

OF INTEREST . . . to their many Oregon friends is the belated news of the wedding in Texas of Rosemary Bigbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hughey, 2041 Vine, to Lieut. Richard Horne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Horne, Portland.

Scene of the double-ring ceremony was the chapel on the San Marcos Air Force Base. The Rev. Father Hennessy read the 8 p. m. service; and the lovely bride was given in marriage by Major William Marsh.

After a honeymoon in New Orleans, they are now at home in Columbus, Miss., where the bridegroom is enrolled in flight training. Couple is also shown at the reception in the Officers Club with the wedding cake; and the bride is shown with Major Marsh as he escorted her to the altar; in the other picture, Mrs. Hughey adjusts her daughter's veil.

Wedding In Grants Pass

Announcement was made recently of the marriage May 21, in Grants Pass of Marjorie Nason, daughter of Merton Nason, Sam's Neck, and Harold Tolleson, Grants Pass, who has been stationed with the Air Force in New Mexico.

The bride was graduated from Butte Valley high school class of '51, and before her marriage was employed at Newberry's, Klamath Falls. The bridegroom has been in the service for the past year. Following their wedding, they drove to the New Mexico air base.

The bridal pair met in Grants Pass, where Marjorie was employed following her graduation from high school. They were guests of Mrs. Stella Evans, Sam's Neck, before leaving for New Mexico.

Merrill Square Dance Club Meets

MERRILL — The Merrill Square Dance Club will meet every second and fourth Tuesdays in the Merrill Recreation Hall during the summer months. This is not a closed club and anyone desiring to enjoy the now most fashionable pastime of square and folk dancing are invited to join in the fun. Jim Bradshaw is caller and instructor. The next club dance will be Tuesday, June 23, with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beasley as hostesses.

There will not be a square dance sponsored by Merrill Grange 717 on Saturday June 20, due to the fact that the hall will be used for another event, but the Merrill Grange will sponsor a square dance, on Saturday, June 27, from 9 to 1, with Jim Bradshaw calling the squares and everyone is invited to participate.

Merrill Rebekahs

Regular meeting of Merrill Rebekah Lodge 151 was held June 15, Irene Hill, appointed to contact members to visit the Bloodmobile, reported the following members donating: Leona Beasley, Roy Beasley, Lena Buck, Naomi Chase, Maxine Cole, Warren Frutts, Troy Qualls and Thelma Stukel.

Mildred Rexford, District Deputy President, announced that a contest will be held among Rebekah Lodges attending the convention in Lakeview Aug. 15. The lodge with the largest percentage of members receiving the Seal of Perfection for giving the unwritten work will win the contest.

The Odd Fellows float participating in the Rose Festival Parade in Portland won first prize in its division. Riding on the float was Merrill Theta Rho Club member, Mary Lou Qualls. Mary Lou leaves soon on a trip to the United Nations which she won in an essay contest sponsored by the IOOF.

Good of the Order chairman Vivian Cunningham gave a short resume on the history of our national flag in honor of Flag Day. Also on the program was Maxine Cole who read an entertaining poem about Noble Grands. Mae Anderson reported her impressions of the coronation which she saw on television during a recent stay in Portland.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jones, Estrid Geraghty, Mae Anderson and two visitors, Elizabeth Ramsby and Jennie Hurn.

ROSEMARY BIGBIE WED IN CHAPEL ON SAN MARCOS AIR FORCE BASE TO LIEUTENANT RICHARD HORNE

In the chapel on San Marcos Air Force base in San Marcos, Texas, at 8 p. m., Rosemary Bigbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hughey, 2040 Vine, was married to Lieut. Richard Horne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Horne, Portland.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Hennessy, base chaplain, and Lieut. Merle Flagg, vocalist, sang Because, Ave Maria, and The Lord's Prayer were heard throughout the service. The altar was beautiful with white and yellow chrysanthemum and white carnations. Table bouquets held white and yellow majestic daisies, green fern and white candleabra holding white candles completed the picture.

The bride, given in marriage by Major William Marsh, wore an ankle-length wedding gown of white Chantilly lace and organza. The long sleeved bolero and strapless bodice were also of lace and the bouffant skirt melted into perma-pleated folds. A fingertip veil of illusion fell from a rhinestone studded tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchid, gardenias surrounded by daisies which trailed down her full skirt.

Mrs. Norman Zehr was matron of honor. Her dress was of soft blue, chiffon with a tiered skirt, and she wore long, matching gloves and a matching band held miniature veil. Her bouquet was of yellow majestic daisies and gardenias.

Lieut. Norman Zehr served as best man and Lieutenants Fred Thoyer and James Holt were ushers. The bride's mother, Mrs. Hughey, wore a navy blue suit of silk faille with matching pink accessories. She flew from Oregon to be with her daughter and after the ceremony visited friends and relatives in the southwest before returning home by plane.

The Officer's Club was the scene of the reception. The couple received approximately a hundred guests. The rooms were decorated with chrysanthemums, gladioli, and fern. The wedding cake, topped with military figurines, was flanked by white tapers in silver candleabra. Daisies surrounded the cake. Champagne was served.

The new Mrs. Horne is a graduate of Klamath Falls high school and of OSC, also of Patricia Lee Modeling School in Portland. Active in dramatics in college, she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta, national social sorority. After graduation she was a hostess with Trans-World Airlines and was based in Kansas City.

Lieut. Horne is graduate of Benson in Portland, and OSC. In college he was active as yell king, in dramatics, and held many offices in his fraternity, Delta Upsilon.

The couple left for a honeymoon in New Orleans amid rice and best wishes. They are making their home in Columbus, Miss., where Lieut. Horne is enrolled in flight training.
