

THE QUEEN TRIALS audience was treated to a bit of clever horseplay by Sheriff's Posse members.

CATHERINE DEARBORN'S horse, Pepper, went lame just a few days before the Queen Trials and Catherine was lucky enough to get the offer of 1951 Queen Margie Brown's horse, Mac, for the trials. That's Pepper with Catherine above.

NAME THE EXPRESSION and you should be able to find it on the faces of this Basin Round-up rodeo gathering. The photographer forgot to tell us what was going on in the arena to create such a variety of reactions.

MISS KLAMATH just didn't want Deb Copenhaver aboard when this rodeo action was caught by the photographer.

KLAMATH ROUNDUP GIRLS are usually happy but the two above were more so than usual when they finally worked their way to the feasting table at the outing on the Lost River Ranch this year. The girls are (l to r) Mary Brown and Alice Jean Chieslak.

SOMETHING IS GOING to get jolted and quick from the looks of that hoss.
