

Methodists Observe 25th Anniversary

CHILOQUIN — The 25th anniversary of the Chiloquin Methodist Church will be celebrated August 22-23.

There will be open house get-togethers Saturday afternoon. An 8 o'clock program will be held in the church that evening which will feature musical numbers by former Chiloquin residents. Refreshments will be served following a candlelight service.

The Rev. A. J. Neufeld of Eugene, retired minister who was local pastor in the late 1920's, will give the address Sunday morning at the worship service. Mrs. John Lot of Coos Bay will give the church history until 1945 and Mrs. Fred Markward will bring the record up to date.

A potluck dinner in the church basement at 1:00 will complete the anniversary celebration.

Invitations have been sent out to former residents. If anyone in the Klamath area has been overlooked — please feel invited and plan to come.

Merrill Plans Something New In Services

MERRILL — The Merrill Assembly of God is planning a different kind of service for next Sunday morning, August 9.

Instead of a sermon the pastor will read from the Book of Acts. The congregation will be free at any point to interrupt the reading with questions. Brief comment pertaining to the scripture being read will be given by the minister.

It is suggested that each one read the first few chapters of the Acts so that they may have some questions in mind.

During the forepart of the sermon, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Mason will bring their new son Stephen Lee to be dedicated to the Lord.

The service time is 11 a.m. "Everyone is welcome so come with your Bible and bring a friend," invites Elvin Hiss, pastor.

Dorris WMU Organizes, Gets Officers

DORRIS — Plans for a Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church, Dorris, came to fruition Thursday, July 30, at the organizational meeting of the WMU at the church.

Honor guest, Mrs. E. M. Causey, associational WMU president of Klamath Falls, briefed those present on work of the union and duties of its officers. Also present was Mrs. Elmer Bates, associational young peoples' director, of Klamath Falls.

Chosen to head the organization were Mrs. David Agee, president; Mrs. Lee Harrington, first vice president (membership); Mrs. Howard Beeson, second vice president (program); Mrs. Everette Murray, recording secretary and publicity chairman; Mrs. Wayne Agee, corresponding secretary and literature chairman; Mrs. Bill Walden, treasurer and stewardship chairman; Mrs. Byard Kelly, community missions; Mrs. Clar-

Chiloquin Church Gets New Bus

CHILOQUIN — The Bible Standard Church last week purchased a small bus. Rev. David Sutton has scheduled a 30 mile route for it on Sundays—going to Modoc Point, past Agency Lake and back to Chiloquin. Plans are to paint the bus black and white.

Last spring the church purchased several lots adjoining the church building. Half the area has been seeded to lawn, which will be used next year as a baseball diamond.

During August construction will begin on a children's church addition, 15 by 20 feet, at the rear of the regular building.

The Rev. and Mrs. Sutton and daughters leave Aug. 10 for a three weeks camping trip on the Oregon coast. Rev. F. E. Crook of Eugene, former Oregon district superintendent, will conduct the Sunday services August 16 and 23.

The Wednesday services will be in the charge of Paul Johnson the first week, Reno Barnes the second, and Jesse Manguni the third. Manguni will act as chairman for all services held during Sutton's absence.

The young people will conduct all three Friday night services.

Chiloquin Starts Mission Council

CHILOQUIN — A Women's Missionary Council was begun last week by the Assembly of God Church.

The informal group chose as its first work project the gathering, mending, and sending of clothes to needy Navajo Indians.

Mrs. William Rentz, wife of the resident pastor, announces that any women in the area are welcome to come to the Wednesday afternoon work sessions at the dining hall. Those who do not care to join are urged to donate clothing for the cause.

The women's group will give aid locally also, chiefly by service to families in need.

Baptists to Hear Guest Speaker

The churches of the Klamath Baptist Association will hear Mr. T. L. Ferguson, prominent business man of Amarillo, Texas, Tuesday night, August 11, at the First Baptist Church. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Ferguson, together with Dr. J. Howard Williams, former Executive Secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, is speaking to Baptist groups of the Northwest during the week of August 9-14. Dr. Williams is visiting the groups of churches in Washington, and Mr. Ferguson those in Oregon.

Mr. Ferguson will be accompanied by the Rev. Roland P. Hood, mission superintendent for the Baptist General Convention of Oregon-Washington Churches in Dorris and Tulelake as well as Klamath Falls will be represented.

Church Holds Ice Cream Festival

Something new in the way of festivals will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the Congregational Church, 2160 Garden Avenue, Wednesday, Aug. 12, from 7 to 10 p.m. It is an Ice Cream Festival "guaranteed to please the family!"

The Festival is being sponsored by the Priscilla Club. Proceeds will go into the treasury, part of which will be voted into the Building Fund to defray expenses of the new Fellowship Hall.

Construction of the new building was begun last September. Actual building was completed in December; finishing touches remain.

Tickets for the Ice Cream Festival can be purchased from any of the members of the Priscilla Club at 50 cents for adults, 35 cents for children, or call Mrs. L. A. Walker, 8288, or Mrs. Kenneth Lambie, 8050.

Cake, ice cream and coffee will be served. There will be ping pong games, darts and various other recreation. In addition a musical program is being planned.

Nazarenes Plan Final Program

The Church of the Nazarene Vacation Bible School will officially close for the year with the Bible School Achievement Program, to be presented this Sunday, Aug. 9, at 11 a.m.

The program will climax the two weeks of praying and studying together for the some 136 students enrolled.

On the program are three skills to be presented by various classes including David Livingstone, Mary Slessor and many more; choruses, including one deaf and dumb chorus; a candle-lighting ceremony in memory of certain missionaries; recitations.

A plaque of the Good Shepherd will be awarded to Mona del Chelnowich who brought in the most people to Bible School and Carol Murray who was second in the contest.

On display will be the handwork done by the children in school and the Mission Box to which everyone who wanted contributed a small article.

Bible School has been under the direction of Miss Louella Ford, Tacoma, Wash.

Miss Ford has conducted her fourth Bible School this summer. After it closes, she will supervise similar endeavors in Newport and Tacoma. So far this summer she has taught 1000 children, 15% of whom were in Klamath Falls.

Western Church Province Set Up

NEW ORLEANS — The creation of a Western province, comprising eight Far Western states, was announced Thursday by the old Catholic missionary order of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate.

Temporary headquarters for the new province will be at San Fernando, Calif. It comprises Washington, Oregon, Montana, Utah, Arizona, Idaho, Nevada and a part of California.

Official establishment of the new province and installation of its provincial general will be held Sept. 8, a day designated by the Catholic Church as the nativity of the blessed Virgin Mary.

The Very Rev. Charles Burns, O. M. I., pastor of the historically famous St. Louis cathedral here for the past eight years, has been chosen as the provincial general for the newly-created province.

The Oblates of Mary Immaculate was formed 127 years ago in France to minister to the poor and illiterate.

ATOMIC PRAYER
TOKYO — More than 300,000 people of Hiroshima quietly prayed for peace Thursday as they observed the eighth anniversary of the world's first atomic bomb blast over the city.

Outdoor Chapel Begun In Park

Work has begun on the proposed Outdoor Chapel to be developed in Moore Park by the Klamath Youth Fellowship group.

A wood platform about five feet square and a flagstone path mark the path of the site granted the youth group by the City Park Board last May. Future plans include erection of a wood cross and installation of logs for seating purposes.

Initial plans for the chapel were made at a meeting at the Congregational Church May 3. The Park Board gave the group permission to develop the chapel at a site directly above Lookout Point.
