

THE NEW MR. AND MRS. SALVADOR TANTILLO ... after the 10 a.m. Nuptial Mass in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, May 23. Attractive bride is the former Gwendolyn Beckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. (Dean) Beckley, 3 Prescott. Salvador's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tantillo, live in San Jose, where the young Tantillos will also make their home.

WREATHED IN SMILES ... the happy couple leaves the church for the reception at the bride's home.

BRIDE AND HER FATHER ... before the ceremony in Sacred Heart Church.

LITTLE FLOWER GIRL ... Charlotte Tantillo, bridegroom's niece has the center of the stage in the above picture; and she played her role like a veteran. From the left, Beverly Young, maid of honor; bride and bridegroom; Charles Catello, best man; and Mrs. Charles Catello, bridegroom's sister, bridesmaid.

WITH THEIR PARENTS ... the bride and bridegroom pose for a family picture. At the left, Mr. and Mrs. Beckley; and to the right, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tantillo, who were here from San Jose for the wedding.

COUPLE AT HOME IN SAN JOSE AFTER CATHOLIC RITES HERE

A 10 a.m. Nuptial Mass in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, May 23, united Gwendolyn Beckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Beckley, 3 Prescott, to Salvador Tantillo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tantillo, San Jose, in marriage. The Rev. Harold J. Buckley officiated at the impressive morning service witnessed by invited friends and relatives.

The bride's veil cascaded from a seed pearl trimmed cap over an all white ankle length dress of nylon net and satin, styled with a full skirt, and fitted bodice. The net yoke was appliqued with medallions of lace outlining the round neck, accenting the satin, strapless under-bodice; and edging the brief sleeves.

She carried a white prayer book centered with a white orchid and stephanotis tied with white satin streamers.

Escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was preceded by her two attendants, who wore identical frocks of pale green, not over tulle. Their full, three tiered skirts flared from fitted bodices topped with a stole effect of net. Beverly Young, maid of honor carried white carnations with pink rosebuds and a softly gathered net cap framed her hair. Mrs. Charles Catello, sister of the bridegroom, carried a bouquet of pink carnations and white rosebuds, and her cap of net was patterned after the maid of honor's.

Church flowers for the wedding featured white snapdragons arranged with tulips and greenery in large baskets. White satin bows marked alternate pews.

Mrs. Duane Blackman was soloist. Charles Catello, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man; Charlotte Tantillo, bridegroom's are at home in Monterey Manor, San Jose.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. India Allen, T. W. Allen, and Jimmy Allen, grandmother, uncle and cousin of the bride, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tantillo, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom; San Jose; Mr. and Mrs. Al Slinker and son, Randy, San Lorenzo; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shinn, Grants Pass; a sister, Mrs. Antonette Puma; Mary Tellicciotti and Josephine Rattalo, all of San Jose.

Mrs. J. T. McCollum, bride's grandmother, was unable to attend the wedding. The well known pioneer and Lake O'Connell home owner for many years was in the hospital at the time of the important event, recovering from a back injury.

GET SET FOR SUMMER

With your favorite canvas topped play shoes.

Actual weight 14 oz. per pair

Solid, one piece cushion crepe sole ... washable ... navy, red or faded blue.

4.95

Ladies Sizes 4 to 10

Poll Parrot

Canvas topped — washable play oxford ... cushion arch support ... red or navy blue.

2.99

Sizes 5 1/2 to 3

Boys "PF" Tennis Shoes

With the famous "posture foundation" arch feature ... the best for growing feet.

3.29 to 3.69

Sizes 6 1/2 thru 6

VAN ORMAN'S

For ALL The Family's FOOTWEAR
527 MAIN
Opposite GOELLER'S

Norma Lee Douglas Becomes Mrs. Lloyd H. Mudder In Zion Lutheran Church May 29

Norma Lee Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Douglas, 1243 Kane, became the bride of Lloyd H. Mudder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Mudder, Friday evening, May 29.

The Rev. Jesse Rector of Klamath Lutheran Church read the 8 p.m. double-ring service at Zion Lutheran Church, in the presence of a large gathering of invited friends and relatives.

Before the ceremony, Richard Melton sang "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Denison, organist, who also played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, who gave her in marriage. She was lovely in a gown of white satin styled with a brief train. A crown of white stephanotis held her filmy finger-tips. She carried a single white orchid surrounded with clusters of tiny bows of white satin ribbon with long streamers almost touching the floor.

Five year old Howard, brother of the bridegroom, was ringbearer. He preceded the bride and carried the rings on a small round white satin pillow.

Bridesmaid, Beverly Ferniman, was charming in a frock of pink lace; accented with a bouquet of American Beauty rosebuds and stephanotis tied with narrow, long, pale green streamers of fine net. Ushers were Willis Glidden and Johnny Powell.

The bride's mother wore a gray suit and her corsage was of American Beauty roses. Mrs. Mudder chose a navy blue costume to wear to her son's wedding, and her corsage was of red roses.

After the ceremony, the soloist sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The reception was at the home of the bride's parents; and the spacious rooms were filled to overflowing with the many guests.

Norma Lee cut the elaborate wedding cake baked by Mrs. Floyd Ewing and Alice Webb, her cousins. Mrs. Ed Scholer poured.

The new Mrs. Mudder changed to a gray gabardine suit for travel. She wore a white hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After a brief honeymoon "somewhere on the coast," they are at home, 4107-A Homedale Road.

was charming in a frock of pink lace; accented with a bouquet of American Beauty rosebuds and stephanotis tied with narrow, long, pale green streamers of fine net. Ushers were Willis Glidden and Johnny Powell.

