

PIZZA... No main-dish pie in the world offers greater opportunity for variation and imagination than Pizza. Its preparation has long been one of the cherished secrets of the professional chef. However, thanks to Martha Meade and her practical-minded Home Staff, a Pizza recipe has now been perfected which compares with (even surpasses) that of the professional. It is easy, delicious, and failure-proof. Anyone can make it! The pastry is delicate and tender because it is made with enriched flour. Here, indeed, is a recipe to make you famous.

Pizza Captures Eyes Of Western Cooks

PIZZA
Sift flour before measuring. Use level measurements for all ingredients. Measure into a mixing bowl—
1 cup hot water
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 tablespoon shortening
Stir ingredients together until shortening is melted. When mixture is lukewarm (or 95 degrees) stir in — 1 cake or package yeast (compressed or dry). Add 2 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour.
Mix to a moderately stiff dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead gently until surface of dough is smooth and blistered in appearance, from 5-10 minutes.

Place dough in lightly greased and closely covered bowl. Let stand in slightly warm place, protected from drafts, until dough is double in bulk and sinks when touched with the fingers, about 1 1/2 hours. Punch down and let rise 30 minutes (at same temperature). Turn out on lightly floured board and divide dough in half. Round up each piece of dough and roll each into a circle about 10 inches in diameter. Place each circle of dough on a lightly greased baking sheet. Brush lightly with olive or salad oil. Divide equally between the two rounds—1 1/2 cups well drained tomatoes (no. 2's can). Spread tomatoes as evenly as possible over surface of dough, leaving about 1/2 inch around the edge. Arrange over tomatoes on each Pizza any of the following (or combination) as desired—small pieces of ham, anchovies, bits of salami, pepperoni, sliced stuffed olives, sliced mushrooms.
Season each Pizza with — 1/2 teaspoon oregano, salt, pepper, paprika.
Then top each Pizza with 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese and slices of Monterey Jack cheese.
Bake in a preheated very hot oven, 450 degrees, for about 20-25 minutes, or until crust is lightly browned and thoroughly baked. (Place pans as near bottom of oven as possible.) Remove from oven and cut into pie-shaped wedges. Serve hot. 2 Pizzas or 10-12 servings.

NLRB Cases At Low Point

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board says it has cut its list of pending cases to the lowest point since the Taft-Hartley law went into effect.
While both unions and employers complained of delays, and Congress studied ways of speeding up NLRB, the board itself and General Counsel George Bott have been quietly streamlining.
Now they claim "spectacular reductions" in time spent on cases at all levels. NLRB gets 15,000 cases a year.
The backlog of cases now is 4,318, compared with 5,348 a year ago.
The average time from filing a petition for an NLRB election to a decision after hearing is now a record 54 days, compared with 90 days required a year ago.
NLRB officials said the output was boosted by eliminating paper work, by using a telephone call where correspondence might take a long period of time, and by holding regional clinics to pass along beneficial procedures worked out in other areas.
