PEO Photos by Kettler

A TRIP ALMOST ACROSS the continent brought Mrs. Joseph S. Ewing, former resident of Klamath Falls, here for the Oregon State PEO Sisterhood convention from her home in Tappahanock, Va.

Mrs. Ewing is the guest of Mrs. Francis R. Olds, 446 Riverside Drive. Her husband, now rector of the Episcopal Church in Tappahanock was rector of St. Paul's here for three years. The family, including two sons, left here in 1931. Mrs. Ewing was recently in Victoria, B.C., and at Seattle with Dr. Ewing's sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Van Arsdale. From here, enroute home she will visit Pasadena with her mother. This is the first visit here since the family moved to Virginia.

Society

by MILLY RAMSBY

ENGAGEMENT REVEALED

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES A. HENDERSON . . . 1972 Earle Street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean Elizabeth, to James Chandler Pinniger, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pinniger, 1152 Crescent Avenue. The very attractive bride-elect is a Gamma Phi Beta at the University of Oregon, where a previous announcement was made to her sorority sisters in the chapter house. She will return to the Oregon campus next year as house president. Jim is an Alpha Tau Omega at Oregon State. A definite wedding date will be set after they are graduated from college. Both are members of well known Klamath families.

—Photo by Fehly Studio, Eugene