REFLECTIONS FROM

Milly's Mirror

By PATI O'CONNOR
(For Milly Ramsby)

A COOL BREEZE gently stirs the pine boughs. Small waves tumble into shore and break against the beach. The noisy stillness is interrupted by the sound of a motor boat on the lake — And that's just what many of Klamath's social set are hearing these days. Our "noisy stillness" was interrupted by a phone ringing — and we'll pass the word along to you.

THE WATERS report a family affair at their cabin at Lake O' the Woods last weekend. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Watters, daughter Margaret Ann and John Whitlatch and two young sons plus one of Tom Jr.'s boys.

SPENDING SOME TIME at Mrs. George Ulrich's cabin at Rocky Point are her daughter, Katherine, and husband, Richard Walker, on vacation from Inglewood, California.

HEADING for the lake are the Dick B. Millers who will take Dick Jr.'s daughters—Patty and Susan—to spend a couple of weeks.

SPEAKING OF WATER — Sky Martin just left quantities of it — with salt, too! Sky docked Tuesday at Cove (Queenstown), County Cork, Ireland. She and a sister from St. Paul and third companion will spend about two months visiting the shamrock-studded lands of their forefathers.

MRS. ANDREW COLLIER reports daughter Carolyn's departure yesterday from New York to England. She will report to Geneva, Switzerland, soon, to undertake rehabilitation work with the Church World Service.

ALSO FEELING the salt breezes is Ruth Landry, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Paul O. Landry. With a friend, Catherine Littlefield of Portland, former college classmate, Ruth sailed August 13 from New York and docked at South Hampton last Thursday. Itinerary includes Holland, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, France.

CALIFORNIA BOUND were the W. R. Lambs of Coca Cola Bottling Co. They took Mrs. Lamb's mother, Mrs. Riando, to Salinas where the Lambs will spend a couple of weeks before returning to enter young Leah in the first grade at Sacred Heart Academy.

TO HELP FILL the vacancies occasioned by these summer sojourns is Mrs. Edna H. Strachan of Berkeley, California, houseguest at the Henry Ray home on the Keno Road. Mrs. Strachan is president of the California Writers Club and has authored numerous magazine articles, screenplays, short stories and stage plays, some of which have been produced at KUHS. She was on the staff of the Berkeley Gazette for five years and has done radio serials for NBC.

On the agenda have been trips to Crater Lake—Klamath's Jewel—Diamond Lake and the Lava Beds.

Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh entertained at a social evening in her honor Thursday night.

MONDAY EVENING Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh will entertain in honor of Beulah Lemen, formerly of Klamath Falls, now of Sacramento. While in K. Falls, Mrs. Lemen's husband, Joe, was associated with the Southern Pacific Company. He is now with the company in its Sacramento office.

Mrs. Lemen will be the houseguest of Mrs. Brumbaugh during her stay.

FROM HOLLYWOOD this past week came the Mel Baldwins. They visited Lillian's parents, the George P. Baldwins, and her brother, Bruce and family. Mel's program, "Music Till Dawn," is broadcast weekly over KNX sponsored by American Airlines. The Baldwins left K. Falls for Washington and points north before returning to Hollywood.

RETURNING RECENTLY from a vacation to Portland and the Washington coast were the Dick Miller Js.

A MUCH SHORTER TRIP is in the offing for the Mel Baldwins to be specific, from 1941 Manzanita to their newly built home in the 1200 block of Eldorado, across from Roosevelt school. And that makes for confusion, since now the whole family is on Eldorado!

SOJOURNERS set September 23 as tentative date for their annual fall tea. The decision was made at the Dick B. Miller home Wednesday where they met for business, luncheon and cards. In attendance were Mrs. Roy Carter, Mrs. Leona Johnson, Mrs. Harold Ashley, Mrs. C. W. Eyock, Mrs. J. C. Littlefield, Mrs. J. J. Thomas, Mrs. P. D. Meade.

