OTI Lists 154 In Honor Role, 100 With Perfect Ratings

The spring term Honor Roll released by Oregon Technical Institute lists 154 students for "outstanding achievement." An even 100 of that number attained a 4.0 rating, highest possible grade.

Red Cross Needs Knitting Volunteers

Local Red Cross has received its production lists for knitting for war casualties. Volunteers are requested to knit toe socks, walking cast toe socks and stump socks for amputees. Articles will be sent to hospitals. Project should be completed within next 90 days.
