

BONANZA

By CORA LEAVITT

Mrs. Walter Reisse and children visited in Langell Valley on Wednesday with Mrs. Bill Burnett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sohn left the day after school was out to spend the summer in Colorado. Both are teachers in Bonanza. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dalton are in Seattle with his folks, then to Portland to visit her folks. They also teach here.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Peppie have a new granddaughter, Michele Elizabeth, born May 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Peppie of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wakefield and family spent Memorial weekend in Portland with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Kine Hubole are in San Luis Obispo with her sister who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark and children of Klamath Falls, spent Memorial Day with her parents, the Neal Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Andrews and family have to Fort Bidwell, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cochran and son are now living in Medford where he is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hodges of Dallas spent Memorial weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stewart. Their nieces, Marie and Cheryl, and their nephew, Jimmy, returned home with them for a few weeks.

Ted Peppie of Tokatee Falls spent the weekend with his parents, the Owen Peppies. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cowen of Klamath Falls spent Sunday with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are here from Grand Forks, N.D., to visit their daughter and son-in-law, the Rudy Malperis. The Malperis will take her parents home and spend the summer there.

Catherine Dearborn is representing Bonanza and Langell Valley in the Fourth of July queen contest.

Saturday evening the Keith Hitts, Earl Hitts, Jr., Guy Hitts and the Dick Smiths all enjoyed dinner at the home of their parents, the Earl Hitts Sr.

The annual barbecue served for the benefit of the Bonanza cemetery on Memorial Day was very successful due to the efforts of Mrs. Luther Noble, Mrs. Wes Dearborn, and others who donated time and food. Glib Fleet of Klamath did the meat which was donated by Horton and sons. Over 500 people were served, and many from Klamath Falls, Tulelake came just for the meal and to visit. Thanks is extended to all who helped. The cemetery is really beautiful, and needs constant care and there are still many things to be done.

Margie Brown of Klamath Falls spent the weekend with the parents, the John Browns. She visited on Sunday in Langell Valley with Catherine Dearborn.

Fort Rock

By ROBERTA MCGEE

May 29 was the last day of school. A picnic was held at the grange hall, with games and square dancing and potluck dinner. Bible School will be held Tuesday and the 4-H will still meet Thursday.

At the Fort Rock Grange meeting Saturday evening, June 13, there will be a special lecturer's program.

It was Bobby Gilder, not Bobby Elder, who broke his arm. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gilder.

The Grangers held clean-up day at the grange hall, Sunday, May 31, and did a lot of work. Also a group worked on the Cabin Lake telephone line so we can have direct phone service to the ranger station. Telephone posts were securely installed this time so they won't blow over so easily.

The Bend municipal band and Bend Chamber of Commerce will hold their annual picnic and agricultural field trip at Mr. and Mrs. Bud Parks' Poplars, Sunday, June 21. The band will give a concert during the afternoon, followed by a short trip through some of the irrigated crop land. Another group will tour range improvement work.

There will be swimming and softball. All Lake county people are invited. Picnic dinner at noon will be potluck. Each family is requested to bring own table service.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miles of Woodburn spent the Memorial weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Howard McGee and family. Unfavorable weather cancelled the planned camping trip, so they picked their tent to the Howard McGee home and enjoyed themselves just as well. Sunday afternoon the Walkers, Thiemans, Howard McGees, F. E. McGees and Jim and the Donald McGees went to the Ice

MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE O. WATSON... who were married in the First Methodist Church in Reno, May 5. The Rev. E. C. Stephens was officiating minister.

Bride is the former Catherine Toombs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Toombs, 2434 Radcliffe; and Seaman I. C. Watson is the son of Mrs. Bernice Quigley, 1900 Ivory.

The new Mrs. Watson left yesterday to join her husband this weekend in San Diego where she will live while he is aboard the USS Delta, a repair ship.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lady spent Friday evening visiting friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Snider.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kasparian of Lakeview dined with Mr. and Mrs. Will Vernon and Benny on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Merle O'Neil and Mrs. John O'Neil were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Barry in Asland one day last week.

Mrs. Betty Branch and daughter, Sharon, are spending several days with relatives at Sacramento.

Branding was an event at the Walter Lightle ranch on Monday when several neighbors gathered to help. Enjoying dinner at noon were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bateman and Maude Jean, Charles Sherrard, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sherrard of Sonoma; Mr. and Mrs. Merle O'Neil and All Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eblin of Southern California were here over Memorial Day weekend. They stayed overnight at the Walter Lightle home Friday. Mrs. Eblin will be remembered by her many friends as Pearl Deter.

Dorris

By JOAN CHRISTENSEN

The "White and Gold" school annual of the Siskiyou joint union high school district, has been much in evidence the last two weeks, with students collecting autographs of their teachers and friends. Winning schools are given points for art of frontispiece, essays, stories, poems and best local section. Schools winning the coveted honors were Tulelake, 55 points — local section, 20; first place in essay, 15 (Nancy Young); first and second place in poems Susan Skidmore and Mary Ann Dobbs; 15 and 15 respectively. McCoud, 15 points, first in story Beverly Peterson; Mt. Shasta, 10 points, art of frontispiece Barbara McMaster; Weed, 10 points, second in essay Harriet Kock and second in story, Bob Anderson; Fort Jones, 10 points, second in local section.

