

LEE HENDRICKS . . . well known Klamath Falls business man shown enjoying a visit with his two granddaughters, Gayle Joan, 14 months, and Patricia Lee, 4 years; here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orris Willard. Mrs. Willard is remembered here as Ruth Hendricks, and she and her family were here as houseguests of the Hendricks at their home, 1021 1/2 Main. They returned to their home in San Francisco Wednesday. Numerous social events were given in honor of the visitors. (See Story).

RUTH HENDRICKS WILLARD VISITS AT HOME OF FATHER

Mrs. Orris (Ruth) Willard, daughter of Lee Hendricks, here for a visit from San Francisco, with her two children at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hendricks.

KLAMATH FALLS GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Fred Karlson has been elected president of the Klamath Falls Garden Club for the coming year. Other officers who will serve are Mrs. K. G. Cummings, first vice president; Mrs. Scott McKendree, second vice president; Mrs. Norman Saunders, secretary and Mrs. George Olson, treasurer.

Mrs. George Grizzle was installed officer. The June meeting was held in the Library Club room. The club donated $5 to the society to "Keep Oregon Green" and announced the delegates, Mrs. Fred Karlson, and Mrs. Will Wood, to the State Garden Club Convention.

Mrs. Edith McLeod was guest speaker and her twelve volumes of herbarium were shown followed by a discussion on the subject. Mrs. Karlson and Mrs. Will Wood attended the National Convention of Garden Clubs in San Francisco.

Mrs. Karlson reported on the sending of seedlings of Douglas Fir and Ponderosa Pine by State Treasurer Sig Unander, to be planted on the estate of Prime Minister Winston Churchill at Chartwell, England. The seedlings came from the State Forest Nursery. Seedlings also have been sent to Hawaii, Guam, Japan and Morocco.

The June meeting will be a potluck picnic at the home of Mrs. Hugh Currin, 2029 LeRoy Street.

Mt. Laki Garden Club Met On 8th

The planting and care of roses was the topic for the last meeting of the Mt. Laki Garden Club, June 8, at the Mt. Laki Community Church with Mrs. F. M. Brethaupt and Mrs. Don Johnson hostesses. The meeting was opened by Mrs. N. E. Nyhart, president. Mrs. John Lehto, acting secretary, read the minutes. The subject "Roses" was discussed by Mrs. L. E. Campbell and Mrs. Clark Kendall of the Evergreen Garden Club gave an interesting talk on flower arrangements.

A plant sale gave everyone an opportunity to supplement plants in gardens. Each member contributed a plant for the sale. The next meeting will be held July 13 at the home of Mrs. N. E. Nyhart with Mrs. John Lehto assisting. A garden tour is planned.

Mrs. Crystal Cheyne and Mrs. N. Nyhart attended the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs, June 8, 10, 11, at McMinnville. Mrs. Nyhart's Audubon scrapbook won first prize in state competition.

Complete line of musical instruments
kyle morgan
your hallday dealer
1033 Main

1021 1/2 Main; arrived about two weeks ago by plane, and were joined later by her husband who had been in New York and other eastern cities on business for Macy Company.

He is construction manager for the firm, and is in charge of the Francisco Bay Area expansion program. He is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. McVey, Lakeshore Drive.

Their two daughters, Patricia Lee 4, named for Pat McVey Erlanson, (cousin of Orris Willard) and for her grandfather Hendricks; Gayle Joan, 14 months, named for a family friend and Joan McVey Palmer, also cousin of her father.

A series of parties were given in honor of Mrs. Willard, and details will be given later. Highlight of social events was the Fathers Day dinner given last Sunday by Mrs. Hendricks honoring the grandfathers of the two girls. Mr. Everett Willard and Mr. Lee Hendricks.

WCS Meeting In Ft. Klamath

FORT KLAMATH — Convening Thursday afternoon, June 11, at the home of Mrs. Stewart Nicholson, members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Fort Klamath Community Methodist Church met for the regular monthly meeting of the group. Co-hostess for the afternoon was Mrs. Richard H. Wilson.

Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, president, conducted the business session during which tentative plans were made for a dinner to be given in the C. I. Clubhouse sometime during August, the date not yet set. Appointed as a committee to plan the menu for the dinner were Mrs. Donald P. Veatch, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and Mrs. Jack B. Thomas.

Mrs. Thomas will also contact the Oregon State fair employment practice bureau and material obtained will be used at future meetings for discussion and short reports.

At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. Donald P. Veatch, program chairman, provided interesting entertainment; when she read or gave excerpts from three articles on topics of timely appeal. First was "A Tribute to A Lady Missionary"; second was a short sketch of the life of John Wesley; and the third consisted of highlights chosen from Whittaker Chambers' book, "I Was a Witness."

