Newell School Dedication Set

TULELAKE—The new $213,000 Newell Union Elementary School, completed for use this fall, will be formally dedicated Friday night, Aug. 28, at 8 p.m. The attractive, ultra-modern, brick veneer and frame building stands on the site of the one-time Japanese war relocation camp and near the old building used by children of government employees here during the war.

The V-shaped structure was planned by Howard Perrin, Klamath Falls architect, and built by the Duncan Construction Co. also of Klamath Falls.

Sen. Harold J. Powers, president pro tem of the California State Senate, will speak.

Others on the program will be Paul E. Christy, chairman, board of trustees, Mrs. Hallie M. Tierney, superintendent, Modoc County schools; Craig Lester, principal of the new school; the Rev. William R. Hodge, the Rev. Cornelius O'Connor, Howard R. Perrin, architect; W. J. Duncan, contractor; Paul B. Baker, District Attorney, Modoc County; James Stearns, Modoc County Supervisor; Mrs. R. R. Porterfield, president, Newell Union Elementary P.T.A.; Merrill Anderson, auditor, Modoc County; representatives of the State Department of Education and the Department of Finance; Mrs. Paul McKinney, president, 30th district PTA.

Carpenters May Return

WASHINGTON (AP)—A two-week-old secession of the powerful Carpenters' Union from the AFL may soon come to an end now that William (Big Bill) Hutchison, long the union's top man, is suing for peace.

It was learned that Hutchison, 47, has conferred with AFL President George Meany about bringing the 822,000-member union back into the AFL fold, perhaps before the AFL's annual convention opens in St. Louis Sept. 21. Committees representing the carpenters and the AFL's Executive Council also are scheduled to confer within two weeks. Meanwhile, the 69-year-old Hutchison, one of the AFL's patriarchs, has reportedly called his union's leaders to his Indianapolis headquarters for talks.

Bill's son Maurice, who became Carpenters Union president early last year, suddenly pulled the union out of the AFL at the AFL Executive Council's meeting in Chicago two weeks ago.

Maurice Hutchison said in Indianapolis yesterday he had met with Meany Tuesday and agreed to the committee talks. He said the meeting was arranged through a neutral party.

The secession was a protest against the AFL agreeing to a "non-raiding" pact with the CIO. Maurice Hutchison said the AFL itself hadn't yet set up a system for settling disputes between its own unions.

Meany said at the time he didn't believe this was the real reason, adding that the carpenters were at the root of many of the troubles between AFL unions anyway.

Big Bill, as first vice president of the AFL, was long reported to "run things" on the council when the late William Green was AFL president. Meany succeeded Green as AFL chief last fall and this was the first clash he and Big Bill had.

It is reported that the elder Hutchison threatened a "walk" as he apparently often did during Green's tenure, but this time Meany, determined to have a showdown, let him do it.

Home—Mrs. Jessie Lee Hosford, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Helen Applegate Terry and children Lenny Hosford and Howard Tullis have returned from an extended trip to Salt Lake City and San Francisco. 3 'Convicted' POWs Freed

PANMUNJOM (AP)—One hundred and fifty Americans rode eagerly from Red captivity today, three of them men their buddies had feared would be kept in North Korean jails on phony charges.

One returning prisoner said 45 more Americans sentenced only a month ago to prison terms were in the Red grouping center at nearby Kaesong awaiting release.

Freed Americans have told 61 prisoners jailed by the Reds in late July when the armistice was signed on such charges as "instigating against peace." Their sentences ranged from 1 to 3 years.

However, three of the "convicted" came back in Thursday's group of 250 South Koreans and 150 Americans. They were:

Cpl. Charles G. Guidetti, 32, Philadelphia; Cpl. Eugene R. Reilly, 21, New York City; and Sgt. Guy T. Vadala, 23, Stoneham, Mass.

Reilly and Vadala said they and 43 other men in Camp 1 were told they were going to a "readjustment camp" because the Reds "were afraid we would be a bad influence on the others."

They were taken to a separate camp near main Camp 3.

Finally, on Aug. 16, about three weeks after the truce was signed, they were told they would be repatriated.

Zionists Against Arms to Arabs

NEW YORK (AP)—The president of the Zionist Organization of America says it opposes U. S. military aid to Arab states until they agree to make peace with Israel.

The ZOA's head, Rabbi Irving Miller, said last night at the opening of the organization's 56th annual convention:

"We are unalterably opposed to the supply of arms to any of the Arab states as long as they persist in their refusal to make peace with Israel and continue to threaten renewed warfare."

Bly Grange To Have Dance

Bly Grange No. 711 is sponsoring a benefit dance Saturday, Aug. 29, at the Bly School Gymnasium from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Proceeds from the dance will go to the Radio Fund of the Lake County Disaster Car Unit, which is in conjunction with the Health and Safety program for Bly community.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lovelace of Klamath Falls are teaching a first aid course at Bly, which will be completed Aug. 30. Everyone completing the course will be on call for duty at Bly's newly established First Aid Station.

The First Aid Station was recently installed at the Bly Forest Service office by Mr. and Mrs. Lovelace. It is now completely equipped with Herbert Hadley in charge.

An advanced First Aid course will be taught at Bly in the near future. Exact date will be announced later.

Bly Grange extends a special "thank you" to the Lovelaces for giving so generously of their time and talent.

The Lake County disaster car will serve Bly community free of charge in all cases of extreme emergency. The same rules apply here as in Lake County.

All Bly Children who do not have Scotch-light tape on their bicycles are urged to go to Bly's Service Station and have it put on. This program has already proven its merits and it is hoped all children will take advantage of it.

Garden Clubs Have District Meeting

GILCHRIST—On Aug. 13, the following Garden Clubs of the Cascade District were hostess clubs for the district meeting held in the Metolus school gymnasium: Farmerette Garden Club, Juniper Butte Garden Club, Culver Green Thumb Garden Club.

Mrs. Isom Ezell, newly elected district director, presided over the morning business sessions.

Speakers were I. A. Roest of Bend, who talked on birds, Mrs. Harry Bartlett and Mrs. I. Edmunds who lectured on flower arrangements and corsage making.

Mrs. P. J. Terrell, Mrs. V. I. Brader and Mrs. R. A. Cassell of Gilchrist Garden Club attended.
