'Most Horrible Thing I Ever Saw' Says Tornado Witness

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—It was horror, Carl and his 6-year-old son Dennis had just left the scene Tuesday it was the most horrible thing I ever saw.

That's the way John Turbin described the scene of a tornado in the town of Flint, Mich., which was struck away after they left.

Turbin and his wife and two children were in the house when the tornado struck. They were in the living room and the tornado came in through the front door. The tornado was about 100 feet wide and it was very dark.

Stolen Car Found Burned Up in Betty Graveyard
 A car stolen in downtown Klamath Falls Thursday night was found late yesterday abandoned and destroyed by fire in Chief Echelon's cemetery near Betty, according to State Police.

The car, a Hudson sedan, was property of Lundy Robinson, Dairy. It reported the car stolen from the California Oregon Power Company parking lot, 514 and Pine, sometime near 8 p.m. Thursday.

State officers said the empty car was found beside the Betty cemetery and had been wired around the ignition switch by the thieves and police surmised a short circuit may have caused the fire.

Dorris Crash Injures Boy
 DORRIS — A small boy suffered minor injuries, but south of here Monday evening when a car went out of control and struck a utility pole.

William Potts, Salem, was driving north with his two sons, aged 5 and 7. On the curve between the quarantine station and falls at crossing south of town, the car left the highway and hit the pole. A doctor treated the injured boy and released him. The car was badly damaged.