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the following guests: Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Harry Orem, Mrs. Ted Floyd and son David, Mrs. Jack Thomas, Mrs. Theodore R. Nicholson, Mrs. Donald P. Veatch, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, and Mrs. C. Elery Echlin, Chiloquin, wife of the pastor of the Fort Klamath Community Methodist church.

*A treat at the
We're ma Coffee Shop
Eastern Corn Fed Steak
Properly aged and Advance in Price*

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

FATHERS DAY 1953

Fathers Day, tomorrow, June 21. Dads will be feted with dinners, and family gatherings. Greetings are extended to all with wishes for a happy day tomorrow.

American Legion Auxiliary And Legionnaire Officers Joint Installations June 2

A joint installation of Legionnaire's and Auxiliary Officers was held at the Memorial Hall June 2. A banquet was served at 6:30 p.m. with Post 8 Legionnaire's as host to Malin, Merrill and Bly Posts and local Winema Post and Auxiliary members.

Installation followed with Mrs. Ethel Hamilton Dist. 4 president as installing officer for the Auxiliary. Newly elected officers installed in the Auxiliary were: Mrs. R. G. Molschenbacher, president; Mrs. K. Hartley, vice president; Mrs. Katherine Keep, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Tom Young, secretary-treasurer; and executive board, Mrs. A. Peterstener, Mrs. John Glubrecht, and Mrs. H. W. Petrick.

Otis Osborne District 4 commander did the installing of newly elected officers of Malin, Merrill, Bly Posts, and local Winema Post and Post 8. Mrs. Molschenbacher has appointed the following chairman and committees: chaplain, Jennie Hurn; sergeant-at-arms, Mable Foster; color bearer, Jean Rawlins; historian, Julia Williams; finance and refreshment committee, Elizabeth Peterstener, Blanch Gowen, Alice Abbott; ways and means, Vivien Hartley, Evelyn McKale, and Irene Brown; Americanism, Marian Barker; child welfare, Donna Hayes Storey and Ada Matthews; civil defense, Laura Scheck; community service Leah Glubrecht; constitution and by-laws, Bell Ross; Girl's State, Myrtle Finley; hospitality, Edna Russell and Anna Bean; junior activities, Ruby Pence; legislature and national security, Florence Ogilvie; membership, Muriel Hartley; music, Bea Van; Pan-American, Ann Hayes; Poppy and Poppy Poster, Katherine Keep; publicity and public relations, Vera Petrick; radio, Lillian Otterbein; hospital and rehabilitation, Lena Steuben; sick and distress, Ariana Schubert; and entertainment, Dorothy Hall and Ruby Pence.

FOR THEIR DADDY . . . these three youngsters had this picture taken. From the left, Jeanne, 4; Thomas, 6; and Susan, 3. Children of Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Schiff, 2124 Ogden; their grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ecklecamp, St. Louis, Mo.

PRE-WEDDING DAYS CROWDED WITH PARTIES FOR BRIDE-ELECT

After school was out and before the round of parties in her honor started, Sally Barnhisel, whose wedding is in the garden of her parents' home today, with her family spent a short week on the coast—after her return June 11—a brief rest prior to dashing from one social event to another given for her. The much feted bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnhisel, 622 Conger.

The soon-to-be Mrs. John Richards is a Gamma Phi at the University of Arizona. Before leaving for summer vacation, a lingerie shower was given for her at the sorority house; and later, friends gave her a kitchen shower at Puente, (where her fiancé's parents live).

LINEN SHOWER
Mrs. Julian Eccles and Mrs. Lyle Kellstrom were hostesses at the Eccles home, 220 Conger, when they invited a large group of Sally's friends to a linen shower. The beautiful spacious home was a picture of flowers inside and out, since the large view windows bring the outdoor scenery into the interior.

Miscellaneous Shower
Mrs. Warren Bennet and daughter Lyle Kellstrom were hostesses at a lovely miscellaneous shower for the popular bride-elect at the Bennet home, 1142 Crescent Avenue. Sally Springer, from Ontario, Calif., bridesmaid, arrived in time to attend this shower and other informal get-togethers.

BUFFET DINNER
Mr. and Mrs. William Hagelstein and Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Rugh entertained for the bride-elect and her family and all out-of-town guests at the Yacht Club with cocktails at 7 p.m., June 18, preceding a buffet dinner. The guest list of about 30, included Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Barnhisel, Sally's grandparents from Tacoma, (Mr. Barnhisel will officiate at his granddaughter's wedding).

Mrs. Frank D. Robinson, aunt from Moscow, Idaho, and son Alireu and his wife (he will be officiating for his cousin's wedding); Sharon Hynes, San Francisco; Peggy Reeves, Glendale, Calif.; Edie Kelly, Bisbee, Calif.; Sally Springer, Ontario, Calif.; John Richards, bridegroom, Puente; Dale Holcomb, also Puente; and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Scott, Eugene. All of the above-mentioned girls are friends of Sally's from college.

REHEARSAL DINNER
Last night Scott Reed was host at the 2049 DelMoro home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reed. He included all of the guests at the Hagelstein-Rugh party; and others were, Barbours Jo Walters, Miles City, Mont.; (Sally's roommate at college this year); Pat Sullivan, Anaheim, Calif.; and Jerry Burley, Long Beach. The host for this event has just returned after two years in Germany on military duty.

BREAKFAST
This morning, Mrs. James Manning and her mother, Mrs. Borge Mason Jr., entertained at a breakfast for all the bride's attendants and out-of-town girls. Mrs. Frank A. Richards, mother of the bridegroom, and her daughter, Mrs. Dale Equitz arrived from Puente in time for the breakfast. They drove up with Dale Equitz, who will be an usher; and his wife will be one of the bridesmaids.

AL Auxiliary
MERRILL — The American Legion Auxiliary met June 9, at the home of Mrs. Eber Kilpatrick. Twenty-one wreaths were made from poppies left from the sale, and placed on veterans and auxiliary members graves on Memorial Day. The Legion Auxiliary members worked on getting donors for the Bloodmobile visit here. Plans were made for serving dinner for the BPW installation of officers on June 17.

The next meeting will be July 14.

HE HAD TO LEAVE before Fathers Day so the family group picture with his children, Anita, 3, and Robert, 5, his wife, Corrine, parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Coleman, Battle Creek, Mich., and the kitten Topsy, will substitute for Dr. Calvin Lawton Hunt's family tomorrow. He left a few days ago to report to Dugway Proving Ground in Utah, and went first to Santa Barbara to see his father who is ill in a hospital there.

He had been assigned to duty in Germany and orders were suddenly changed after he was all set to go. He served 20 months in World War II, and has been in 6 weeks this time. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman visit here annually. They arrived May 5 for an indefinite stay; and will renew acquaintanceships made on previous visits.

Aloha Social Club Meeting

Aloha Social Club members and friends spent an enjoyable afternoon at the regular business and social meeting, June 5, in the Masonic Temple.

Committee members, Ada Matthews, chairman, Dorothy Bramlette and Letha Murphy served tasty refreshments from a tea table beautifully decorated with a gaily trimmed umbrella under which was arranged miniature dolls and vari-colored tulips, white lilies and greenery. Each individual table held small bouquets of spring blossoms.

During the short business meeting President Luella Chilcote announced a food sale to be held July 11, at the Quality Food Market. Rena Oldham announced a rummage sale for September and asked all members to save rummage for this upcoming event.

A visiting member, Mrs. L. D. Schellenberger, Past Matron from Beaverton, Ore., and mother of Worthy Matron, Rhoda Harnden, was introduced and welcomed. An hour of bridge and canasta followed.

Members were asked to reserve Wednesday afternoon, July 8, for the next regular Club meeting which will be a potluck picnic.

MRS. DAVIES' PIANO RECITAL

Mrs. Robert H. (Margaret) Davies presented the following pupils in a piano recital on May 24, at her home, 6125 Simmers Avenue: Hazel Jo DeLamater, Linda Heyden, Joe Riker and Marsha Hitchcock.

Sue Ann Page, Delpha Ellis, Julie Anderson, Edward Tucker, May Ellis, Mary Wells, Sandra Janssen, Dorothy Riker, Betty McDonald, Diane Tillman, Sara Williams and Charlotte Heyden.

Refreshments were served to the guests by Mrs. Bryant Williams—cake, which was decorated with the students names and musical notes; Mrs. H. A. DeLamater, punch; and the coffee by Mrs. Emil Wells.

Wiard Chicken Stile

4831 South 6th

DAD'S DAY SPECIAL

Sun. June 21 --

All the Fried Chicken
You Can Eat!

Make It Easy on Dad's Pocket Book

Our Chicken Comes "Hatch to Hatchet"
From HAGEL'S HENHOUSE

Mom Wiard

Nita Wiard Lundsten

WEDDING
INVITATIONS
and
ANNOUNCEMENTS
Processed or Engraved
Four Day Delivery!
Shaw Stationery Co.
729 Main

Take it from me . . .

KLAMATH BASIN GRADE 'A' PRODUCERS ASSOCIATION PRODUCTION LINE

BESSY

Oregon's dairy industry provides 40,000 jobs for workers . . . lots more for us cows—!