

A PRETTY PICTURE . . . in lace and net, was Barbara McMahan, bride in First Presbyterian Church, when she exchanged vows with Bill Joplin in a marriage service read by the Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., July 12, at 2 p.m. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold N. McMahan, 3227 Altamont Drive; and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Violet Joplin, 1827 Oregon Avenue.

HAPPY COUPLE . . . the new Mr. and Mrs. Bill Joplin, who were on their way to the California Coast not long after the picture was taken.

BARBARA McMAHAN WEDDING IS SOCIAL EVENT OF JULY 12

Filmy white nylon net over taffeta and accented with Chantilly lace was fashioned into the beautiful bridal gown worn by Barbara McMahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold N. McMahan, 3227 Altamont Drive, for her wedding to Bill Joplin, son of Mrs. Violet Joplin, 1827 Oregon Avenue. The fitted bodice of lace was styled with long fitted sleeves and an off the shoulder scalloped neckline was featured on the net yoke. The full skirt was made with a full court train.

Her lace edged fingertip veil of nylon net was held with a close fitting crown of seed pearls and orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a wrist band of white roses arranged with stephanotis and white satin ribbon.

Vows were exchanged in the First Presbyterian Church, July 12, at 2 p.m., before a background of lavender and white gladioli, majestic chisels and lighted tapers in tall candelabra. White satin bows marked alternate pews. The Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., was officiating minister.

Mrs. Elbert Veaton, organist accompanied Donald Bryan, soloist. Maid of honor, Dorothy Patton, wore a wood violet gown of tulle, nylon net, strapless, with net stole. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of lavender carnations and chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids, Mary Lou Joplin and Barbara Arnold were dressed exactly as the maid of honor, except that they wore pale lavender frocks and carried wood-violet bouquets of carnations and chrysanthemums. Little Sandra Pierce, niece of the bridegroom was flower girl. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pierce. Loren Bundeson, bride's cousin, ring bearer, is son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bundeson, Grants Pass.

Cliff Joplin served his brother as best man; and ushers were Lester Foster and Dale Lowther. Mrs. McMahan chose a beige crepe and lace cocktail length dress, with navy accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of pink roses. Mrs. Joplin wore rose lace with navy blue accessories; and her corsage was also of red roses.

The reception was in the church parlors. Mrs. Hazel Schielestein poured, Barbara Rodgers cut the cake and Ann Lindskog assisted.

For their wedding trip to the California coast, the new Mrs. Joplin wore a smart one-piece tailored yellow dress with white accessories. They are now at home, 3420 Vine Street.

Both are graduates of KUHS; an Bill was in the United States Army for two years, 18 months of them in Germany. He was released in December '52.

Out-of-town guests included, Mr. and Mrs. Herb McMahan, aunt and uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Ted McMahan, also uncle and aunt; Mrs. Alice Grimm, bride's grandmother, all from Anderson, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bundeson, bride's grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bundeson, her aunt and uncle Grants Pass; and Mr. and Mrs. D. John Feiner, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom, from La Grande.

AL Auxiliary Plans Bazaar

MALIN — The Malin American Legion Auxiliary met at the Malin Fire Hall on July 16 with 12 members present. Patsy Ottoman, president, presided at the meeting.

The members voted to have a potluck picnic for the next meeting on August 20, 6 p.m., at the Malin Park, with members of the legion. The Intermediate Girl Scout troop, which is sponsored by the auxiliary will be guests at the picnic and swimming party. Each member is asked to bring her own table service. Hazel Kalina was appointed to supervise arrangements of the tables for the picnic.

It was decided at this meeting that a bazaar and cooked food sale could be held in the later part of November. Each member is asked to give their donations to the bazaar chairman, Ethel Roberts. Two other cooked food sales will be held in September and October.

Instructions were given to the secretary to increase the Poppy order for next year's sales to 1200. Interesting reports on the state convention held at Seaside were given by Hazel Kalina and Irene Freilich, delegates and Mrs. Ethel Hamilton, District 4 president.

The auxiliary members will contact three organizations this year to stress the aims and purposes of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Hazel Kalina was appointed by the president to buy a mattress cover for the auxiliary hospital bed. Nettie Pope and Elizabeth Payer served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

MT. LAKE GARDEN CLUB

The Mt. Lake Garden Club tour was made July 12 by 15 members and 5 guests.

The group assembled at the home of Mrs. N. E. Nyhart on Airway Avenue, and visited the gardens of Mrs. Earl Mack in the Mt. Lake District; and continued to Klamath Falls where the Pacific Terrace gardens of Mrs. T. B. Walters and Mrs. John H. Martin were viewed; and the garden of Mrs. G. D. Grizzle, Jeffersonson Street.

Upon their return to the Nyhart home, Mrs. Nyhart and Mrs. John Lehto served refreshments.

LITTLE ATTENDANTS . . . in a winsome pose — are Loren Bundeson, cousin of the bride, who served her as ring-bearer; and Sandra Pierce, niece of the bridegroom, flower girl. They were star performers at the wedding of Barbara McMahan and Bill Joplin.

CHINCHILLA FANCIERS PICNIC

Members of Southern Oregon Chinchilla Ranchers Club held their annual family picnic at the Schweppe Chinchilla Ranch near Roseburg, Sunday, July 19. This group is a unit of the Portland Branch of the National Chinchilla Breeders of America, organized about three years ago. It has grown rapidly with members in Klamath Falls, Grants Pass, Shady Cove, Central Point, Medford and several other southern Oregon and northern California points, with headquarters at Medford.

The club held a quarterly meeting closing the fiscal year with a picnic, election and installation of officers. Since all the members are chinchilla breeders, much knowledge is gained from round table discussions on chinchilla care at these meetings.

A field day is being planned for September, members may bring animals for observation and comparisons form members who are expert
