DORRIS GIRL PLANS WEDDING FOR FIRST DAY OF SUMMER

DORRIS—An early summer wedding of charming appointment will be that of Peggy Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Logan, Dorris, to Martin O. Hellberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hellberg, Lowden, Wash.

The nuptials have been set for the first day of summer, Sunday, June 21, at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Walla Walla. The Rev. H. L. Daugs will solemnize the rites at an eight o'clock evening ceremony before an altar banked with seasonal blossoms. Only close relatives of the couple and a few school friends will be in attendance. The Logans announced their daughter's engagement February 4.

For her wedding gown, the bride-to-be has chosen traditional white satin and lace, with fingertip veil caught in a cap effect with pearl trim. She will wear a single strand of pearls and carry a white prayer book. Mr. Logan will give his daughter in marriage.

Betty Logan, sister of the bride-elect, and Lois Hellberg, sister of the bridegroom-to-be, will be maid of honor and bridesmaid, respectively. Their gowns of pleated white nylon net over pale yellow satin will be ballerina length. Their flowers will be yellow rose buds and lilies of the valley. A brother, Max Hellberg, will be best man and Mrs. Daugs will play the wedding music.

A reception at the church will follow the ceremony, after which the bridal pair will leave for a brief honeymoon. For her going away costume, the bride-elect has selected a light blue shantung suit and white accessories. When they return they will be at home on their Lowden ranch.

Betty was graduated from Butte Valley High School, class of '51, and has attended Pacific Lutheran College at Parkland, Wash., for the past two years. Her fiancé will be graduated from Pacific Lutheran College this June.

Other members of the Logan family who will attend the wedding include Mrs. Logan, Lloyd Jr. and Robert. The bride-elect's grand mother, Mrs. Pearl Waggoner of Ingleswood, Calif., and Doris Porterfield, Dorris, will also be among those present.

A JULY WEDDING . . . is planned for Barbara McMahan, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold N. McMahan, 2616 Altamont Drive, recently announced her engagement to William (Bill) Joplin, son of Mrs. Violet Joplin, 1827 Oregon Avenue.
