More Dead POWs Listed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army Friday identified 134 more officers and enlisted men reported by the Communists to have died in captivity.

The third installment of names, which will eventually make a list totaling 1,022, was issued with the repeated caution that the Reds are the sole source of information about the men.

All will continue to be listed by the Defense Department as missing in action until all means of determining their actual fate have been exhausted.

Release of Friday's list, all Army personnel, leaves the names of 644 Americans still to be made public from lists furnished by the Reds. Additional identifications will be made as soon as the next-of-kin have been notified.

Both Pontiac and Oldsmobile hope to resume assemblies Tuesday for a few days at least.

Censorship Voted Out In Austria

VIENNIA, Austria (AP) — The Allied Control Council voted Friday to abolish all censorship on communications in Austria.

The action ended one of the bitterest disputes in the four-Power council. The Western Powers had tried on 38 previous occasions to persuade the Russians to lift the censorship ban.

The Russians indicated that agreement was forthcoming when they ended all censorship in their occupation zone of Austria earlier this week. The Soviet representative announced at Friday's meeting it was taking the action as a "manifestation of good will."
