

LOVELY AUGUST BRIDE . . . was Mary Patricia Murphy, daughter of Mrs. Jerry C. Murphy, and the late Mr. Murphy, 432 North Tenth Street, when she exchanged marriage vows with Carl C. Coulson Jr., in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, August 2. Bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Coulson Sr., Tulelake.

The Rev. William S. Stone read the service at 2 p. m., in the presence of a large assembly of friends and relatives. "Pat" is the fourth of five sisters whose weddings were important social events, and her only brother, Dan gave her in marriage. — Photo by Guderian

MARY PATRICIA MURPHY WEDS CARL C. COULSON JR.
In Impressive Catholic Ceremony
In Sacred Heart Church

FAREWELL TEA

IN THE GARDEN . . . just before the guests arrived at the tea honoring Mrs. Herman C. Shockey August 5, at the home of Mr. and William L. Wales Jr., 4512 Clinton. Mrs. Wales at the left; Mrs. Shockey, center, and Mrs. Kenneth H. Foust, lola, Kansas, Mrs. Wales' mother, who is visiting here with her daughter and son-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Shockey left last week for Hattiesburg, Miss., where he was transferred with Hercules Powder Company. He has been with them 12 years as a research chemist; starting in Virginia, then to Delaware, and later to Oregon, where he was with the local plant. With them went their 10 year old son, Phillip.

The tea was a farewell gesture planned to make it possible for Mrs. Shockey's many Klamath friends to see her before she left. She was identified in social and club circles during her residency here; and was publicity chairman for the recent American Association of University Women Convention.

— Photo by Kettler

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

MRS. H. H. TONSETH . . . center, whose 79th birthday was observed with an informal coffee hour given recently by her daughter, Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, right, at her home, 1968 DelMoro. At the left is Mrs. Walter Badorek (Jean Adams), holding her pet "Chris". She assisted her mother in receiving the 30 guests who called to extend birthday greetings to her grandmother.

Mrs. Tonseth is a well known Klamath Falls matron, and makes her home at 1930 Erie. The pleasant coffee hour was spent in neighborly visiting in the house and attractive yard.

— Photo by Kettler

VISITING FROM MEDFORD

WITH HIS GRANDSONS . . . Mr. Edward E. Gore, who is visiting at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mushen, 127 Hillside Avenue. "Gramps", as he is called by his pals, Alan, 4, center; and Robert, 10, seated on the table; returned from Medford with the Mushens after they had gone over to Ashland to see a performance of the Shakespearean Festival; Mrs. Gore is at present in San Francisco on a shopping and show-seeing tour; including the New York City Ballet and the Ice Follies. He is being entertained by his grandsons, including a night at the Shrine Circus.

The 84 year old visitor is well known here and is remembered by many local friends as the tenor member of "Gore Brothers Male Quartet" featured at many social gatherings in Phoenix.

— Photo by Kettler

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby