

GETTING ACQUAINTED—Mrs. Helen Martini, in charge of nursery at New York's Bronx Zoo, helps Bambu, a 4-day-old fawn, make friends with a pair of 3-day-old tiger cubs.

CHIPS ON THEIR SHOULDERS—A thin line of Soviet tank and people's police hold their rifles ready as they draw the line on the Soviet side of East Berlin against angry demonstrators. Crowd in foreground boos and catcalls from the safety of the American sector.

LABOR LEADER FOUND GUILTY—Defense Attorney Richard Gladstein of San Francisco (right) consoles Jack Hall (left), Hawaii regional director of the International Longshoremen's Union, after the labor leader was found guilty in Honolulu, along with six others, of Communist conspiracy charges. In center is Dr. John E. Reincke, former schoolteacher and co-defendant with Hall. Hawaiian unionists threatened a general work stoppage protesting the jury's verdict.

TAINT COMING, IT'S GOING—That ball isn't heading for Billy Martin. He just threw it after leap-frogging over Browns' Roy Sievers, who was forced out. The ball, on its way to first, got there in time to cut down Don Lenhardt. Yankees copped the game, 5-0.

BIDDING HER TIME—Jackie Lee, 22, of Cape Neddick, Maine, is biding her time dancing at the Sands in Las Vegas, Nev., until July 9 when she will compete in the Miss Universe contest at Long Beach, Calif. She was chosen Miss Maine before leaving home.

MODELS HIS PRODUCT—Asere T. Sokoore of Basutoland, South Africa, showing his skill at Rhodesian Exposition, uses grass to make a hat similar to the one he is wearing.

ROYALTY TOPS TIMBER—Dutch Princess Beatrix and her Argentine mount, Atalanta, sail over a jump in horse show near Soestdijk Palace. She was fourth in general standing.

HOPES NO BATS IN BELFRY
ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—Adnan Stevenson told a press conference Monday "I hope and pray that President (Syngman) Rhee has not lost his mind." Asked his opinion of developments in Korea, Stevenson said: "I think we can all understand the depth of his feeling but this is a time when cool heads and sound minds are most important."

DEAD AT 106
WOKINGHAM, England (AP)—Henry Beesley, who claimed to be the oldest man in Britain, died at the age of 106. Beesley, who cheerfully admitted that he smoked heavily and had been a whiskey drinker since young manhood, worked as a farmer until he was 98.
