

WSCS Executive Board Meets In All Day Session July 28

The executive board of the Women's Society of Christian Services of the First Methodist Church held an all day session, Tuesday, July 28 at the home of Mrs. Joe Bramhall, Ashland Highway.

Officers training class in the morning was under the leadership of Dr. Mirlan Smyth.

Duties of the various officers were outlined by Dr. Smyth in the afternoon session; and she conducted a question and answer period.

The meeting was adjourned after a short executive board meeting, with Mrs. Bramhall presiding. Plans were discussed for the fall bazaar and luncheon by bazaar chairman, Mrs. Jennie Peltz. PROPER PRAISE

When you can, it is always better to compliment a person than a thing. Say "How pretty you look in that dress," rather than, "What a pretty dress." Or, "I love the way you've chosen the colors for this room," instead of, "What a pretty room."

Remember it's the personal compliment that really pleases.

COLOR TIP

When matching colors in home decoration, remember that texture makes a difference in the shade of color. A rough surface will look darker and warmer than a glossy one, even though the colors are dyed the same.