The bride's mother wore a gray suit and her corsage was of American Beauty roses. Mrs. Mudder chose a navy blue costume to wear to her son's wedding, and her corsage was of red roses.

After the ceremony, the soloist sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The reception was at the home of the bride's parents; and the spacious rooms were filled to overflowing with the many guests.

Norma Lee cut the elaborate wedding cake baked by Mrs. Floyd Ewing and Alice Webb, her cousins. Mrs. Ed Scholer poured.

The new Mrs. Mudder changed to a gray gabardine suit for travel. She wore a white hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After a brief honeymoon "somewhere on the coast," they are at home, 4107-A Homedale Road.

Former KF Girl Wed in April To Anderson Man

Belated word was received here of the wedding in Anderson of Claire Elting and David F. Taylor in the First Baptist Church. Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Elting, former Klamath Falls residents; and she is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. George White, granddaughter of Mrs. Clara Bowen; and cousin of Mrs. Ken Mulligan and daughter, all of whom went from here to attend the wedding, April 5.

Taylor is associated with the Ralph L. Smith Lumber Company in Anderson, where the couple is at home after a honeymoon trip along the California coast.

Other guests from Klamath Falls included, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Wiley and sons; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dailey and son.

The Rev. Thomas E. Steele read the 3 p.m. service in the presence of some 150 invited guests and relatives.

ST. BARNABAS GUILD MEETING

LANGELL VALLEY. Mrs. Luther Noble entertained the Guild of St. Barnabas Church at her home in upper Langell Valley, May 28. Mrs. Noble, president, was in charge of the meeting.

The Guild plans to hold a plastic party at the Parish hall June 11 at 2 p.m. with Mrs. Dorothy Ewings of Klamath Falls hostess.

After a short business meeting, the members sewed for the bazaar to be held this fall. Next meeting will be June 25 at the home of Mrs. Owen Pepple in Bonanza.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Noble at 4:30 p.m. to Mrs. Ernest Graves, Mrs. O. C. Johnson, Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. Doug Smelter, Mrs. Russell Walsh, Mrs. Marion Lindsay, Mrs. Wes Dearborn, Mrs. Mike Dearborn, Mrs. Howie Roberts, and Mrs. George Noble.

WSCS Meeting

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met in the parlors Thursday, May 28. The executive board convened at 11 a.m. and shared a sack lunch at noon.

Mrs. Fred Wiley, spiritual life secretary, called the prayer circle together at 1:15 p.m.

After a brief business meeting called to order by Mrs. Joe Bramhall, president, reports on the recent Bend conference were given. Members who attended were Mrs. Earl Redman, Mrs. Bramhall, Mrs. Lloyd Holloway, Mrs. Edna Russell, Mrs. Lorena Ward, Mrs. Elsie Burton, Miriam Smyth, Mrs. Bert Hegler, Mrs. Gene Woods, Mrs. H. Mather Smith and Mrs. Joe Hicks.

Mrs. Oliver Spiker, chairman, introduced Mrs. Steven Moss, who installed new officers. Mrs. Lloyd Holloway gave devotions. Piano selections were by Mrs. Fred Cofer.

The Easter Circle was hostess for the day with Mrs. Maurice Sherman, Mrs. Oliver Spiker and Mrs. John Riach as tea committee.

The Mary Circle and Martha Circle will be co-hostesses for the month of June.

Each of the members had prepared an arrangement typical of one classification on the flower show schedule. These were discussed and constructively criticized, in order to give the members a better idea of what is acceptable in a flower show arrangement.

Evergreen Garden Club Furthers Ward Park Plans

The Evergreen Garden Club met Monday evening, June 1, with 18 members and three guests in attendance. Guests were, Mrs. Gene Merrill, Mrs. Rosella Putnam and Mrs. Robert Hawkins. Members of the club welcome guests and are hopeful that the meetings prove interesting enough that guests become members.

Important items of business were discussed, and one of the most important was setting a date for the iris show, now slated for June 16.

BRIDAL SHOWER

WOCUS—Sharon Ash, who will become the bride of Paul Flury in the early summer was honored at a bridal shower, June 2, at the home of Mrs. Wayne Negus in Wocus, with Mrs. Robert Johnson co-hostess.

Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ash of Wocus; Paul is from Yoncalla, Oregon, but is presently serving with the armed forces and is stationed at Camp Roberts.

The evening was spent playing games, followed by the guest of honor opening her many lovely gifts after which white cake with pale pink icing was served with ice cream and coffee.

Guests invited were Mrs. Archie McClurg, Mrs. Roy Penning, Mrs. Cecil Crouse, Mrs. Ora Barrett, Mrs. J. A. Blevins, Mrs. J. J. Pap-pin, Mrs. Joe Ivie, LaDeana Ivie, Mrs. Robert Rose, Mrs. J. L. Helm, Mrs. Forrest Cullen, aunt of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Paul Buck, Mrs. Clyde Ash, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. Susie Cullen, Sharon's grandmother; Mrs. Dicie Wiseman, Mrs. Charley Burgess, Mrs. Rayburn Smith, Mrs. George Jennings, Mrs. Jesse Ivie, Mrs. C. V. Karna and Mrs. Frank Hurd.

"I KNOW JUST WHAT TO DO" ... Charlotte assures her new-aunt-to-be.

WEDDING

ANNOUNCEMENTS

and Invitations

Engraved and Processed

VOIGHT'S PIONEER OFFICE SUPPLY

629 Main

Phone 7412

Save By June 10th For a Full Month's Profit

• Insured safety
• Generous earnings on your savings

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS

LOAN ASSOCIATION

540 MAIN STREET

Member, Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation