HERE IS A BIRD'S EYE VIEW of the fire which burned through eight Klamath Falls business houses early Sunday morning. The shot was taken from the Medical Dental Building. Cause of the fire has not yet been determined. Damage is estimated at $75,000.

Lakeview Girl Dies In Fall

LAKEVIEW — Funeral services for Zana Gray, 12-year-old daughter of County Clerk Zane Gray and Mrs. Gray, fatally injured Sunday will be held Wednesday, from the Ousley-Osterman Funeral Chapel. The Rev. Gordon Griffin will officiate. Members of the Elks Lodge will act as pallbearers. Final rites and interment will be at Sunset Park Cemetery.

In addition to her parents she is survived by a younger sister Pamela, grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gray, Lakeview, and a grandmother Mrs. Hiding Lovensborg, Smith River, Calif. Zana, according to reports, was playing on some farm equipment parked in a lot about a block from her home and apparently fell from some of the machinery striking the back of her head.

She was taken to the Lakeview General Hospital for treatment and died from her injuries early Monday.

CHICAGO FIRE
 CHICAGO (AP) — Firemen were summoned yesterday to extinguish a fire in the second floor of the three-story building of the General Detroit Corp. The fire, which started when sparks from an acetylene torch ignited an accumulation of paint, was put out easily. The firm manufactures fire extinguishers.

Free Teeth Days Going

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thousands of veterans who have been promised free dental treatment by the Veterans Administration aren't going to get it.

This was disclosed today by a VA official who asked not to be named as the VA announced new, stricter rules for giving dental treatment to veterans. He said the rules were changed to carry out a change made by Congress in the law providing the treatment.

Under the new rules, a veteran may get treatment for dental trouble he can trace directly to his military service or found to be aggravating a disability he received in the service. Under the old rules, he could also get free treatment if he could trace his dental trouble to a condition which showed up within a year after he left the service.

At the direction of Congress, the VA must apply the new rules to a backlog of 250,000 veterans who already have been promised treatment under the old rules, but who did not receive treatment because the VA didn't have enough money.

The VA estimated that about 50 per cent of the 5,000 veterans will be found ineligible for treatment under the new rules. Ineligibles will be notified.

FRIJOLAS IMPORTED
 MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico is going all the way to South Africa for its frijoles, the staple bean which with tortillas forms the basic diet of much of the population. Officials said that 500 tons of frijoles have arrived at Vera Cruz from South Africa. Drought has hurt domestic crops.

Cisco Kid, Getting Over Broken Neck, To Return

By BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Youthful TV watchers will be happy to know that the Cisco Kid will be back in the saddle by next month.

Duncan Renaldo, who plays Cisco, reported today he is making an amazing recovery from the broken neck which almost crippled him for life. With a degree of sentiment, he attributes part of his progress to the prayers of thousands of his young fans.

"It may sound strange to some people, I know," said the Latin from Camden, N. J., "but I am convinced that it is the young children who have helped me make a miraculous recovery. There is no other explanation."

Renaldo was injured June 4 when a prop builder rolled down a hill and struck him. Two vertebrae in his neck were dislocated and fractured, the disc crushed and the spinal cord distended.

"The doctor said if the cord had been displaced two millimeters more, it would have been disastrous," he remarked.

The actor is now getting around in a neck brace, and he said he will be able to resume shooting the Western series by the middle of next month.

"The doctor is amazed," he said. "At first he said I would be in traction six weeks and a brace for eight months. I was in traction for only three weeks, and he predicts I will have recovered in three months of time."

Duck Dispatched; Kitchen Utensil Battle Follows

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Everything was ducky until Ducky Sue — a fowl of questionable temperament — came between neighbors.

Ducky Sue belonged to Joseph Hajj; that is, he did until Jack Stewart dispatched Sue to duck heaven. Stewart said he killed the bird after she nipped his infant daughter's fingers. Hajj said nonsense, the duck was the pet of his two daughters, and had never nipped their fingers.

By the time several squad cars arrived on the scene, police reported Stewart was struck on the head by a stove grate, Hajj's wife was wielding kitchen utensils, and Stewart's wife countered with a garden hose.

Stewart planned to charge Hajj with assault and battery. Hajj said he would do the same for Stewart. All over one dead duck.

TWO SIDES TO TRUCK
 PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A truck rolling through Philadelphia had these words, for the benefit of passing motorists, printed on the rear: "on the left side, 'Overtaker'; on the right side, 'Under-taker.'"
