Draft-Drop Predicted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department anticipates that monthly draft calls will drop 4,000 in about three months if reasonably stable conditions are achieved in Korea within that time.

John A. Hannah, assistant secretary for manpower, disclosed this prospect recently in stressing the continuing need for selective service as long as the United States keeps more than three million men in uniform.

A 4,000 drop would mean cutting the monthly call from 33,000 to 29,000.

However, Hannah calculates that it may be necessary to raise the monthly draft quota to around 40,000 beginning in July 1954. The reason is that draft calls were very heavy in the first 18 months of the Korean War, and large numbers of those men will be completing their cycle of duty next year.

There is no definite word yet on how the truce in Korea will affect rotation of men who serve there. The Far East Command has been told to work out a modification in the rotation schedule.

Signaling Angler Blamed for Blaze Of Third Acre

EUGENE (AP) — A lost fisherman who set a signal fire was blamed by forestry officials Monday for a woods blaze that sent crews into a lower Willamette River area Sunday.

The foresters put out the fire after it had burned a third of an acre.

Otto Hammel of the Rignodon forest guard station near Oakridge, reported that Don Lewis, 23, and his father-in-law, C. O. Doty, became separated about 20 miles southeast of Oakridge while fishing Saturday.

Hammel said a signal fire set by Lewis Saturday night spread into timber. Lookouts saw the blaze Sunday morning and dispatched a fire crew. About noon, Lewis walked into the Rignodon station.

Don Lewis, 23, and his father-in-law, C. O. Doty, became separated about 20 miles southeast of Oakridge while fishing Saturday.