ON THE STRICTLY LOCAL scene, we're anticipating the annual round of pre-school daze socials and autumn weddings which are sure to come!

THE BRIDE, MARGARET POWELL, escorted down the aisle by her father, Oliver Edward Powell.

Margaret Powell, Jim Davidson Wed In August Church Rites

Before an altar banked with pink and white gladioli, lighted white tapers in candelabra and woodwardia fern, Margaret Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Edward Powell, became the bride, Sunday, August 16, of James L. Davidson. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davidson. Both bride and bridegroom are from well-known Klamath Falls families.

The two o'clock ceremony was read in the First Presbyterian Church by the Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., before a large gathering of friends and relatives of the young couple.

Twin sisters, Marilyn and Margaret Gerber, in full-skirted blue organdy frocks and wearing corsages of white "gladioli" lighted the tapers before the ceremony.

Ronnie Herberberger played the incidental music for the later reception and accompanied Ronnie Bryon for two solos, "Through the Years" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a frock of imported Swiss organdy over white satin, made with an embroidered, scalloped overskirt of the organdy, button-down-the-front bodice, scalloped neckline and long sleeves. Her finger tip nylon net veil fell from a seed pearl trimmed cloche hat. She carried a spray of red rose buds on a white Bible with satin streamers.

For something old she carried a silk handkerchief of her paternal grandmother's, pearls borrowed from Shirley Faus, a blue garter from Patsy Carr, and a penny in her slipper.

Barbara Solie, maid of honor, gownned in white organdy over aqua taffeta carried a crescent shaped arrangement of pink and white gladioli and wore a small close fitting cap that matched her aqua taffeta sash.

Bridesmaids, Sharon Powell, sister of the bride, Virginia Van Doran and Patsy Carr, all wore frocks identical to that of the maid of honor, made over dark turquoise taffeta with matching caps and sashes. Their flowers were pink gladioli.

Pretty little six-year-old Tessie Powell was flower girl for her sister. Her frock was of aqua and organdy, made with deep round Bertha neckline and she wore a cluster of shattered carnations in pink in her dark hair. She carried a basket of rose petals and fern. Bobby Garrison, son of Mrs. C. C. Garrison, Klamath Falls, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Best man was Tom Murdock, ushers were Shannon Oldham, Lee

Kinmark and Douglas Leichty.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Powell chose a white shantung afternoon dress with navy hat and accessories and pink rose buds at the shoulder.

Mrs. Davidson, mother of the bridegroom wore a navy taffeta afternoon dress with pink trim, pink gloves, navy hat and pink roses at the shoulder.

A reception in the church parlors followed the pretty ceremony. The new Mr. and Mrs. Davidson cut the first piece of a four tiered, pink and silver trimmed white cake, topped with a bride and groom and a wedding bell. The cake was later served by Patsy Teale with a sterling silver server she had presented as a wedding present.

Beverly Eells and Lyn Perkins poured.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. L. A. Murphy, Mrs. Robert Faus, Mrs. Richard Kramenberg and Mrs. Albert Angel.

For traveling the new Mrs. Davidson wore a white linen suit, light green accessories and her red rose spray at the shoulder.

After honeymooning in Northern California they have returned to make their home at 2517 Orchard Way.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Powell, uncle and aunt of the bride, Salt Lake City, a niece, Patricia Parker, also of Salt Lake, an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Benjamin Surber, Boise, a great-aunt, Mrs. Nannie Armstrong, Emmett, Ida.; a cousin, Joan Frasier, Indian Valley, Ida.; Mrs. Carrie Matson, grandmother of the bridegroom, Ashland; Mrs. George Davidson, sister-in-law of the bridegroom and her two daughters, Denice and Jan, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Petzold, Folsom, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Thompson and daughters, Sharon and Stephanie, Redding; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Skaggs, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson and Judy, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Allen, Yoncalla, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ryehard and sons, Paul and Phillips, Plush, Ore.
