Stock Answer Would Stump Friend Or Foe

FREEDOM VILLAGE, Korea (AP)—A corporal from Birmingham, Ala., said today he had one answer whenever the Communists asked him to give his opinion on a political subject.

Cpl. Howard Wolfe said his stock answer was:

"I'm a soldier in the United States Army and I don't have an opinion on anything."

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Aug. 16—Visited our new immigrants. Now, this is no time to discuss whether it will succeed or whether it won't; whether it's farming country or whether it is not, and to enumerate the hundreds of mistakes and confusions and rows and arguments and management in the whole thing at home and here.

As I see it, there is now but one problem that they are here, and that's to get 'em housed within six or eight weeks. Things have been a terrible mess. They are getting 'em straightened out. But even now not fast enough. There is about 700 or 800 of 'em. About 200 went back; also about that many workmen sent from the transient camps down home (not CCC) and just lately they are using about 150 Alaskan workmen at regular wages. But it's just a few weeks to snow now and they have to be out of the tents, both workmen and settlers.

There is plenty food and always has been and will be. They can always get that in, but it's houses they need right now and Colonel Hunt, in charge, realizes it.

You know, after all, there is a lot of difference in pioneering for gold and pioneering for spinach.

Yours,
Will Rogers

THE "WILL ROGERS SAYS," printed August 15 as the last dispatch of the famous philosopher was written the day before his last one, according to G. E. Purdin, who proved it with a framed newspaper clipping, here reproduced. Purdin, 2248 Orchard Avenue, was a deep admirer of Rogers.

Custody Of 'Coma Mother' Sought By Her Mother

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Janice Cubbedge, 16-year-old "coma mother" was back home in Labelle, Fla., today with her month-old son Charles and her husband Ronald, 16.

But Janice's mother, Mrs. Viola Markham of Fort Myers, remained in Miami determined to press the petition for custody of the daughter she nursed through months of illness.

Ronald took his wife and son to Labelle late yesterday after Circuit Judge Pat Cannon granted a habeas corpus petition and signed the order placing them in his custody.

The "coma mother" made the 130-mile trip in an ambulance. She was pale and unable to walk, but appeared in good spirits. Ronald and the baby went along in another car, accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cubbedge.

In Miami, Mrs. Markham said she didn't go to Labelle "because of the abuse I would be shown there. I feel I did not get justice. Judge Cannon did not show me any justice in this case."

"There should have been more investigation and consideration given the case for the benefit of the girl," Mrs. Markham declared. "I hope to get better justice in juvenile court."

Mrs. Markham's petition seeking custody of her daughter and the baby boy, is scheduled to be heard before Juvenile Judge Walter H. Beckham Tuesday.

Since discharge from a hospital last month, Janice, her mother and the child have been living in an apartment lent them by Mrs. I. Rivera Cardenas. Kind-hearted Miamians helped them out with food and clothing.

Ronald and his father and mother came here Monday from Labelle and filed the habeas corpus petition. Ronald asked custody of Janice and the baby born while Janice was in a coma from a brain injury last Jan. 27 at Monroe, N. C.

Medical authorities testified during the custody hearing that Janice had the mind of an infant because of the brain injury and resulting meningitis.

Mormons Out For 'Apostasy'

EDMONTON, Alta. (AP) — Ten members of a small Mormon colony at Lister, B. C., have been excommunicated for apostasy—abandonment of the Mormon faith.

The announcement was made here Thursday by R. Scott Zimmerman of Edmonton, president of the Western Canada mission of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, who made an on-the-spot investigation earlier this month of reports of polygamy among Mormons at Creston, B. C.

Polygamy has been outlawed by the church since 1890.

On Aug. 3, Zimmerman said a special detail of Royal Canadian Mounted Police investigating rumors of "polygamy and malpractices" had reported "nothing substantial" on which charges could be laid.

The church leader revealed that he and other officials had been investigating, for the past 14 months, conditions at the small British Columbia community, in the Creston district near the Canadian-United States border.

But the excommunicated members weren't tried on charges of polygamy, he said. Polygamy was too difficult to prove and therefore did not enter into the trials. Rather, the church confined its investigations to charges of disbelief in Mormon doctrines.

Official reason given for the excommunication was apostasy, abandonment of the Mormon faith.

Zimmerman said the Lister Mormons had refused to accept the authority of their church in several instances.

