

TINKERIN' WITH THE TRANSPORTATION — They'll be heading back to school before long. Brent Hedberg, working on the "white side wall", will return to University of Oregon as a sophomore, as will Bill Wright, holding the cloth. Next is Harold Metter, who owns the fancy conveyance (that's no jalopy). He hasn't quite made up his mind whether to go back to Lewis and Clark, for his second year, or Oregon State College where Ralph Carroll, next to him will be a sophomore. These students are just a few of the many who are working this summer and intend to continue their college studies this fall.

Two Fugitives Surrender

ADAIRSVILLE, Ga. (AP) — A four-day manhunt through the rugged northwest Georgia hills ended Wednesday when two fugitive killers of a U.S. deputy marshal surrendered meekly before the guns of a national guard squad. With them in the woods when they were captured was a guard whom they'd seized as a hostage after the killing last Saturday. He was unharmed. Although the men were armed there were no shots fired and the surrender came quietly when a squad of national guardsmen came on the trio in a wood, on the Bramlett farm only about three-quarters of a mile from the point where the slain marshal's car was abandoned last Saturday. The prisoners are Herbert

Eugene Juelich, 25 of Butte, Mont., and Lewis Woodward Larson, 31, of St. Paul, Minn. With them was George Hightower of Nashville, Tenn., who was deputized as a special guard and went with Sam Vaughn, a deputy U.S. marshal, when Juelich and Larson were started from Nashville to Atlanta's federal penitentiary last Saturday to start serving five-year auto theft sentences. Vaughn was shot with his own pistol and his body dumped from his car Saturday afternoon. Holding Hightower captive, the pair sped away in the automobile.

SEARCH DROPPED
LONDON (AP) — The search for survivors of the 10-engine U.S. Air Force atom bomber which plunged into the sea west of Ireland last Wednesday has been abandoned, the Air Force announced Wednesday. Fourteen members of the crew are presumed to have been lost at sea.

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) — Dr. Nathan Goldmann of New York has been elected president of the World Jewish Congress. The Polish-born American has served as acting president of the organization since 1949.

Dr. Goldmann was chosen for a four-year term this week at the closing session of the congress meeting here. His election came after delegates approved a resolution expressing concern at the "steady growth of neo-Nazi elements" in Germany.

REDDING, Calif. (AP) — Maybe it was something he et.

Anyway, Tom Hook, cook for a firefighting crew at Lassen National Forest, dreamed there was a whale of a fire.

He jumped out of bed at 3 a. m. and roused the crew. Too late he realized it was all a dream.

While he was cooking up some ham and eggs for the disgruntled force, an alarm came in.

Yep, a whale of a fire.

DANVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Police said no further investigation is planned in the death of 16-year-old Tommy Aldridge, reported by a circus attendant to have been picked up by an elephant and tossed over a truck.

Aldridge, of Paris, Ky. died at McDowell Memorial Hospital Wednesday after having been unconscious since the accident Monday night.

Boyle County Coroner Tom Edwards said Wednesday he had listed the death as "cause unknown."

The youth joined the Diano Brothers Circus several days ago when it played at Paris.
