ANN JONES

Ann Jones At Red Barn

Ann Jones, America's leading singer of western and folk songs, has been signed by Dick Penwick to sing at his Red Barn in Dorris Saturday night, Aug. 15.

Fenwick said Miss Jones will appear as special vocalist with Fee Wee Stidham and his Rainbow Melody Boys, the Red Barn's popular western band.

The singer currently has a daily hour and a half's program over radio station KVAN at Vancouver, Wash., and has appeared personally on major stations throughout the country.

Dancing at the Red Barn is from 9 a.m. to 1 a.m. standard time, 10 to 2 California daylight time.

US Forests Net $37.5 Million

Nearly $37.5 million—a record high—was deposited in the Federal Treasury by 19 national forests in Oregon and Washington during the fiscal year ending June 30.

Regional Forester J. Herbert Stone said today that the total amount collected this past year exceeds that of the previous year by almost $7 million. Timber sales contributed 99 per cent of the total.

Receipts from Oregon's and Washington's national forests exceeded expenditures for operation and for maintenance and development by almost $24 million.

Regional Forester J. Herbert Stone said today that the total amount collected this past year exceeds that of the previous year by almost $7 million.

Airline Gives July KF Report

West Coast Airlines boarded a total of 237 passengers at Klamath Falls during the month of July.

Two hundred and forty-six passengers departed here during that period, according to Bob Moore, West Coast station manager.

"It is a far better record than we had anticipated," Moore stated. "So far during the month of August we are way ahead of the July figures, too," he added.
