

Delores Robatcek and Richard Gilcrist

Exchange Vows in Methodist Church

LACE AND SATIN . . . and net and quantities of colorful flowers contributed to the "truly May" wedding of Delores Robatcek to Richard (Dick) Gilcrist. The popular young couple were married May 16, in an 8 p.m. service read by the Rev. Lloyd Holloway in the First Methodist Church.

Delores is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robatcek; and she is shown with her mother in the upper right picture; and with her father, in the lower left. Upper left, after the ceremony; top center, arranging the lovely bride's veil, are, left, Elaine Acuff, sister of the bride; standing, from the left, Doris Nicholas, Francis Deets, sister of the bridegroom; Georgianna Clark, maid of honor; and June Jones. All bridesmaids except Georgianna.

In circle, ring-bearer Stephen Tepper; and flower girl, Gayle Deets, nephew and niece of the bridegroom. Lower center . . . in this case, it's the bridegroom who wears the "something blue" quarter. Buster Heath, best man, "assists" Dick with placing it. Lower right, Vernon Keirnes and Mervin Nicholas, ushers, are either bidding farewell to the "bachelor" — or are congratulating the "husband."

Vows Said in Double-Ring

Service in First Methodist

A double-ring service in First Methodist Church, May 16, at 8 p.m., was read by the Rev. Lloyd F. Holloway, uniting Delores Robatcek and Richard (Dick) Gilcrist in marriage. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robatcek, 1519 Oregon Avenue; and her father gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Irvin Whit, soloist, was accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Morris, organist.

Large arrangements of pink carnations, gladioli, white snapdragons and greenery were arranged before a background of palms; illuminated with lighted tapers in tall candleabra. The same flowers marked the pews.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gilcrist, 933 Washington Street.

Delores' floor length gown of Chantilly lace over satin, was styled with a low scalloped neckline and long tapered sleeves. The full skirt was of net over satin with a brief train. A sweetheart headband trimmed with seed pearls held her fingertip veil of lace. The veil was the "something borrowed" — from her sister, Jackie. A white orchid and Stephanotis tied with satin streamers centered the white Bible carried by the bride.

Georgianna Clark, maid of honor, wore a frock of pink net over satin, with matching net stole. She wore a wrist arrangement of lavender, Esther Reed daisies.

The four bridesmaids, Elaine Acuff, sister of the bride; Francis Deets, sister of the bridegroom; June Jones and Doris Nicholas all wore lavender dresses patterned after the maid of honor's; and their wristbands were also the same, except that they were pink.

Gayle Deets and Stephen Tepper, niece and nephew of the bridegroom, were flower girl and ringbearer.

Buster Heath was best man; and Vernon Keirnes, Mervin Nicholas, John Robatcek Jr., and David Jones ushered. John and David also served as candlelighters.

Mrs. Robatcek chose a gray suit with white accessories for her daughter's wedding, and she wore a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Gilcrist, wore a light blue suit accented with pink, worn with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The reception was in the church parlors; and the ornate wedding cake carried out the decoration theme — with pink roses and white Esther Reed daisies.

Mrs. Dale Tepper, bridegroom's sister; and Mrs. Jim Clark poured. Mrs. Alfred Clawson, also a sister of the bridegroom, cut the cake; and Mrs. Jack Mettler, bride's sister, registered the guests.

For the wedding trip to coastal and other points in California and Nevada, the bride wore a blue-gray two piece costume with all white accessories; and her corsage was the orchid which centered the bridal bouquet.

Delores and Dick were classmates in the graduating class of '49; and the bride is a '52 graduate of the Good Samaritan Hospital School of Nursing in Portland. They are now at home, 337 Haskins.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Anderson, Inez and Velma Sather, Joan Nopp and Edith Tennant, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Acuff and Debbie; and Arthur Acuff, Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mettler Jr., Vallejo; Georgianna Clark and Gwen Beckley (Mrs. Sal Tantillo), San Jose; and Mr. and Mrs. G. Deets, Ashland. Velma Sather and Joan Nopp were graduated from nurses training with Delores.
