CIC Meeting

FORT KLAMATH—Postponed on account of the 4th of July holiday the July 3 meeting of the Civic Improvement Club was held on the following Friday, July 10, in the clubhouse, with president, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, in the chair, and Mrs. Wilbur B. Hinescock acting as secretary pro tem, in the absence of the regular secretary, Mrs. Bert Gray.

The monthly financial report was given by the treasurer, Mrs. William A. Page, after which routine standing committee reports were heard, and final plans made for the third annual Western style street dance to be held in Fort Klamath on Saturday evening, July 18.

The nearly disastrous fire on Wednesday afternoon, July 8, resulted in considerable damage to the clubhouse, and ways and means were discussed as to feasibility of building a new cement foundation. It was decided that cost of material and labor entailed would be investigated and an estimate to cover both would be obtained.

Members present were unanimously in favor of extending a public vote of sincere thanks and appreciation to all who helped in any way to extinguish the blaze, which for a time threatened to destroy the clubhouse.

Mrs. Frank Edwards was appointed by the president to represent the club to work in cooperation with Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, president of the Women's Society of Christian Service, on the proposed project of building an outdoor community fireplace on local church property.

At the next meeting on Friday afternoon, August 7, plans will be completed for the last of the two birthday parties to be given this year.

After the meeting Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley read a letter from her son Wilfred, stationed with the U. S. Army, all force on an island 40 miles from Korea; in his letter, Korean people and their way of life were described in interesting detail.

Members present were: Mrs. Harold Wing, Klamath Agency, and her house guest, Mrs. Allen Edmiston, Portland; Mrs. Myrtle E. Denton, Mrs. Walter J. Wright, Mrs. Gene A. Page and daughter Gayle Opal, Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Wilbur B. Hinescock, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley and Mrs. Harold L. Wimer.

MILLER'S

Mommies will tell you that a gal's pretty legs are her best asset. Some will argue that her crowning glory is tops or that her eyes haunt him, but "bu-leave me" if your under-pinnings are the stiring bean or watermelon type, his eyes WILL stray. Gals in the hoop-skirted era didn't have a worry along THAT line but you can't deny its womanly charms in a bathing suit so look to your "shanks, gals, look to your shanks" and trim the fuss, exercise and use PLENTY of leg lotion.

"Women are the most underrated creatures on earth!" So says a man, L. J. Sorenson, chief executive of a big manufacturing company who believes that male superiority is an ancient myth, first established by gals, maybe in the stone age because they recognized the advantage of keeping male egos inflated. The dear men are still recognized as the heads of families but you can't deny its womanly charms as soon as a son is born begins establishing his daily habits so Sorenson repeats that the titles of family leaders belong to the ladies.

Ladies! The time is COMING when keeping house will be done with the wave of a wand if manufacturing continues to dream up time saving home aids. Promised for this fall are table cloths and pillow cases that need no ironing . . . fitted blankets that cut bed-making time in half . . . bath towels that will dry faster . . . place mats that virtually "reject" stains . . . man-made fibers that will not fade . . . the secret lies in the blending of the yarns.

In completing our new home we hired a gardener to put in the lawn and do some landscaping. Later some neighborhood children ran across the growing lawn while it was wet. It cost quite a bit to repair the damage. Does any of our insurance cover this?
