

FAMILY GROUP . . . From the left, William Clement, uncle of the bride, who gave her in marriage in the absence of her father, who was unable to be present; Mrs. A. W. Clement, bride's mother; the bride and bridegroom; and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Phillips, parents of the bridegroom.

The bride's gown was of nylon tulle over satin and lace, in traditional white. Her fingertip veil of tulle was held in place with a heart shaped halo which framed her hair. Her attendants all wore Nile green lace and net over taffeta. The popular couple is at home, 2342 Gettle, The bridegroom is at present with the Suburban Fire Department. —Photo by Floyd

Word was received Thursday of last week of the death of Mike McNeive somewhere in Wyoming. The McNeive brothers left here to visit a sister. The brothers were well known in this vicinity having worked at the various ranches around the valley for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hickey from the Tulelake country called on old friends Friday and were dinner guests at the Con Lynch ranch. The Hickeys worked in the valley several years ago before moving to Tulelake.

A very bad accident happened on the Hart Mountain grade Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Anderson of Lakeview were coming down the grade when the car went out of control due to defective brakes and banked on a big rock. The car was badly damaged. Passengers were injured but at the time of this writing, extent of the injuries is not known.

BRIDAL PARTY . . . in First Presbyterian Church, after Benny Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Phillips, 1820 South 6th Street, claimed Charlotte Clement, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Clement, Alderwood Manor, Wash., as his bride in an 8 p.m. ceremony read by the Rev. David F. Barnett Sr. The newly wedded couple are shown with Sharon Stiles, bridesmaid, far left, cousin of the bride; Olga Strunk, also bridesmaid; and next to the bride, Mrs. Glenn Dehlinger, matron of honor.

In the foreground are little Susie Beymer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beymer, Merrill Road, flower girl; and young Roger Lee Clement, brother of the bride, who served as ring bearer. To the right of the bridegroom, Glenn Dehlinger, best man; ushers Glenn Rinehart and Paul Clement, brother of the bride, at the right.
