Confederacy's Answer To Marilyn To Produce Film

By JAMES BACON
For Bob Thomas
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Here's one producer who can chase me around a desk anytime.
Jane Wyman took a fling at emulating the first annual shindig of the makeup artists the other night. For my money, Jessel and Hope can go. Wyman is a natural for the job of presiding at Hollywood banquets. Her jokes were newer than the comics and she's pretty too.

Cleo Moore, the Confederacy's answer to Marilyn Monroe, says she soon intends to produce a movie.
Voluptuous Cleo (37-inch bust for the statistical minded readers) is one of the nation's top cheesecake purveyors. She apparently also is Hugo Haas' favorite actress. She has just made "Bait," the fourth movie in which she and Haas has teamed.

Haas is the Czech refugee who writes, directs, produces and stars in his own pictures. He started only a few years on a shoestring budget, the like of which most people wouldn't think sufficient to open a shoe shine stand.
He loads his pictures with plenty of sex, mostly supplied by Cleo. That explains Haas' success for sex ranks with cowboys at the box office.

Cleo has several sisters at home whose figures rank with or excel hers. She hints that she may make her first movie a family affair. Imagine the commercial aspects of a movie with three figures like Cleo Moore's in it?
Cleo is a real Southern girl who had a hard time losing her drawl. She was born in the little town of Galve, La., later moving to Baton Rouge during the Huey Long era. She was married at 15 to Palmer

New Tank Contract Seen for Chrysler

DETROIT (AP) — A CIO United Auto Workers official said today "wholly reliable" sources had informed him a new defense contract would be awarded Chrysler Corp. for its tank plant in Center Line.

The contract would maintain the plant's present employment of 4,000 when a contract for M47 tanks is completed Nov. 1, reported Norman Matthews, UAW Chrysler department director.

Man Says He's Still Trying To Rent Sub

CHICAGO (AP)—Edward M. Moran says he still is trying to rent a submarine to use for a combined business and pleasure cruise in Lake Michigan.

Moran, who sells plumbers' supplies, thought he had rented a submarine yesterday but discovered he was a victim of a prankster.

Moran said he believed the deal was closed—except for the payment—after a telephone call from a man who identified himself as a representative of the Federal Shipbuilding and Drydock Co., Kearney, N. J.

He told Moran the submarine would be in Chicago in about three weeks for Moran, who planned to take about 50 guests on the lake cruise. Moran also planned to deliver some plumbing supplies. The owner of the submarine was to furnish a pilot, cook and bartender.

Moran learned yesterday—through his bank—that Federal, a subsidiary of U. S. Steel, is only a name carried on to maintain guarantees on ships the firm built during World War II, that it never built a submarine and operates no yard.

DREAM REALIZED

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—All through 33 months of imprisonment in a Communist POW camp in Korea, Sgt. Robert Hesselink of Big Rapids, Mich., dreamed of the day he'd buy a shiny new car.

So yesterday, on his way home, the 25-year-old soldier stopped at Grand Rapids to order it. "It was one of the dreams that kept me going," he explained to the salesman.

"COUNTRY LANE" ROSES

By CAROL CURTIS

The beloved little wild roses which grow along old country roads are done in the two-color transfer process which requires only stamping on material to preserve the lovely colors: rose-pink for the flower, moss green for the leaves and stems! Two sprays measure 9 by 3 1/2 inches, four sprays measure 3 1/2 by 2 1/2 inches. Use them on pale pink, grey or white table mats, guest towels, on pretty gift aprons, on wash dresses, blouses, scarves.

Send 25 cents for the "Country Lane Roses" (Pattern No. 471) all transferring laundering instructions, your name, address, pattern number to Carol Curtis, Herald and News, Box 225, Madison Square Station New York 10, N.Y.

Patterns ready to fill orders immediately. For special handling of order via first class mail include an extra 5 cents per pattern.

TEST MUFFED

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Alice Louise Hart got a beautiful new automobile for her 17th birthday, but she doubts that she passed her driver's test.

She drove the new car straight to patrol headquarters yesterday for the license examination and was doing fine until she collided with another car. Only the examining trooper escaped injury.
