CHICAGO (AP) - Most grains had a steady tone on the board of trade Tuesday even though they weren't able to make much forward progress.

Fractional gains were posted in most pits, although wheat was lower much of the day. That wasn't too surprising as wheat was due for a little reaction after six straight days of advances.

July soybeans had a weaker tone at times on liquidation, but recovered. Both July corn and oats were quite firm on short covering. Oats also were bought on reports of crop damage.

Wheat closed 3/4 to 1 1/2 lower, July $1.96 3/4, corn 1/2 lower to 1 1/4 higher, July $1.57 1/4-$1.57, oats 1/2 lower to 3/4 higher, July 75 1/2-75, rye unchanged to 3/4 lower, July $1.30, soybeans 1/4 lower to 1 1/4 higher, July $2.71-$2.70 3/4, and lard 15 to 42 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $10.75.

Table with columns: Open, High, Low, Close. Rows include July, Sep, Dec, Mar, May.
