

Merchants Seek OC Tie Tomorrow

Hardtoppers Approve 'Open Track'

Decker To Face Elks Nine

STANDINGS

	W	L	Pct.
Burns	2	0	1.000
Klamath	1	1	.500
Lakeview	1	1	.500
Alturas	0	2	.000

Big Hank Decker aims his right-hand slants at Burns tomorrow afternoon at Recreation Park when the Klamath Merchants try for an Oregon-Clatsop League tie against the unbeaten Elks. Gametime is 1:30 p.m.

A victory over Burns would put the Klamath team in a tie with the Elks for the league lead. Lakeview could make it a three-way knot with a win over last-place Alturas on the latter's diamond.

Decker, regular first baseman, was switched to the pitching

GAME OFF

Manager Hi Hatfield notified the Herald and News this morning that Sunday's game here against Burns has been postponed.

"The field would never dry enough even if it did clear up," Hatfield said.

mound primarily on his 15-3 record with Lakeview last year, then in the now-defunct Central Oregon League.

The Merchants lost some fielding and hitting strength this week when shortstop Don Peterson moved to Portland, his home, for the summer.

JUGGLING

Decker's switch to the mound and the loss of Peterson caused Manager Hi Hatfield to do some juggling.

George (Butcher Boy) Hanson, Klamath Union High School star who finished his prep career this year, will fill Decker's first-base position.

Al Herrera, who has seen part-time duty at second base along with Dick Lundsten, goes to shortstop. Lundsten joins him at second base. Gary Dawes fills his familiar third-base spot while the outfield stays the same—Willie Dunster, Hatfield and Fran Miller from left to right.

CATCHER

Ron Owens, who with Hanson finished with the Pelicans this year, will catch.

In the event Herrera has trouble at the shortstop position, Owens will go there and Ken Young will don the catching gear.

Burns will probably throw Jack Luts against Decker.

SKY LOW LOW
... heads midget troupe

Midgets, Masked Man Sign

Matchmaker Mack Lillard yesterday completed a wrestling card that will include the mat midgets and the Masked Marvel, currently appearing before turn-away crowds throughout the Northwest.

Two of the midgets have been here before, two are newcomers to the Klamath ring. Sky Low Low and Fuzzy Cupid Smith the fans well remember. Sky Low Low will team with Tiger Jackson against Smith and Mighty Schultz. It's a one-fall match (no time limit) sandwiched between bouts between the big boys.

The Masked Marvel faces Tommy Martindale, Klamath's Number 1 cheer-boy now. This is the top bout of the evening.

Tony Ross opens the show against Al Warshanski, who returns after a short absence. Both the opener and main event are down for one hour or the best of three falls.

Reserved tickets are on sale at Castberry Drugs.

OFFICE SPACE

Very desirable location. City Center.
Main Street Entrance
Drews Manstora

SPORTS

RED HURD, SPORTS EDITOR

TWIN TROUBLE—Casey Stengel would like to have a lot of headaches like this one—being unable to tell the identical Charnofsky twins — Stan (left) and Hal—apart. The University of Southern California double play combination is with Binghamton of the Eastern League, where they spent last summer. Hal is the shortstop.

Braves Shade Phillies in 11

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

Back in 1948 the Boston Braves won the National League pennant with a pitching staff of "Spann, Sain and two days rain." Five years later that staff would still bring a fortune on the open market.

The S-S men are split up now. Johnny Sain working for the New York Yankees and Warren Spann still with the Braves but calling Milwaukee instead of Boston home.

Although on the shady side of 30, both are having great years. So are their ball clubs. If things keep up they might find themselves pitching against each other in a world series game.

Sain, the busiest pitcher on the Yankee staff, picked up his sixth victory and his first shutout last night against the St. Louis Browns, 5-0. He's started nine times, worked seven complete games, lost two and has an earned run average of 2.65.

GOOD AS NEW

Spann, apparently as good as new after an early season injury, also won his sixth game last night, an 11-inning struggle over the Philadelphia Phillies in which he gave up only five hits. He's been beaten once in seven starts and has worked five complete games with an earned run average of 2.10.

Sain's victory extended the Yankees' winning string to eight, their longest in two years. Spann's success kept the Braves half a game ahead of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who outlasted the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-4.

The revamped Chicago Cubs continued to lose, dropping an 11-1 verdict to the New York Giants and Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh, 7-4, with Gus Bell hitting a pair of homers.

3-2 WIN

Cleveland hung 5½ games back of the Yankees with a 10-inning 3-2 squeaker over Philadelphia while Washington took third place away from the Chicago White Sox with an 8-4 victory featuring a grand slam home run by Wayne Terwilliger.

Rain in the third inning washed out Boston's game at Detroit with the Tigers leading, 1-0. All of the games were played at night.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.

Brooklyn took advantage of some loose St. Louis fielding to score four runs in the third inning. Third baseman Ray Jablonski threw too late on Roy Campanella's slow roll.

At Philadelphia, the Braves twice came from behind to tie and then scored the winning run in the 11th on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by catcher Del Crandall, to make the final tally 3-2.