Helen Parker and Arnold Evans Wed in Medford

A wedding in Medford, although in late April, however of current interest in Klamath Falls, was that of Helen Louise Parker, daughter of Mrs. George Parker, 730 N. 11th, to Arnold Everett Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold C. Evans, Spokane.

The Rev. Kirkland West read the service at 3:30 p.m., April 26, in the Medford First Presbyterian Church in the presence of about 90 invited guests and relatives.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white satin and lace with a fingertip veil gathered to a seed-pearl trimmed tiara. Her bouquet was of white carnations centered with a white orchid. She was given in marriage by her uncle, W. E. Holmes of Medford.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Lucius E. Lull, wore a gown of blue net over tulle and carried a bouquet of lilac carnations. Shirley Dodson, bridesmaid, in lilac net over tulle, carried blue carnations.

Roy Barnum was best man and Norman Parker, brother of the bride, and George Harper were ushers.

White and lavender lilacs were effectively used for church decorations.

Frank Mallin, soloist, was accompanied by Mrs. Eva Marsh, organist.

Mrs. Walter Wyckoff poured at the reception in the church parlors; Mrs. Joe Bray cut the cake; Mrs. Clifford Phipps served; and Mrs. William Newland carried the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a blue silk suit with pink accessories and a corsage of pink flowers.

Guests from out-of-town included Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Veatch, uncle and aunt of the bride; Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, bride's aunt, all of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Veatch and family, Fort Klamath; Mr. and Mrs. William Newland, Corvallis; and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Schilling and son, Sacramento.

The out-of-town visitors were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Holmes.

Helen Louise attended Medford Senior High School and Southern Oregon College. The bridegroom also attended S.O.C. and is employed by a petroleum and equipment company in Medford where they are at home, 610 West 10th Street. Mrs. Parker, mother of the bride is a very well known teacher in the Klamath school system, and the bride has many friends here.

Soroptimist Club Plans Installation Banquet June 12

The regular business and luncheon meeting of the Soroptimist club was held Thursday noon, June 4, in the Pelican party room. Pres. Isabelle Brixner in charge.

Secretary Ellen Clarke gave the report of the activities of the club and the executive board; and Margaret Larkin reported on the finances.

Secretary Ruth Ray read an invitation extended to the local club to attend the installation banquet at Ashland Friday evening, June 14. Notices were read of two new Soroptimist Clubs being chartered, at Lexington, Nebraska and Manhattan Beach, California.

A very interesting report was given on the Audio-Visual van furnished to the Philippine Islands by the Northwest region of Soroptimist clubs. The van is equipped to show pictures on Mental hygiene and guidance, human relations, homemaking and inservice work for teachers. Many thousands in Manila have seen these pictures and now neighboring islands of the Philippine group have asked for the van for three month periods. Elsie M. Fenton, president of the Federation of Soroptimist Clubs will visit in Portland Saturday, June 6. An all day session is planned with headquarters at the Jensen Hotel. A luncheon at Multnomah Falls lodge and a trip over the Columbia River Highway will highlight the day, with a banquet in the evening, at the Crystal room of the Benson.

Four camperships for the summer were voted by the club for qualifying members of the Girl Scouts and Camp Fire groups.

Catherine Brumbaugh announced that the Klamath Art Association's Fifth annual summer Art Workshop would be June 6-31.

Jack Wilkinson, U. of O. instructor, will conduct painting and drawing classes, which will be accredited courses. Craft classes in silk screening, ceramics and jewelry making are offered at the YMCA July 6 to 17, under Mrs. B. B. Blomquist.

There will be both morning and evening classes in the crafts but no credit. If interested call 7555 or 7543.

Attendance gift was awarded to Beth Griggs.

The installation banquet Friday evening, June 12, 6:45 a.m., will be served in the Pelican party room.

The last meeting before vacation is slated for June 18, and the next meeting will be the last week in August.

Blue Birds Win

Dinner At Hotel

Thursday evening a group of seven Blue Birds were entertained at a dinner party in the Winema Hotel Crater Room, with their leaders Mrs. R. T. Lindley and Mrs. Bert Norris and their husbands.

The dinner was earned by the girls through the sales of the boxes of mints sold annually under the auspices of the Camp Fire Girls. These seven girls sold 264 boxes of mints, and were very proud when two of their members, Betty Jean Kerns and Karen Lindley, were among four in Klamath County who qualified for prize.

Members of the O. D. Ko Blue Bird Group are: Caroline Ball, Margaret Gallagher, Betty Jean Kerns, Karen Lindley, Nancy Moehl, Helen Norris and Nancy Soukup.

After a well deserved vacation, including a stay at Camp Ka-Est-A, the girls will return to a full schedule of 5th grade activities at Roosevelt School, and begin eagerly working for Camp Fire awards and honors.

MRS. BILL STEWART . . . the former Patty Croup, and her children, Terry, 6; and Tamara, 3; visited here recently as houseguests of Mrs. H. B. Kelly, 2333 Applegate. Mrs. Stewart is a former resident, and much of her time was spent with old friends. Picture was taken at the Robert F. Abbey residence on Lincoln, where the Stewarts were luncheon guests. They have gone to join Bill Stewart in California, where they will make their home after living for some time in Blair, Neb. —Photo by Kettler miscellaneous bridal shower held at Union Hall in Gilchrist, May 25.

Farewell Party

FORT KLAMATH—The O.I. clubhouse was the setting for a gala affair Wednesday evening, May 27, when women of the community honored Mrs. Joseph Halford and Mrs. John Acomb with a no-hostess surprise farewell party and handkerchief shower. Mr. and Mrs. Halford and their four sons left Sunday, May 31, for their new home in Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Acomb plan to leave June 15 for Canyonville to live.

Arrangements of narcissus and daffodils adorned the clubhouse, where two tables were piled high with gifts for the two honor guests. Following opening of the packages, those present enjoyed buffet refreshments served in the club dining room where lovely blooms of narcissus and daffodils were also used as a decorative note for the happy occasion.

The game of Coetle was the diversion of the evening until a late hour. Mrs. Walter J. Wright was awarded the prize.

Present for the evening were: Mrs. Clara Acomb, Oakland, Calif., and Mrs. Alta Moyle, Riverside, Calif.; Mrs. Acomb's mother-in-law and niece, who arrived Friday for a visit at the Acomb home here; Mrs. Donald P. Veatch, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine, Mrs. William Zumburn, Mrs. Bud Pritchett, Mrs. Ralph Vaden, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Charles M. Noah, Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. Lucille Leggett, Mrs. Ernest L. Reese, Mrs. Wilbur B. Hecock, Mrs. James F. Van Worman, Mrs. Joseph C. McAuliffe, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, Mrs. Richard O. Varnum, Mrs. William C. Martin, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. Marvin Roeder, Mrs. Gene A. Page, Mrs. Alfred E. Feezer, Mrs. Jack Thomas and Mrs. George Lousley.
