The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at the Merrill Recreation Hall from 1 to 5 p.m., Monday, June 15. Mrs. Marie Vacknitz has been named Malin recruiting chairman. All local donors may make appointments by calling her at 291.

Guests at the Carl McVay home are Mrs. McVay's nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Upton of Sheldon, Mo. Mrs. Upton's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Greenstreet of Seattle, are expected soon.

Teachers not returning in the fall are Ms. Marilee Butler, Mrs. Anita Stephens (who will not teach) Mrs. Kester, who will join her husband who is stationed in California, and Gloria Nandie and Aeri Bennett who have accepted other positions.

Floyd Mauney, grade school principal, and his family will move to Eureka where he will be associated with the lumber industry. Prosperity Social Club met at the home of Mrs. Emma Wilde on May 28 for business and social evening. President Doris Smith conducted the business meeting, leading the discussion regarding the feeding of about 1000 Boy Scouts who plan to stop over in Malin for a swim and lunch on July 11 to 26. Proceeds from the meals will go toward the Masonic Hall project. Rainbow Girls and Masons will also help. Refreshments were served by the hostess to Ann Payr, Ethel Hamilton, Eva Bowman, Leah Street, Frances Kalina, Ann Fruits, Thelma Stukel, Laura Ziebeck, Thelma Clugston, Mariam Stasny, Marian Wilson and Gladys Halousek. Next meeting will be held at the Masonic Hall, June 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Smith and Pati entertained her graduation class Sunday evening, before Baccalaureate services, with a turkey dinner. Attending were members of the class, Principal and Mrs. A. E. Street and Mrs. Bonnie Stephens, class advisor, and Mr. Stephens.

Great Northern officials met at the depot May 28 with representatives of Malin organizations to discuss plans for the coming visit of two trainloads of Boy Scouts in July. Calling the meeting was S. M. Farrell, GN general passenger agent of St. Paul, Minn. Attending were Lou Drager, president of the Malin Chamber of Commerce; M. Stasny, representing the park board; Lou Kalina, Cub Scout master; Doris Smith, Thelma Clugston and Emma Wilde of the Eastern Star chapter, and Howard Henderson, Malin depot agent.

Mr. Farrell informed the group of the exact time the boys will arrive, time limited for swimming and the hours for the evening meal. The planned meal was given so that the organization serving would know what to have ready. The first train will stop in Malin on July 11 on its way south and the second trainload of boys will stop over for another meal and swim on the return trip from the annual jamboree on July 26.

After the graduation dance, a 2 a.m. breakfast was served at the Loyal Saunders home with Mrs. Saunders, Mrs. Earl McVay, Mrs. Carlo Cornett and Mrs. Dick Henzel as hostesses. Thirty-three were present, including the graduating class, friends and teachers.

Weather conditions canceled the outdoor picnic planned for the end

Members present who brought potluck were Mr. and Mrs. J. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey and Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Fies, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Flegi, Evelyn Fleming and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dannie Trujillo, Leta Stolt and Richard, Susan Williams, and Mrs. Frances Brandenburg. Floyd Low, who is visiting his sister Mrs. Dovie Reeder, was a visitor.

of the school term. Instead, the morning was spent playing games indoors at the grade school. After lunch, the group was taken to Klamath Falls by Mrs. Frank Strahan, their teacher, and Mrs. Gail Culver, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and Mrs. James F. Van Wormer, mothers of students. The group visited the fire station, the Klamath Falls Creamery and then attended the show at the Pelican theater.

DAUGHTERS OF NILE LUNCHEON

When members of the Klamath Nile Club gathered at the Pelican Party Room Wednesday for their monthly luncheon, they were greeted with tables gaily decorated with cleverly dressed dolls typifying the season of brides and bridesmaids and brightly colored umbrellas under which were novel decorations of tulips. The committee responsible for the attractive decorations was Meta Gilbert, chairman, Jane Swartz, Beulah Elliott, Willie Jane Kennedy, Reva Snell, Fannie Mae Thompson, Marie Pike, Pearl Teale and Eva Pennington.

In keeping with the spirit of the decoration scheme, Margaret Sheridan accompanied by Alma Cofer, sang two delightful solos. Mac Moss, chairman of the entertainment committee, was assisted by Doris Peyton and Helen Perkins. The business session was conducted by President Charlotte Osborn, who announced that Temple Queen Wilda Tardy will pay her official visit to the club October 7.

It was announced by Past Temple Queen Mae Moss that the Supreme Queen would make her official visit to Zuleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile, Aug. 31, at Grants Pass.

Edith Palmerton reminded club members that it was not too late to attend some of the meetings of the Supreme Session of the Daughters now being held in San Francisco. Headquarters are at the Palace Hotel.

Since meetings will be discontinued during the summer, June and July birthdays were observed this month. After the usual happy birthday greeting the birthday gift was presented to Josephine Robinson. A special prize was awarded to Vera Fritsch.

In the absence of Grace Huls, who was out of town, Rena Oldham gave the report of the Sick-ness and Distress committee and asked members to report any illnesses to her during Mrs. Huls' absence.

After discussion of two projects presented by Dixie Beber, Sewing chairman, the club decided to support the Shreveport Hospital program this year because of the great need there.

Inter Keron urged all members to vote in the school elections to be held June 15 and 22 in which elementary and high school board members will be elected.

TODAY'S Question?

if not... JERRY THOMAS

this question:

Having pets around the house automatically makes me responsible for any injuries . . . or even scores . . . they might cause friends or passers-by.

Wouldn't a Comprehensive Personal Liability insurance policy take over that responsibility for me?