High school closes this week with graduation Wednesday, June 3, 8 p.m., in the school gym. Students receive report cards Thursday. Student officers for next year, elected May 20, are Allen McIntyre, president; Earl Carson, vice president; Lorene Bell, secretary; Nadine Miller, head yell leader.

The BVHS Principal Harry Beck plans to attend cadet camp at San Luis Obispo June 14 to 28, as rest of the summer being spent at home and at school doing some paint work. Robert Marrs will spend part of his vacation working, while living in Mt. Shasta. Robert Daring has a summer job with the Associated Lumber and Box Company but plans a few days in San Francisco.

Ernest Plunl will return to his summer work with the Recreation Department in San Francisco. Jane Lambert plans to vacation in Paso Robles, Beverly Hills and Omaha, Neb. Betty Anderson and James Meek have resigned from the BVHS staff. Mrs. Fannie Dennis and Floyd Reese will spend a portion of their vacation period at their respective homes in Dorris.

Mrs. Mabel Ringwalt, teacher at the Dorris elementary school will go to summer school at Chico State College in August, take a steamer trip to Alaska. Mrs. Ninon Neff will visit her son and daughter and their families and attend summer school later in the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Gordon motored to Tenino, Wash., over Memorial Day holidays. Sharon remained in Dorris with her grandmother, Mrs. Elsie Ramsey.

Mrs. Ninon Neff was dinner hostess Friday evening, May 22, to Mrs. Mabel Ringwalt, Mrs. Elsie Ramsey, Mrs. Jennie Lang and Betty Anderson. Later, several of the group played cards at the home of Mrs. Lila Marshall.

Mrs. Lila Marshall was an overnight guest, Friday, of her son, Russ Marshall and family, Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Roy Farrell, former Dorris elementary school teacher, and children were Dorris visitors last week. Mrs. Farrell has been teaching in Elk Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hagelstein visited recently in Salem, Ore., with Mr. and Mrs. Elton Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Dopp of Coos Bay, visited last week with Mrs. Dopp's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hadwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Burke have returned from a stay of several days in Portland, where Mrs. Burke had a medical checkup.

W. S. Hugelstein planned to leave this week for Minneapolis to attend the junior chambers of commerce convention.

Hugelstein, assistant cashier of the Butte Valley State Bank, is vice president of the Oregon state junior chamber. He attended the recent state convention at Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Nelson of Medford were dinner guests Memorial Day of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Christensen.

Installation of Dorris Women's Club officers took place Tuesday evening, May 19, at the home of Mrs. C. E. Moschenbacher. Mrs. Adam Miller of Klamath Falls was the installing officer. Mrs. Miller reported on the state convention at Los Angeles and the district convention at Woodland. Officers are Mrs. Lewis Winfield, president (re-elected); Mrs. Jewel Barnett, first vice president; Mrs. Clifford Stumbaugh, second vice president; Mrs. Miller, third vice president; Mrs. F. W. Copeland, secretary; Mrs. Ninon Neff, treasurer (re-elected); Mrs. Fannie Dennis, parliamentarian; Mrs. Moschenbacher, historian. Mrs. Winfield presented each officer with a gift.

Twenty-five Dorris elementary school graduates will receive their diplomas at exercises Thursday evening June 4, at eight o'clock in the BVHS gym.

The graduation program will begin with the processional, "Land of Hope and Glory," played by the school band under direction of Jane Lambert. The colors will be presented and flag salute led by the Dorris Boy Scout color guard, consisting of Pat Collins, Gary Anderson and Lloyd Logan.

Troop 70. The invocation will be given by the Rev. Everett Murray, pastor of First Baptist Church Dorris, and Della McKay will give the welcome address. Linda Olson will play as a piano solo, "Spanish Gypsy Dance," Mowrey, and Bill Walden will read the class will.

The eighth grade chorus will sing "It Is No Secret," Hamblen, and Bonny Lane will give the class prophecy. Nancy Chase will play as a trumpet solo, "Over the Rainbow," Arlen, accompanied at the piano by Linda Olson. Cecil Craddock will make the class's farewell speech. Presentation of diplomas will be made by the Board of trustees, Mrs. Hilda Stumbaugh, Jewel Barnett and Claude Olson, assisted by Principal Stephen Bailey. The school band will play the recessional and pupils will remain to receive best wishes from friends and relatives.

Receiving their diplomas will be Doris Allen, Claretta Bentley, Marguerite Chaires, Nancy Chase, Cecil Craddock, Milton Crutchfield, Danny Davis, John Dodson, Clara Durham, Carl Enloe, Richard Philippe, Gary Gregory, Loren Harrison, Ronald Heilman, Bill Kerwin, Bonny Lane, Louis Luna, Janice Meek, Della McKay, Linda Olson, Joanne Otey, Joseph Otey, Bill Walden, Bill Wire and Clifford Young.

The grade school will be dismissed Friday at noon. It was closed Monday, June 1, out of consideration for Memorial Day.

MARRIED IN MAY... Charlotte Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Reed, 3520 Anderson, and Milton Carpenter.

The bride's parents were attendants at the wedding in Reno, May 16. Carpenter has been a student at the Bible Institute of Los Angeles for a year after his graduation from OTI; and the new Mrs. Carpenter plans to enroll there this fall. Presently they are at home, 210 Lippencott.
