Fort Klamath
By MYRTLE WIMMER
Mr. and Mrs. P. Fox and son, Eugene, here Monday, July 6, visiting old friends, were overnights house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kendall and family. The Foxes moved to Eugene nine years ago where he is employed with the logging office here, then going to Klamath Falls to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bill Siegel and family (also a former local resident) before going on to Bend. P. Fox, Donald Roeder has been transferred from Fort Lewis, Wash., to the army post at Fort Ladd, near Fairbanks, Alaska, according to word received here. Mr. and Mrs. P. Fox and family are now in Eugene, and Mrs. Marjorie Roeder, Young Roeder is with an infantry division.

Mrs. Frank Kendall was called to Garfield, Calif., last Thursday by the news of her daughter's illness which required major surgery. She is the former Norma Kendall, now Mrs. Thora Winn.

Visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pope and family are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ott, Portland.

Folks who have been on the sick list recently are all reported improved. Home from Hillside Hospital following a siege of virus infection with meningitis reactions are Mrs. Harry Orem and son Gary, dismissed Sunday following a ten day stay at the same hospital was Billy Baden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vaden; Mrs. Hugh Routly was brought home Thursday from Hillside, and is recovering following emergency surgery. Alice Gray, who fell and broke her right wrist last Thursday at Klamath Valley, she is home now but will be unable to resume employment at the Fort Klamath Hotel for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Meschke were visiting their daughter Dorothy at Crater Lake Park lodge Wednesday evening when they were notified of the illness of her father, Homer Frankland, who underwent major surgery at Tacoma last week. Mr. and Mrs. Meschke left at 2 a.m. for Tacoma on the trip north to be with him.

Correction: The Rev. and Mrs. Edmund Stanton have no family as erroneously reported in last week's column.

Visiting here from Tuesday until Friday at the Emmett McKeen home were her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bennett, also her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Tucker, all of Vernonia, who came by way of Cutler City where they were joined by McKeen's 84 year old aunt, Mrs. Jack McKeen, former Chiloquin resident. On Wednesday, the group picnicked at the McKeen home with special guests Guss Page, Mrs. Gene A. Page, Gerry and Gayle Opel, The Bennetts and Tucker returned Friday to Vernonia, but Mrs. McKeen remained at the home of her nephew. Other recent guests at the McKeen home were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Herman, Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Lucille Walz, Los Molinos, Calif., is visiting here at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Feener, daughters Margot and Rhonda.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wimer are proud parents of an eight lb. 12 oz. boy, born July 11 at Klamath Valley Hospital. The boy was uncle, James Van Wormer and paternal grandfather, Harold Wimer.

Mrs. Blaine Brattain and Mrs. Dennis Knowles were omitted from the account of Mrs. Don Wimer's recent layette shower due to a typographical error. Both were included in the hostess group for the affair.
