Successor Named To Weed Chief

WEED — The resignation of George Bernardi as chief of police of the Weed Police District has been accepted by the Police commission.

Appointed to replace him is William Skeldon who has been with the department as patrolman since June 1950.

Chief Bernardi, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Bernardi have lived in Weed since 1922, grew up with the town and is a graduate of the local high school. He was advanced from patrolman to chief on the resignation of Earl Pederson.

Bernardi resigned to take a position with the California Department of Motor Vehicles as a drivers' license examiner. His resignation becomes effective August 1. He will leave immediately for assignment in Sacramento.

The new chief was born in Evansville, Ind., and, in 1948, was a member of the Kentucky State Highway Patrol during which time he attended the Police Academy at Frankfort, Ky. While he was on Shore Patrol duty with the Navy in San Diego, he met his present wife, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fraelich, who later moved to Weed.

Grains

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat futures recovered on the board of trade Wednesday after the setback of the previous session.

Export buying helped keep wheat firm most of the time. There was little hedging pressure on the market, traders said. Reports of rust damage to spring wheat in the Northwest also caused some buying.

Soybeans continued highest most of the time on buying aided by good cash demand, an advance in processor bids to the country, and strength in soybean oil futures.

Wheat closed 2 to 2⅜ cents higher, Sept. 1.96⅝-½, corn was 1¼ to 1¾ higher, Sept. 1.47¾-½, oats were ⅛ to 1 up, Sept. 74⅜-¾, soybeans ½ to 1¼ higher, Sept. 2.56 ¼-2.56, and lard was 5 to 18 cents a hundred pounds higher, Sept. 11.00.

Weed Judge Totals Year

WEED — The annual report for the Weed Judicial District Court has been released by Judge Kenneth T. Stone and shows a total of 2007 criminal, misdemeanor and civil cases have passed through his court since July 1, 1952, and the ending of the fiscal year on July 1, 1953.

The largest number of cases were for traffic violations amounting to 1638. There were 180 other misdemeanor arrests made. During the first half of the fiscal year only 10 preliminary hearings were held on felony charges, but during the last half of the year this increased to 24, marking up an aggregate of 34 for the year.

During the period from July 1, 1952, to January 1, 1953, of the 830 persons arrested, 763 were either convicted or bound over to a higher court after a plea of guilty. Fines were paid into court by 53 persons and 48 had jail sentences imposed. Other dispositions were made of the balance. Of the 67 arrested but who did not come into court, 41 forfeited bail and the other 26 have been apprehended.

The period from January 1 to July 1, 1953, showed 844 arrests for traffic violations such as speeding, failing to give right of way and passing through stop signs; 72 for illegal parking and 82 for other misdemeanors. Of these 40 forfeited bail, 568 paid fines, 30 had jail sentences imposed and other dispositions made of 211 cases. Of those cited on traffic violations, 188 are yet to be apprehended.

There were 126 small claims filed in the civil division and 29 other types of civil cases heard during the year by Judge Stone.

FIRST CAMERAMAN

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Last rites were scheduled today for one of Hollywood's first cameramen, Clyde de Vinna, 63. He died Sunday of a heart attack.

The first cameraman at the old Inceville studios in 1915, he filmed the next year "The Raiders," first movie shot at what is now MGM. He won the Academy Award in 1929 for his filming of "White Shadows of the South Seas."

User Of Shortest Route Out Of Weed Didn't Have Train

WEED—Driving an automobile down a railroad track out of Weed last Thursday proved an unprofitable venture for Ernesto Forres Ramos. Observed by Weed Police Chief George Bernardi, he was stopped and charged with driving under the influence of alcohol.

Investigation proved that he worked for the railroad and was stationed at the road camp at Bolan, ten miles from Weed. He was trying to get back to camp and, in his inebriated state, thought the railroad right of way was the shortest route.

Appearing before Judge Kenneth T. Stone in the Weed Judicial District Court Friday, he pleaded guilty to the charge but insisted that he had a driver's license at the camp, a charge of no driver's license having been also lodged against him. The judge fined him $300 on the first count and withheld judgement on the second count until he produced his license.

The previous week Raymond Owen Jeannot Jr., was certified to the Superior Court at Yreka for pronouncement of judgement following a guilty plea on the charge of passing fictitious checks. He appeared before Judge Stone July 16; the $1500 bail under which he was held was remanded.

Jeannot asked Ralph Santini, owner of a local hotel, to cash a check for $30 July 1, having taken a room at the hotel. Again on July 7, he tried to get another check for $15 cashed. The checks were written on the United States National Bank at Pendleton, Ore., where it was found he had insufficient funds to cover them.

He was picked up by Chief of Police George Bernardi in the waiting room of the Greyhound Bus depot where he was ready to board a bus with a ticket in his pocket for Eugene.
