Birthday Party In Bronco Room

FORT KLAMATH — The flower bedecked Bronco Room of the Old Fort Tavern and Cafe was the setting for a gay party given on Friday afternoon, June 26, when Mrs. Clay Thomas entertained in honor of the fifth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Janet Rae (better known to all as "Pigeon").

Playmates of the little girl enjoyed games as the diversion of the afternoon, with Ellen Veatch being awarded a prize for the donkey contest, while James Veatch won the marshmallow race.

Assisted by her mother, Janet Rae opened her numerous gifts, after which a candle topped, specially decorated birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream and soda pop by Mrs. Thomas. All appointments and favors were in the happy birthday motif.

In addition to Mrs. Thomas, adults enjoying the afternoon were her mother, Mrs. Ray Martin, visiting at the Thomas home from Klamath Falls; Mrs. William C. Martin, Mrs. Mitchell (Mike) Beaulieu, Mrs. Donald P. Veatch, Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescok, Mrs. Blaine Brattain, Mrs. Harold Redden, Mrs. Frank Kendall, Mrs. Alfred Feezer and Mrs. Gail Culver.

Sending birthday remembrances to Janet Rae but not present were Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley and Betty Jo McQuiston.

FAMILY HOME

CHILQUIN — Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pohl were hosts a week ago when seventeen of their family members were home for a week-end. Only four of the immediate family were missing — the Clifford Planchons from the Bay area.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pohl, Marilee and Martin, from Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Pohl and daughter, who had just moved from Seattle and are now in Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. George Pohl and sons from Klamath Falls, Bill Pohl of Bly, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wampler and Mike, who live locally.

ONE OF JUNE'S IMPORTANT WEDDINGS . . . was that of Fayanna Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Nelson, Poe Valley, well-known throughout the Klamath Basin, to Dick Petzoldt, Eugene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Petzoldt, Folsum, Calif. The Rev. Lloyd Holloway was officiating minister in the First Methodist Church, June 21, 2 p.m.

PASTEL COLORS FEATURED AT PRETTY WEDDING JUNE 21

First Methodist Church was the setting for a lovely June wedding when Fayanna Nelson and Richard (Dick) Petzoldt exchanged vows at 2 p.m. in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives, the Rev. Lloyd Holloway, officiating.

The bride is a member of a well known Basin family, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. (Newt) Nelson, Poe Valley; and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Petzoldt, Folsum, Calif.

Mrs. L. R. Hiatt, organist, accompanied soloist, Mrs. Irvin Whit, Pink and white giddioli and snapdragons were used for church decorations.

Fayanna wore a gown of French embroidered tulle, instep length, with four tiers of embroidered tulle ruffles down each side of the full tulle skirt. The top featured an embroidered long sleeved brief bolero. Her veil was of scalloped illusion, held in place by a pearl studded crown. She carried a white Bible centered with white roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor, Beverly Karnes (now Mrs. Rudy Magallanes), wore pale green embroidered organdy, walks length, with embroidered outlining the low square off the shoulder neckline which extended into tiny puff-sleeves. She carried a nosegay bouquet of pale green carnations and white roses and wore a matching headband.

Bridesmaids, Betty Bennet and

Doris May Gilbert, the latter from Coos Bay, were dressed exactly as the maid of honor, except that their dresses were orchid and yellow respectively, with matching bouquets and headbands.

Best man was Harold Howard; and ushers were Bill Brandness and Don Taylor.

Mrs. Nelson wore a navy blue and white costume and her shoulder corsage was of orchids. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Petzoldt, also wore navy blue and her corsage was of pink roses.

The reception was in the church parlors, and pouring were Mrs. Arnold McKoen and Louise Linman, Mrs. Moore Richards cut the cake; and Marilyn Hemingsen assisted.

For going away, Fayanna wore a powder blue summer knit suit with white accessories. After a trip to Tahoe for their honeymoon, the new Mr. and Mrs. Petzoldt will be at home, 1519 Donald.

Surprise Party For T. L. Dorrel

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Dorrel, 4603 Bisbee, were honored at a surprise party on the occasion of their Golden Wedding anniversary. Hosts for the event were their sons and other close relatives.

Refreshments were served from a table arranged with a beautiful wedding cake and appropriate gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorrel were married at the home of the bride in Taney County, Missouri, on June 14, 1903. They spent the first 36 years of their married life in Missouri and Arkansas before coming to Oregon.

The Dorrells reared a family of six boys and one daughter, all of whom are living except one son. The sons, James, Vernie, Clyde, Ray and Joe, all live in Klamath County with their families. One nephew, Dick Booth, and family lives here also.

The daughter, Mrs. Fay Paul, resides in Los Angeles, Calif., and was unable to attend the party because of illness.

Besides their children, Mr. and Mrs. Dorrel have 25 grandchildren and one great grandchild. Eighteen of the grandchildren were present at the anniversary party.

can YOU answer TODAY'S Question?

If not... JERRY THOMAS

this question:

I am one of those recent June brides, and among the wedding gifts my husband and I received was an expensive Oriental rug valued at $2000. The rest of our furnishings are rather inexpensive by comparison. Should we mention this rug specifically, and its value, when applying for fire insurance?
