Beaver Face Sacs, Brovia

Riding a 4 1/2 game Pacific Coast League lead, the Hollywood Stars hope to make their position more secure as they open a week-long series at San Francisco Tuesday against the fifth place Seals.

With well-pitched games in Hollywood's two victories over second-place Seattle on Sunday and Monday's rest, Manager Bobby Bragan appears to have his mound staff in good shape for the Seals.

Seattle's Rainiers, fighting to stay in the race after failing to close the gap in their head-on engagements with the Stars, open at San Diego.

Veteran Vern Kindsfater will hurl for the Rainiers against the Padres' young left hander Memo Luna.

Portland's Beavers play at Sacramento hoping an ex-teammate, Joe Brovia, doesn't unload on them the way he did on Los Angeles Sunday.

Joe hit three homers in a seven-inning game against the Angels. He was hit, 'tis reported, not at the umpires, but at the official scorer. Joe wasn't given a hit on his last trip in the opener with the scorer charging the Angel shortstop with an error.

Joe thought he should have had a hit and proceeded to bang out his three homers in four times at bat. That way there could be no doubt.

Los Angeles, still recovering from a Sacramento home run assault, plays host to Oakland.

Jalopies Race Wednesday

Race fans, whose appetite for speed is unlimited apparently, will get a double dose of hardtopping this week at Gems Speedway.

The Jalopies will run Wednesday night in addition to its regular Sunday night program.

Rained out of several shows early in the season, tomorrow night's menu will give drivers a chance to pick up some extra spending money.

Russ Newell, who leads in local point-gathering after picking up 32 points Sunday primarily on his main event win, will aim for his second straight victory in the feature race.

Slight shuffling among the Big Five in high-point men puts Newell ahead of Dale Hankins, now second with 206, Johnny Hilsen third with 192, Ben Morrison fourth with 181 and George Smith in fifth spot with 166.

Wednesday night's program, as on Sunday, will bill time trials for 6:45 p.m., the first event at 7:30.

Track Manager Sam Neslin said a pot race would be added, but no details were available early this morning.

Some repairing was scheduled on the home-turn fence where several Sunday night "clobbers" ripped a huge hole.

Five heat races, trophy dash, special event, semi main and main event will be included—in addition to a Pilmenz race, now tentative.

Home runs by pitcher Art Worth and catcher Bill Sheets gave the Spokane Indians a 6-5 Western International League baseball win over Victoria Monday night and increased their first place margin to a full game.

The Indians spotted the Tyees four runs in the first two innings, evened the count with a pair of runs in each of the next two frames, and went ahead in the sixth on Sheets' round-tripper.

Worth's homer at the start of the ninth proved to be the payoff blow as the Tyees added their final tally in their half of the inning.

Tri-City hurler Ken Michelson limited Vancouver to four hits but the Capitanos converted three of them into runs and emerged with a 4-3 victory in the opener of a three-game series at Vancouver.

A pair of singles, a hit batsman and a triple accounted for three tallies in the first inning. Errors by Ray and Len Tran let in the winning run in the fifth. Tri-City scored single runs in the fourth, sixth and eighth innings.

Yakima and Calgary produced 40 hits between them in a wild affair at Calgary, won by Yakima 19-12. The visiting Bears outlugged the Stampede 23-17. The barrage included seven home runs.

The three games were Monday night's only scheduled contests. Tuesday night Salem moves to Lewiston for a three-game series with the Broncos and Wenatchee tackles Edmonton's Eskimos at Edmonton.

PORTLAND (AP) — Tal Smith of Alameda, Calif., and Portland's Bruce Cudd both toured the Columbia-Edgewater Club course in five-under-par 67s Monday to share the lead in the qualifying round of the Pacific Northwest Golf Association tournament.

Cudd, Oregon amateur kinsman, toured the out nine in 33 and carded a 34 on the nine. Smith, Northern California amateur champion for five years, carded 34 out and 33 in.

Dodgers Shut Out Cubs, 3-0

By BEN FLEGER, AP Sports Writer

Some of the National League's best pitching magic must have rubbed off on Charles Dresden at the All-Star Game.

After associating with the likes of Robin Roberts, Warren Spahn & Co., Charles has come home to Brooklyn and with a wave of the hand—the one he used to wag frantically at the bullpen—he's suddenly converted a staff of throwers into a reasonably dangerous assortment of pitchers.

Dresden still has to be the master of the quick change, such as last night when Russ Meyer suddenly blew up in the ninth after shutting out Chicago on three hits for the first eight innings. But on the whole he has been getting good pitching—good enough that it's going to be harder and harder to bug the Brooks from their first-inning spot.

TEAM UP
Meyer and Jim Hughes combined to pitch the second Dodger shutout in seven games, a five-hit 3-0 effort against the Cubs that stretched the Brooklyn lead over the idle Milwaukee Braves to 3 1/2 games.

The only other action yesterday was in Pittsburgh, where the Pirates preserved their lead in a suspended Sunday game to beat the St. Louis Cardinals 6-4 and then bowed in a regularly scheduled contest 6-4 as Steve Bilko broke a batting slump with two home runs and a pair of singles.

Meyer and Hughes were lucky to get out of the ninth inning without being scored upon since the first four Cub batters reached first base.

DOUBLE
Eddie Miksis started it with a double. Dee Fondy walked. Ralph Kiner singled and Randy Jackson's sinking liner fell in front of right fielder Don Thompson. By now there were two men out.

Miksis' double was legitimate. So was Fondy's walk. But Kiner's blow, a screaming knee-high drive toward center field, struck Miksis on the leg. The baserunner was out automatically, the ball was dead and the rules credit Kiner with a single.

With Fondy on second and Kiner on first, Dresden switched from Meyer to Hughes. Jackson looped one over the infield that fell in short right for an apparent hit but Kiner held too long at first and was forced at second by Thompson's throw. Thus two were out even though the first four batters had reached first base.

The Cubs made one last attempt to break the shutout as Joe Garagiola caught Hughes' first pitch and rifled it over the right field screen—foul by less than 10 feet. Then he hit Gil Hodges at first base to end the game.

The victory was the sixth in seven games for Brooklyn since the All-Star break.

WINS FOURTH
For the Pirates, Paul Lapalme picked up where he left off Sunday and pitched four more scoreless innings to win his fourth game. The Cards had been at bat in the sixth with one out when the Sunday curfew forced a halt.

In the regular game Pittsburgh jumped off ahead with four runs in the first inning against Stu Miller but the Cards soon caught up. Bilko homered with the bases empty in the fourth and with Manager Eddie Stanky aboard in the ninth. Peanuts Lowrey drove in two runs with a triple in the sixth inning. Cliff Chambers, second of four St. Louis pitchers, received credit for his first victory of the season.

Everybody gets back into the act today and tonight with a day game and three night contests in the American League and a day game, a twilight-night double-header and two single night games in the National League.

Lodge Gals See Sights, Lose Three

The Travel Lodge team saw a lot of scenery—and a lot of good softball—when they finished on the short end of three scores in a weekend trip south.

The girls lost to the Alameda Merchants Friday night on the Washington Park Field by a 10-6 count. Ruth Hagelstein accounted for three of the Lodgers' runs with a home run. Catcher Teddy Walker sprained her ankle early in the game and had to sit the rest out.

The Jim Allison Girls of Oakland whipped the local team, 10-2, Saturday night behind the two-hit pitching of Betty Sargent.

Sunday night, with three players missing due to a breakdown of one of the cars, Redding whipped the Travel Lodge team, 14-4. Teddy Walker filled in although her ankle still bothered her. Sherry Larson, Pat and Sandra Barron were the missing players.

When Michigan State's Stan Droba and Tom Belton won the Big Ten No. 1 doubles championship this year, it marked the third straight year the Spartans had won this tennis title.

Wife Says Ben Won't Go Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Ben Hogan came home Tuesday with the third jewel in golf's triple crown—the British Open—and his wife, Valerie, said she hoped he would never try such an undertaking again.

