CIC MEETING

FORT KLAMATH—At the regular meeting of the Civic Improvement Club held in the clubhouse August 7, tentative plans were made for the annual dinner and bazaar which will be an event of Saturday evening, September 19.

President, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, named the following committees: kitchen, Mrs. Myrtle E. Denton, Mrs. James F. Legget, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Joseph C. McAuliffe, Mrs. Ober Brown, Mrs. Bert Gray and Mrs. Harold L. Wimer; pies and cakes, Mrs. Donald P. Vesich, Mrs. Walter J. Wright, Mrs. Marvin Roeder; dining room, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Marie Nicholson, Linda Pope, Enid Williams, Geneva McAuliffe and Patty Lou Hescook; candy booth, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine; fancywork and apron booth, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. Joanna Taylor and Mrs. Hansford (Mike) Williams.

Parcel post sale table, Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescook, Mrs. Gene A. Page; fish pond, Mrs. Alfred Fieser, Mrs. Elmore Nicholson, Mrs. Harold Wing (Klamath Agency); dart game, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley, Mrs. Loren L. Miller Sr., Mrs. Stewart Nicholson, Mrs. Gene A. Page; other games, Mrs. Dennis Knowles, Mrs. Mitchell (Mike) Beaulieu, Mrs. Neil Nelson, Mrs. James Dycke; cashier, Mrs. Eldon M. Brattain; advertising posters, Mrs. William A. Page; general chairman of the bazaar and also handling the publicity, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer.

At this time, plans were also made for the second of the semi-annual birthday parties. General chairman is Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescook, assisted by Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Eldon M. Brattain, Mrs. James F. Van Wormer, Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine and Mrs. Dennis Knowles. Scheduled date is Saturday evening, August 26.

The financial report for July was given by the club treasurer, Mrs. William A. Page, after which standing committee reports were heard, followed by special reports made by chairmen of the various departments of the July 18, third annual western style street dance which proved a huge success for a social standpoint. This annual club sponsored event is increasing in popularity each year, and members are already discussing plans for making the 1954 street dance even more enjoyable and outstanding. Mrs. Karola Wimer, director of the dance arrangements, thanked all who by their help to make the affair so successful.

Named as a new committee in charge of the hostess list for club meetings were Mrs. Stewart Nicholson and Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, replacing Mrs. Joseph Halford, now living in Roseburg, and Mrs. Frank Edwards, who is ill.

Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, president of the local Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Community Methodist church announced that the church was sponsoring the annual church benefit dinner from 5 to 8 p.m., Saturday, August 15, in the clubhouse. The menu offers a choice of baked chicken with dressing or choice Wood River Valley roast beef, with all the trimmings.

The dinner will precede the much anticipated 4th annual get together of the Wood River Pioneers and Old Timers, to be held in the clubhouse, and on Sunday, August 16, Wood River Valley members will be hosts to those who will come from various points to be on hand for the big 7 p.m. polka picture dinner to be held at Jackson F. Kimball state park at the head of Wood River.

The business session adjourned.

A NOVEMBER WEDDING is planned by Barbara Arnold, affianced of Richard Lee Hafar. Barbara is the daughter of Mr. Estelle Arnold, Weyerhaeuser district; Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Hafar, 308 East Main.

Merrill Moose Gather For Regular August Meet

MERRILL—Merrill Chapter 15, women of the Moose met Aug. 18, with 36 co-workers present. All August reports were read by the chairman and approved by the chapter.

At the September 1 meeting, the publicity committee will have their chapter night program and initiation of candidates will meet. Executive officers will meet Friday, August 21, at the home of senior regent Susan Williams, and all elected officers are requested to attend.

Lillian Thomas, who has been ill for the past three weeks, was reported improving. Mrs. Thomas is the pianist for the chapter, and her services have been greatly missed. Also on the sick list is Elaine McVey. Birthdays were reported by Mae Moore and Julia Brox.

Last drawing for Moose sisters for the chapter year will be held at the next meeting, and those wishing a sister must be present. Following the meeting all co-workers retired to the Moose Hall where refreshments were served by Anna Washberry, Moosehall Alumni chairman, and her committee members.

Wesleyan Members See Shakespeare

A weekend in Ashland was on the agenda for the Wesleyan Service Guild recently.

Eight members attended "The Merchant of Venice" at the Shakespearean Festival Saturday night, August 15. Some of the members attended church and Sunday school at the Ashland Methodist Church Sunday morning. A joint polka picnic with the Ashland and Medford Guild followed Sunday at 1:30 p.m. in Butler's Memorial Band Shell.

The social meeting was the first time the Southern Oregon District has gotten together for good fellowship and fun. Present to enjoy Medford and Ashland's hospitality were Miriam Smythe, president; Ruth Saylor, secretary; Eloise Griffin, Doris Saylor, Edna Russell, Mrs. Elaine Burton, Mrs. Loretta Ward and her sister.

Rebekah Meet At Merrill

MERRILL — Merrill Rebekah Lodge 151 met in regular session Monday night, August 17. Special guests at the meeting were Lois Osborne, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon; Hazel Lewis, chaplain of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon and Clay Osborne, Mrs. Osborne is making her official visits to lodges in this district. Mr. Osborne and Hazel Lewis are accompanying her on the trip.

Following a short business meeting members of the Rebekah Lodge heard an address by Mrs. Osborne. Other distinguished guests who spoke briefly were Hazel Lewis and Herb Munsell.

Under "Good of the Order" the Theta Rho girls club of Merrill put on a drill, after which they presented gifts to Mrs. Osborne and Mildred Rexford. The gift for Mrs. Rexford was in appreciation for her assistance in directing the girls' drill team.

Following the drill, Mary Lou

Qualls gave an interesting account of the recent trip she made to the United Nations.

The concluding number on the program was a mock wedding, put on by members of the Rebekah Lodge in honor of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne. Following the "wedding" the "brides" bouquet of sweet peas and a gift of silver were presented to Mrs. Osborne.
