SQUARE DANCE

Society

by MILLY RAMSBY

Pictures below show part of the large crowd that assembled for the first birthday anniversary party. Some 15 squares of dancers enthusiastically responded to the calls of club caller, B. M. Antle and Skinny Esgate. — Photo by Fred Lawrence
