REFLECTIONS FROM

Willy's Mirror

THEY'RE ARRIVING — from near and far—for a reunion this weekend—Ten years ago the Commandos were organized—and the whole town knows of what they did for service men—major magazines and metropolitan newspapers gave them national recognition — and now those same gals are still Commandos at heart—hence the reunion — their captain Bernie Heidemann is here from New York as a houseguest of former Commando Mother—Lois Serruys.

MARY ANN MILLS—will sail on the Lurline from SF Monday the 17th for Honolulu—where she will join the teaching staff of that well known private school—Punahou—where Sara Stewart will complete her 4th year of college prep — Mary Ann and her parents the Frank Mills, 1940 Painter — left Friday for SF.

KLAMATH FALLS—and Honolulu are getting to be "just like that"—Harriet Coulson just returned from the islands to be here for her brother Carl's wedding to Pat Murphy—and she had arranged for flowers to be flown here for the occasion — Church flowers and orchids for all the feminine members of the bridal party—mothers of the couple and others who assisted — She's been over there for more than a year—This fall she returns to Stanford as a post-graduate to work on her masters in education.

THAT TRIUMPHATE — who rule over the "task department" for the Murphy girls' weddings—are at it again—Otto Sari—Roy Pickett and Otto Smith were the mainstay at Pat Murphy's wedding—they're getting to be an institution—and so is Dr. George Adler—who recorded the ceremony —thanks to him—several brides and their spouses will have the thrill of listening to the entire ceremony of their respective weddings.

PHONES ARE RINGING—ringing like mad all over town — the John Schuberts are grandparents!!! Their very first grandchild was born Thursday—August 13—Klamath Valley Hosp.—Their son John (Jerry) and his wife Duveen play the "minor" role of parents to Jerilyn—born 10:05 a.m. —Mrs. Gifford Parker the young miss's maternal grandmother — from North Powder—is at her daughter's home waiting to greet them when they leave the hospital.

MAJOR UNDERWOOD — was the MAIN EVENT at the Past Exalted Ruler's dinner in the Gold Room of the Willard Hotel Thursday night—in fact the dinner was FOR him on his 75th birthday—and along with hearty congratulations he was presented with a handsome Elk's lapel pin.

FERN SKOOG BRIDAL SHOWER
Reported To Be Largest Ever Given In Dorris

About one hundred guests attended the bridal shower for Fern A. Skoog, Friday night, August 7, in the Dorris City Hall. Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Carl Boyd and Mrs. Irene Todorovic.

Fern is bride-elect of Lester J. McIntyre, Eugene. The couple will be married next week and will make their home in Eugene. Fern is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Skoog, Dorris, and Lester is the son of Mrs. A. A. McIntyre, Eugene.

A pink and white decorative theme was used for the party. Card tables were grouped together to form one large table where the attractively wrapped gifts were heaped about a dainty parasol. Others were banked around the table. One hundred twenty-five guests were bidden to the affair, many of whom were out-of-town and out-of-state friends or relatives of the betrothed pair.

Another decorative highlight was the two large sheet cakes which were iced in white, with pink and green trim. On one were sprays of pink roses and on the other was written the names of the honor guest and her fiancé. Flowers were sweetpeas and orchids. Pink and white tapers were used in two sets of two-branched candelabra. A sheer organza cover was used on the table from which punch was served and a hand crocheted medallion cloth graced the larger serving table. Mrs. Ray McIntyre, sister of Fern, presided at the punch bowl, and two other sisters, Mrs. Mildred Harmon of Richmond, and Mrs. Ed Barness of Cass Lake, Minn., served coffee and tea, respectively. Serving the cake were Mrs. Lloyd Mattison of Eugene, Mrs. M. K. Mattison and Janet Mattison.

In charge of word guessing contest were Alice McIntyre and Peggy Jordan. Awards for the four words went to Mrs. R. E. Jones, Mrs. Jack Ferguson, Mrs. Agnes Skoog of Sacramento and Mrs. A. O. Christenson. A delightful musical program was given by Mrs. Byard Kelly. She played her own accompaniment, singing, among other favorites, "With These Hands," "Waiting in the Clouds," "The Desert Song," "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "The Little Grey Home in the West."

Assisting Fern in opening her gifts were her twin sister, Florence Skoog of Sacramento, Mrs. Arnold Skoog and Mrs. Martel Sundkvist.

Present or sending gifts were Mr. and Mrs. Anton Skoog and Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barsness and Marvin, and Mrs. Mary Rhen, Cass Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Ron McIntyre and family, San Antonio, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gentry, Hamilton, Mrs. Agnes Skoog and Dolores, Mrs. Robert Olson, Mrs. Emma Israson, Mrs. Ralph Peterson, Mrs. Selma Olson, Agnes Israson and Florence Skoog, all of Sacramento.
