

LIONS CLUB GOVERNORS BALL ... in the Armory Monday was attended by approximately 1000 Lions, auxiliary members and guests. Dancing was preceded by a full course banquet, and the Armory was beautifully decorated in the Lions colors, gold and blue — with greenery, for the important occasion.

In the smaller picture, Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher, Roseburg; with Truman Runyan, President of Klamath Falls Lions Club. The Klamath Falls, Tolattee and Merrill Lions Clubs and auxiliaries were hosts to the out-of-town delegates and guests who were here for the three day session, starting Sunday evening with a barbecue and ending with a luncheon Tuesday noon.

OTI Faculty Wives Potluck

The OTI Faculty Wives and Womens Club potluck dinner and party given for husbands and partners on Thursday evening was a decided success. The delicious food was served at 6:30 to 40 couples, after which court whist was enjoyed. High prizes were taken by Mrs. Carl Stolpe and Grant Bailey, and low were taken by Mrs. Ed

Olson and Winston Purvine. Special prize was won by Mrs. Allison Hong.

Mrs. George Bean was presented with a beautiful bone china cup and saucer. Her many friends connected with OTI will miss her charming and vivacious personality, and wish her and Mr. Bean much happiness back home. She planned this delightful party, under the capable chairmanship of Mrs. John Howard. Others on the committee were Mrs. Hal Rotrock, Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, Mrs. Elmer Zigler, Mrs. Winston Purvine, Mrs. Herb Madole, Mrs. Francis McIntosh and Mrs. Jack Grewell.

The party signed off with a hilarious unrehearsed take-off on "Queen For a Day," emceed by Norma Uerlings as "Mack Walley." The male contestants and models were chosen from the audience and many beautiful "prizes" including "3-D Television Set" were awarded. This marks the end of Faculty Wives Club Activities until next September, when monthly meetings will be resumed.

Oregon Lions Clubs Auxiliaries Tea At Reames Monday Afternoon

The tea at Reames Golf and Country Club for the Auxiliary of Oregon Lions Clubs was beautifully arranged under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert Wood and Mrs. Karl F. Glos. Committee members were Mrs. Francis Landrum, Mrs. Grant Perry, Mrs. Leonard Surles, Mrs. James Lear, Mrs. Wes McNee, Mrs. Woody Walp, Mrs. Jim Misfeldt, Mrs. Claude Chase and Mrs. James Johnson all of Tokatee Lions Club Auxiliary, Mrs. James Johnson and Mrs. Robert Mest, of Klamath Falls Lions Club were also on tea committee.

Pouring during the tea hours from 3:30 to 5 p.m. were Mrs. Gunnar Wohgen, Rogue River; Mrs. Hale G. Thompson, Eugene; Mrs. Elmer W. Blomquist, Astoria; and Mrs. Jesse Rosenbaum, LaGrande; all wives of Lion district governors.

At the head of the receiving line as Mrs. Harold P. Nutter, wife of the past international president of Lions, Members of the State Auxiliary Board received with her: Mrs. Henry Griffin, Astoria, state president; Mrs. Clarence Humble, Klamath Falls, first vice president; Mrs. L. L. Hickock, The Dalles, second vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Rodgers, Portland, third vice president; Mrs. Burton Dunn, Corvallis, fourth vice president; Mrs. Norval Lindberg, Astoria, secretary; Mrs. Eric Hauke, Astoria, treasurer; Mrs. William C. Rohlfing, Grants Pass; Mrs. Larry Neeley, Medford, parliamentarian; Mrs. Earling Orwick, Astoria, auditor; Mrs. Norman Ross, Portland, publicity; and Mrs. Al Crose, Salem, immediate past president.

The Lions colors of purple and gold were effectively used in the flowers and decorations.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Dry, Salem; Mr. Dry is the superintendent of the State School for the Blind at Salem; and Mrs. Keith Ruconich and her daughter Sandra; and Isa Dorah Moldovan. Four year old Sandra, a pupil of Miss Moldovan's dancing school danced and sang for the group.

The tea was one of the many activities packed into the three day session of Oregon Lions and auxiliaries.

ODD FELLOWS AND REBEKAHS

BONANZA — The Odd Fellows and Rebekah Lodges met in regular form Monday night at the lodge hall, with the Odd Fellows treating the Rebekahs to a delicious 8 o'clock dinner. A large crowd enjoyed the dinner and the social evening later.