He said they had followed the teachings of a previously excommunicated member who was ousted from the church for belief in polygamy. Instead of paying to the church their tithes—one-tenth of their annual income, he added, they turned them over to their unidentified leader.

Admission Charge To Help Defray Embezzler's Debts

BALTIMORE (AP)—For a 25-cent admission fee the curious may come into the home of a convicted embezzler here Sept. 13 and 14 to see what she bought with her money.

Gate receipts plus the proceeds of an auction sale of the home furnishings of Mrs. Naomi M. Ringrose will go toward paying back in part, at least, social security workers whose savings were swindled.

Mrs. Ringrose, former secretary of their credit union, is serving a five-year prison term for embezzlement of $340,000.

The furnishings which will be auctioned Sept. 14 include gold inlaid chairs, imported vases and an antique hall chime clock.

Man Carefully Gives Self RR Track Death

LONGACRE, W. Va. (AP)—An unemployed Army veteran put on his best suit, wrote a note on the back of an envelope and walked to New York Central Railroad tracks nearby.

He carefully removed his coat and hung it on a signal post.

Then he lay down on the tracks and was killed by a passing freight train.

That's how Magistrate Charles R. Bess of Boomer reconstructed at an inquest the death yesterday of Thomas J. Hairston, 26.

The note, addressed to the man's sister and brother-in-law, said in part: "I'm sorry to leave you but my life's not worthwhile."

Man Prejudices Two-Bit Civil Service Employe

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—Milton Wiegman, a bread salesman, wandered uncertainly down the corrider of the Municipal Building, a traffic citation in his hand.

An employe noticed him, asked if he could help. Wiegman showed his ticket.

The employe pointed out that, since Wiegman had two prior traffic arrests, he'd have to post bail of $15 or appear in court. Wiegman bridled.

"Whatdaya mean?" he demanded angrily. "I don't have to take that off a two-bit civil service employe!"

Wiegman stamped out. But he learned later that he did have to appear in court. And when he showed up yesterday he met the same civil servant — on the bench.

The judge, Walter C. Allen, said he guesses Wigman would be wanting a jury trial. He set it in another judge's court, commenting, "I might be prejudiced in this case."

Factory Average $1.77 An Hour

WASHINGTON (AP) — Average hourly wages of factory workers climbed to a record $1.77 last month just before the Korean truce was signed, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said today.

This was a 21 per cent gain over the pre-Korean war level. It included overtime and other premium pay.

All industries, BLS said, reported higher hourly earnings at the close of the fighting than three years earlier.

However, the biggest gains were scored in defense-related ordnance, primary metals and instrument industries.

The smallest gains were registered in the apparel, textiles, printing and publishing and tobacco industries, where there was little net change in employment.

Hourly earnings for factory production workers were 13 cents higher this July than at the same time a year ago.

The average work week in July was 40.4 hours, pointing to continued widespread overtime in the nation's factories.

200 Convening Firemen Flop

AMSTERDAM, N. Y. (AP)—Lewis Gowdie's garage caught fire and a whole firemen's convention couldn't put it out.

About 200 members of the New York State Volunteer Firemen's Assn. answered the alarm yesterday when local firefighters were paged at the outdoor meeting in suburban Cranesville.

Gowdie, a spectator at the firemen's contests, went along with the crowd and discovered the fire was at his place, about 1,000 feet away.

The two-car garage and Gowdie's automobile were destroyed and his house was damaged. He put the loss at $2,000. The cause was not determined.

Japs Slate 2nd Protest Strike

TOKYO (AP)—A Japanese labor union whose 107,000 claimed members are employed by the U. S. armed forces at bases throughout the country notified the government today a second 48-hour strike would be called next Friday.

The newspaper Asahi Shimbun reported that the strike was being called to back up Japan Garrison Forces Labor Union (Zenchuro) demands for a revision of the basic United States - Japan labor contract covering workers employed by the American forces.

Government, union and U. S. Army representatives have been negotiating contract revisions.

Asahi said differences still remained on the Army's right to fire "dangerous elements" for security reasons.

Union leaders were reported to have recognized the Army's right to fire workers but could not agree on what constituted "dangerous elements."

Also invited were persons named Badts, Baet, Baett, Bat, Bate, Bait, De Bats, De Batz and La Bate.
