

PARTS OF A SKELETON found Thursday near the Geary Canal and Lake O' the Woods road are examined by (l to r) Sheriff Murray Britton, J. C. Swearingin, Keno, who found the skeleton, and Deputy Coroner Clarence Ward. The skeleton, believed to be that of a small adult, was found partly buried in a jumble of rocks indicating the unknown person probably died in a slide many years ago.

Town Has Three Mayors in 5 Days, Is Getting 4th

RONCEVERTE, W. Va. (AP)—Residents of this Greenbrier County community are finding it tough to keep up with who's mayor.

They've had three in five days, and another change is coming up. Recorder E. C. Baker explains it this way:

Mayor Jasper C. Bostic quit Monday because City Councilmen Cecil Wiseman and Wheeler Wykel reinstated a policeman Bostic had fired.

Baker, the recorder, automatically moved into the vacant mayor's post.

But he was out of town on business most of the week, so Council met again Thursday night and named Wiseman Mayor. He'll serve until June 30 when Bostic's term expires.

P. K. Yates, elected mayor in municipal balloting Tuesday, will take over July 1.

Attached Oregon Theater Closed

JOSEPH, Ore. (AP)—The Rain-bow Theatre here has been closed under writ of attachment in a suit filed by Actor Walter Brennan against Frank and Bernice McCully.

Brennan sued for more than $10,000 he said was due on notes given to him by McCully to cover rent.

In 1950 Brennan built the theater and leased it to McCully. For the past several months Ab Dalsley of Joseph has operated it for McCully, who is associated with a housing construction company in Las Vegas.
