Sorority House Is Scene Of Large Wedding In Reno July 22

TULELAKE—A wedding of interest to this community was an event of July 22 in the Pi Beta Phi Chapter House on the campus of the University of Nevada, Reno, when Margaret Mary Bassett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bassett, Reno, became the bride of Robert C. McClymonds. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. McClymonds, well-known pioneer family of Tulelake.

The Rev. Brewster Adams officiated at the ceremony, held before a background of large baskets of white gladioli and stock, with pale pink asters and ranunculus. The same color scheme and flowers were used for the reception.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of satin with a triple skirt of nylon tulle, trimmed with applique lace medallions. The bodice was made with scalloped neckline and short sleeves of lace and she wore matching lace mitts. A tulle of pearls and rhinestones on nylon net held her fingertip veil and for her flowers she carried an arrangement of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Richard G. Knight, Lund, Nev., was matron of honor and only attendant for her sister. She wore aqua colored lace over tulle of the same shade in waltz length, fashioned with an Elizabethan collar. Her bouquet was of pink carnations and she wore a matching headband.

Best man for the bridegroom was his cousin, Robert C. McClymonds Jr., Tulelake. Mrs. Bassett wore an embroidered cotton afternoon frock in gray with pink accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. McClymonds chose a steel-blue crepe with rose colored accessories. She also wore an orchid. For the reception, the table was covered with a lace cloth, centered with a three-tiered wedding cake wreathed with white carnations and pink roses.

The young couple went to Sun Valley and Yellowstone Park on their wedding trip. For traveling the new Mrs. McClymonds wore a champagne colored silk, with blue and accessories.

After the honeymoon they will be at home at 1927 V Street, Sacramento where Mr. McClymonds is in the real estate business.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Nevada where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority and for the past year was a member of the faculty of Wells High School.

McClymonds is a graduate of the University of California; and during World War II served with the US Navy with the rank of Lieutenant (jg).