"Ben lost about 20 pounds," Mrs. Hogan, a petite, quiet speaking brunette said. "He is thoroughly exhausted. I was worried about him."

Hogan won the Masters and his fourth U. S. Open before making his first trip to Britain a victorious one at Carnoustie, Scotland.

Hogan looked thin and a bit wan as he doctored at 7 a.m. test, from the U. S. liner United States to await a noon ticker-tape parade and a reception at City Hall such as has not been accorded an American golfer since Bobby Jones won the grand slam in 1930.

In a ship-board interview the wiry Fort Worth, Texas, shotmaker talked like anything but a man who is ready to give up the game. "I plan to continue playing golf," Hogan said, "and I am certain I will play again in the Open. Whether I play in a British tournament again is a question. That is a long way off, I will decide when the time comes."

BATTING — Steve Bilko, St. Louis Cardinals, broke out of a batting slump with two home runs and two singles in the Cards' 9-4 victory over Pittsburgh.

PITCHING — Russ Meyer, Brooklyn Dodgers, struck out nine and combined with Jim Hughes, who worked the last two thirds of an inning, to shut out Chicago, 3-0.

FARGO GOLFER 'Birdies' Twice
FARGO, N. D. (AP) — Golfer Jim Reed of Fargo, playing in the North Dakota amateur tournament Monday, knocked off two birdies and a par—on the same hole.

Reed's tee shot on the par five fourth hole struck two meadow larks on the fairway, killing both. He then went on to par the hole.

Cokes Aim For District Meet

Klamath Falls, baseball boss in American Legion Junior Baseball League 4, seeks the Southern Oregon District Title Saturday and Sunday.

The Cokes will go against North Bend, League 10 champ, and Albany, kinsman in League 3, in a double elimination tournament in Albany.

A warm-up game with Mt. Shasta Wednesday, 5:45 p.m., has been scheduled at Recreation Park. The winner of the district tourney will qualify for the Big Show, the state Junior Legion tournament in Salem August 10-13.

The Cokes won the district play-off berth Sunday with a double win over Central Point after virtually nailing the title down in a previous twin win over Medford.

Albany slipped into the playoffs Sunday with two victories over Eugene, 11-9 and 14-3.

North Bend's victory in League 10 didn't come until last night and it came the hard way. Roseburg needed just one victory after whipping North Bend Sunday. But last night North Bend won the first game, 11-5, to tie things up. Then it took North Bend 11 innings to rap out a 3-2 victory for the league title.

Millie Blanks Oregon Wool

Travel Lodge kept its one-game lead over Malin last night in the Women's City Softball League with an 11-5 win over Merrill while Malin was blanking Oregon Wool, 14-0.

Malin played errorless ball behind Millie Schmidli, who pitched the shutout in the make-up game. In the other scheduled game, the Millers out-hit Big X, 14-9.

Players 'Better Be Ready'

PORTLAND—Rival coaches in the sixth annual Shriners' Hospital football game warned their players today they had better be in top condition and "ready to go" when they report here Aug. 9 for two weeks of practice.

Harry Scarff, who piloted Central Catholic to the state prep crown last year, heads the coaching staff of the Portland All Stars, and seated across the Multnomah stadium gridiron the night of Aug. 22 will be Pete Susick, Marshfield coach, who will be directing the Oregon All Stars.

Scarff and his assistants, Eric Waldorf of Portland's Jefferson high and Ralph Harper of Benson Polytechnic, don't intend to lose any time putting the Portland All Stars through their paces.

"If the boys report in good physical condition, we can save a lot of valuable time and get right down to scrimmage sessions," Scarff stated. Susick echoed the same sentiments on the part of the Oregon All Stars staff.

The sixth renewal of the Shriners' grid classic will see the Portland All Stars trying to break into the win column after two straight losses to the Oregon All Stars—20 to 13 in 1951 and 12 to 6 last year. A win for the Portlanders would also even the series at three games each.

SEE RECORD
Officials in charge of "Football's Finest Hour" predict a record crowd for this year's tussle, pointing out that ticket sales throughout the state are heavier than at any time in the past. All proceeds go to the Northwest unit of Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children.
