

SACRED HEART CATHOLIC CHURCH SCENE OF DOUBLE WEDDING

Society

by MILLY
RAMSBY

A NUPTIAL MASS CELEBRATED in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, June 27, at 10 a. m., was of special interest to the many guests, many of whom witnessed for the first time, a double wedding. The principals included a brother and sister, Andrew Honzel Jr., and Phyllis Honzel, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Honzel Sr., of Lakeshore Drive, and Brookings. Bride of Andrew Jr., Beverly Young, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young, 230 Donald; and Phyllis became the bride of Dr. Edward Raitano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Raitano, San Francisco.

— Additional Pictures on Inside Page

JEAN RAE OLDENBURG'S WEDDING TO FRED COLES IS SUMMER SOCIAL EVENT

ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH was filled to capacity and overflowed into the parish hall with the many wedding guests who witnessed the beautiful and impressive nuptial service read by the Rev. Galen Onstad, June 28, at 4:30 p. m., solemnizing the marriage of Jean Rae Oldenburg to Fred W. Coles. The lovely bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ray Oldenburg, 1228 Pacific Terrace; and her husband is the son of Mrs. Lee Stephens, presently at Macdoel, after spending the winter in Arizona.

The picture of the bridal party includes from the left, Elizabeth Moss, junior bridesmaid, bride's cousin from Vancouver, B. C.; Joy Reno, Grants Pass; and Joan Moore, bridesmaids; Diane Oldenburg, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and also soloist for her sister's wedding.

Next to the bride and bridegroom, Spencer Erickson, best man; Paul Oldenburg Jr., Tom Oldenburg, cousins of the bride, Portland; and Don Erickson, ushers. In the foreground, vivacious little Jean Bispham, flower girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bispham Jr.

— Additional Pictures on Inside Page

All Photos by Guderian