Rev. Spaulding Accepts Call To Lutherans

The Rev. Kent E. Spaulding, who has served the last three years as pastor of the Seward Lutheran Church, Seward, Alaska, has accepted a call to the Klamath Lutheran Church, whose former pastor was the Rev. Irvin Tweed. Dr. H. L. Foss of Seattle, bishop of the Pacific district of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, officiated at the installation services last Sunday. Pastor J. L. Redal, who has served as interim pastor, assisted.

The Rev. Spaulding is a graduate of St. Olaf's College, Northfield, Minn., and Luther Theological Seminary, St. Paul, Minn., from which he received his degree in 1950. Seward was his first ministry as an ordained pastor.

During the last year the new Klamath pastor served as chaplain's assistant in the army.

The Rev. Spaulding and his wife Herma and three children, Sherill 6; Tommy 4; Stephen, almost 2; are making their home at 1120 Eldorado.

Christian Service Society Holds Business Meeting

FORT KLAMATH—The home of Mrs. Harry Orem at the Orem ranch south of here was the gathering place for members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Fort Klamath Community Methodist church Thursday afternoon, Aug. 13. Mrs. Orem and Mrs. Walter J. Wright were co-hostesses to the group.

Conducting the business meeting was the president, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley. The most important matter on the agenda was plans for the outdoor fireplace which will be built in early September at the church yard.

General chairmen of the project are Raymond S. Loosley and William Brewer, with the following community and organization representatives comprising the committee: Fort Klamath carpenter, Edward (Bud) Strong and Stewart Nicholson; Civic Improvement Club, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson; Fort Klamath Grange, Mrs. Hansford T. (Mike) Williams; Fort Klamath Business Association, J. Quincy Buell; Wood River Pioneers and Old Timers, William A. Page; 4-H Wood River Beef Club, Ralph Vaden; Cub Scouts, Mrs. James F. Van Wormer; Blue Birds, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson; W.S.C.S. Mrs. Bert Gray. A representative has yet to be chosen for the local Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship group.

A meeting of the co-chairmen and committee members is planned for the near future, to discuss building the brick fireplace. When completed it will be available for use of the community in general, and is therefore being conducted as a cooperative community project.

Two pieces of equipment have already been donated for the outdoor recreation site by Mrs. Myrtle Denton, who has given a large picnic table with benches on either side, in addition to a large separate bench. At Thursday's session, members voted to buy paint to redecorate the donated furniture.

It was also decided that the group would bear the cost of buying lumber to build a platform between the church and wooded area for which the necessary labor will be done free of charge by Peter Myre, Fort Klamath carpenter.

Mrs. Richard H. Wilson was appointed by the president to fill the position of secretary of missionary education left vacant by the recent departure of Mrs. C. Ellery Echlin, wife of the former local pastor. The Rev. C. Ellery Echlin received a transfer to the Drain pastorate a short time ago.

The annual church benefit dinner sponsored by the group was held in the C.I. Clubhouse Saturday evening, Aug. 15. Approximately $250 were realized from the affair.

Here for the Aug. 15 and 16 annual get-together and picnic of the Wood River Pioneers and Old Timers, a large number of the members of this organization patronized the dinner, as well as the major portion of the Fort Klamath population. General chairman in charge of dinner arrangements was Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, with the following sub-chairmen assisted by committee members: kitchen, Mrs. William Brewer; dining room, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson; Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson; serving cakes and pies, Mrs. Bert Gray; Mrs. Walter J. Wright, Janet Wilson, Darla Dee Brewer; rolls and coffee, Mrs. Myrtle Denton; Mrs. James F. Van Wormer; cashier was Mrs. Harry Orem, while Mrs.

Harold Wimer acted as hostess during the serving hours from five till 8 p.m.

On behalf of the church group, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley wishes to thank everyone who helped to make the dinner such a success, either by contributions, work or attendance at the dinner.

At the conclusion of the business meeting Thursday, refreshments were served their guests by the two hostesses. Arrangements of late summer blooms were used in profusion about the rooms of the refreshment tables.

In addition to the co-hostesses, the following women were in attendance: Mrs. Edmund Stanton, Chiloquin, wife of the pastor of Fort Klamath and Chiloquin Methodist churches; Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley; Mrs. William Brewer; Mrs. Bert Gray; Mrs. Edward Floyd and son David, Mrs. James Legget, Mrs. Hansford (Mike) Williams and daughter Mariha, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Barbara and Roger, Mrs. Theodore R. Nicholson and Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, all of Fort Klamath.
