

THE WORLD'S TOP steer and calf ropers will be competing for thousands of dollars in prize money at the 2nd annual Pendleton Round-Up, Sept. 10-11-12. The Round-Up, known the world over as the greatest of all Western shows, will present arena performances at 1:15 p. m. daily, plus a 7:30 p. m. performance on the last day.

Gen. Bradley Quits Army, Travels For Timepieces

WASHINGTON (AP)—General of the Army Omar N. Bradley's travels as top U. S. military official—140,000 miles and 92 times to the White House in four years—come to a halt Saturday.

That is the day Bradley, 60, gives up the chairmanship of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, which he held from the beginning of Western collective defense through the Korean War.

A five-star general never retires. But Bradley gives up all active military assignment. He will become chairman of the board of the Bulova Research and Development Laboratories, Inc.

Adm. Arthur W. Radford succeeds him as JCS chairman.

Defense Department statistics released today tersely summarized the global responsibilities Bradley carried during his service of exactly four years as the nation's first regular head of the Joint Chiefs.

Beside his trips and White House visits, they list 87 sessions on North Atlantic Treaty Organization business and other top-level military meetings and briefings running into the thousands.

His travels took him to the wide-ranging theaters where U. S. and NATO troops were stationed, to Wake Island in 1950 with then President Truman for a conference with Gen. Douglas MacArthur, and to Korea last November and December with then President-elect Eisenhower.

A wholly new slate of Joint Chiefs will be in office by Monday, Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway succeeds Gen. J. Lawton Collins as Army chief of staff Saturday. Gen. Nathan F. Twining already has taken over as Air Force chief of NATO troops were stationed, to staff from Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg. The last change will be in the Navy Monday when Adm. Robert B. Carney becomes chief of naval operations, succeeding Adm. William F. Fechteler.

'Might As Well Send Firemen Over'

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Dorothy Bennett interrupted a purely social telephone chat with Lt. Carl Pelkowski of the fire department to say:

"Better send over the boys, Carl. They tell me there's a fire here."

There was. Firemen—without Pelkowski—quickly put out the flames in the utility room of the Sedgwick Tennis Club, where Miss Bennett is hostess.

The cause and the extent of the damage were not determined.

Hauled-In Bridge 4th Never Found Out Who Expert Partner Was And Neither Will You

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Harry Wilensky decided to stop in at the American Contract Bridge Tournament here for a few minutes on his way home for dinner. About to leave, he was stopped by an elderly gentleman's inquiry:

"You play bridge?"

"Yes, but—" began Wilensky, a newspaper reporter who considers himself nothing more than a common garden variety bridge player.

"It's all right," the gentleman interrupted. "We need someone to fill in."

The elderly gentleman shared

Harry's playing success without comment until he chalked up the score.

"Keep our tricks in order," he advised Wilensky. "You confuse your partner if you don't."

"I don't know how to keep them," Wilensky confessed. "I never played duplicate before."

The elderly gentleman paled, but rallied to say:

"Don't tell anyone. Don't say a word. Knowing it would give opponents a psychological advantage."

Wilensky perspired, played on. Four hours later he thought of his wife: he'd be late for dinner. He thought of telephoning, but one board was no sooner completed than he faced another.

Official tabulation showed Wilensky and his partner (he never did learn his name) finished in the top half of the Bayless pairs trophy play. But the elderly gentleman was unimpressed. He bade kibitzer Wilensky farewell with this advice:

"Son, let me tell you something. You don't know a damn thing about duplicate, but you have a wonderful card sense. Why don't you take up the game?"

FRIENDSHIP PARLEY

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—The newly formed Soviet-Iranian Commission met for three hours Thursday and started work on an agenda for future sessions. The commission was formed to seek to remove all differences between the two countries.

DRUGS REJECTED
HONG KONG (AP)—Pharmaceutical firms here said Wednesday Communist China has rejected a third shipment of drugs, boosting losses of local exporters to about $350,000. Three times in the past two months the Reds have returned standard brand U. S. and European drugs because they were "not up to standard."
