Klamath Area Boy Scouts To Join In Migration To Big National Jamboree

Modoc Area Council, Boy Scouts, troops 29 and 30, Klamath Falls and Jefferson, Crook and Deschutes counties, will join thousands of others from all parts of the US during this month in a mass migration to the third National Jamboree near Newport Beach, south of Los Angeles. Seventy local boys and eight adults will register from this area.

Thousands of boys will pass through here starting July 11 and continuing through July 27 on the Great Northern and Southern Pacific Railways.

Passenger trains will be run over the GN on a special dispensation. There will be no layovers except for service on this line. Boys traveling on the SP will detrain for a swim in the Malibu Park pool, for a side trip to Crater Lake and for meals both aboard the cars, at KUHNS and Merrill and Malin. Arrangements for the Crater Lake trip July 12, are being made by the Klamath Falls Lions Club. These boys will be from Yonkers and New Rochelle, N.Y. and will leave the train at Chicago.

On the return trip, 340 boys will leave the train here July 27 for breakfast and will leave with lunch boxes. All meals will be served in the KUHNS cafeteria.

Breakfast will include stewed prunes, branflakes and milk, browned corn beef hash, rolls or toast, milk and coffee for adults.

Pot roast of beef and brown gravy, bottled or baked potatoes, mixed vegetables, bread and butter, steamed fruit with 2-8 ounce cartons of milk will be consumed for dinner.

Lunch will be a hamburger sandwich, piece of cheese on side, India relish, potato chips, fruit advisory committee named by the Tulelake Growers Assoc., to work field station and Burton Hoyle manager will meet tonight, 8 p.m., California time at the station to discuss plans for improved bulk handling of potatoes at harvest time.

Bulk handling is not new to Tulelake growers but mechanical damage is a big factor in this type of operation and it is planned to ask a representative of the University of California agricultural college to meet with the committee in an effort to eliminate much of the difficulty.

The committee has elected Glen Arthur, chairman, Martin Dingle, secretary and members Marlon Palmer, Jeff Prosser, Ben Reimer, William Larson, Ernest Lindsay, William Whitaker and Bob Macy.

Kenneth V. Harris, 43, pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of liquor Monday and was fined $200 and sentenced to 30 days in the County Jail by District Judge D. E. Van Vactor. He was arrested July 2 by State Police approximately three miles south of Midland.

Pope Pius XII has received more people in audience than any other pope in history.

robber with vanilla sauce, milk for lunch. Packed lunch boxes will hold one meat sandwich, one of jelly or peanut butter, one large cup milk, one piece of fresh fruit and milk.

MacDonald Adams, circuit school district 1 and 2, will prepare souvenir pieces of obsidian from Glass Mt. south of Tulelake and a small printed map of the Modoc Council Area for each visiting Scout. He will also serve as director of the commissary for local boys while in camp.

The Rev. David Barnett Jr., will entrain as chaplain and Harold Shearer, Scout executive of the council, will serve as supervisor of inspections.

The section on which local boys will travel will have 3500 boys from the Pacific Northwest, on board.

The local boys will be only a small group in the jamboree which is attracting 50,000 youngsters, creating a new boom town at Jamboree City where not long ago sheep grazed the 3000-acre site on an historic stock ranch 49 miles south of Los Angeles on Coast Highway 101.

The Scout camp will be divided into 34 sections, each to accommodate 34 troops. Each troop will have four patrols of eight scouts each, a senior patrol leader, scribe, quartermaster, two assistant scoutmasters and a scoutmaster.

The scout organization has issued some gigantic figures dealing with appetites of 50,000 boys, who will do most of their own cooking. Food will be supplied by commissaries.

A sample of the quantities of food that will be used in a week lists 190 tons of meat, 600,000 quart of milk, 40,000 dozen eggs, 24 tons of sugar, 160,000 gallons of vegetables, two freight carloads of cereals and 175,000 loaves of bread. Ten freight carloads of charcoal will provide cooking fuel.

A big item for parents is that the camp will have its own telephone system. The number, Newport Beach, Calif., Jamboree 1953.

Walter Stanton, 22-year-old father of six children, was sentenced to 90 days in the County Jail and fined $100 for issuing a bogus check Monday after he admitted to District Judge D. E. Van Vactor that he had been traveling around the county with "another woman."

Stanton pointed out an unidentified woman sitting in the courtroom as his traveling companion.

The check charge to which Stanton pleaded guilty was filed against him by Lloyd Berry, Klamath Falls tavern operator. Stanton was arrested in Sacramento.

The defendant told the court that he had been sending money regularly to his family in Klamath Falls.

"I've been kidded by experts," Judge Van Vactor declared. "You are no expert. I don't believe anything you told me."

File Rifling Report Eyed — WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Investigations Subcommittee will be asked shortly to approve or revise a draft report declaring that secret state department files were rifled through "whim of caprice... or internal office politics."

A report written by the subcommittee staff said the condition of the files, especially those on foreign service personnel, was chaotic, and it added: "This could and did result, in persons whose interests were contrary to the national security remaining undisturbed or being promoted or hired within the state department."

DIES FLORENCE, Italy (AP) — Titta Ruffo, 75, internationally known baritone, died Monday of a heart ailment.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon placed a wreath on the grave of his civil war veteran great grandfather here and called on all Americans to work for freedom everywhere.

"When we lose interest in the freedom of others, we may lose our own freedom," the vice president said in a speech Sunday, commemorating the 90th anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg.

The address at Gettysburg High School stadium followed a brief visit to the grave of George Nixon, a Union Army soldier who died of wounds received on the third day of the famed civil war battle, July 3, 1863.

In his address, Vice President Nixon urged Americans to learn more about "what the Communists advocate."

"The best answer to a false doctrine is to study it and know its weaknesses. When you know both your own system and the Communists', there is no question as to which is better," he said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Monday nominated James H. Smith Jr., Colorado aviation executive, to be assistant secretary of the Navy for air.

Smith, a director of the Slick Airways Co., operating in the Southwest, would succeed John F. Fieber, the White House said. Eisenhower had accepted Fieber's resignation Monday, effective upon Senate confirmation of Smith.

Smith, whose home is in Aspen, Colo., is 42 years old.

He was graduated from Harvard University in 1921 and from Columbia University law school in 1925.

In 1941 he was manager of Pan American Airways' African operations. He served as a Navy pilot during World War II and also was on the staff of Adm. Arthur W. Radford, now chairman-designate of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Klamath Has Quiet Fourth

Police Chief Orville Hamilton Monday gave public-spirited residents of Klamath Falls credit for a safe and sane Fourth of July.

The holiday passed in the city without a serious accident or any unusual disturbance. Aside from some 40 celebrants who were arrested for drunkenness, police had little activity.

Bootlegger Draws Fine

William D. Wakeman, Klamath Falls taxi driver, convicted by a District Court jury last week of bootlegging, was fined $100 Monday.

Wakeman who was tried before District Judge D. E. Van Vactor, was arrested after he was alleged to have sold a pint of whisky to an undercover agent for the Oregon Liquor Control Commission.

Prior to Wakeman's trial, Judge Van Vactor dismissed a bootlegging charge against another taxi driver, Wesley E. Ray. The court upheld the contention of Defense Attorneys Edwin E. Driscoll and George Proctor that the prosecution had failed to prove a bottle offered in evidence at the Ray trial contained intoxicating liquor.
