

Owls Lose Bittman in Victory

GORDON BITTMAN grimaces in pain as he's helped off the field by Floyd Williams (46) and Hal Fine (78) Saturday night. The Oregon Tech quarterback may be lost for the season after tearing ligaments in his left knee. Tackle Greene Rudd, lauded by the OTI coaching staff as "playing the outstanding line game" looks on in the background.

Tech Quarterback Injures Knee In 46-21 Win Over Olympic JC

By RED HURD

Oregon Tech's 46-21 win over Olympic Junior College Saturday night was shrouded in gloom today.

Tech fans agree unanimously today the mile-high team is one of the best they've seen in the six-year football history on the mile-high campus, but it's likely the Owls will finish the season without their fine quarterback, Gordon Bittman from Calgary, Can.

Bittman, on a quarterback-keep play, injured his left knee in the second quarter. Doctors today said it's very likely he'll be out the rest of the season when it was discovered the 6-1, 180-pounder field general tore ligaments.

Milt Richau, Bittman's replacement from The Dalles, did a commendable job steering the Owls the rest of the way, but Bittman's ball-handling and passing will be missed and Richau, with a bad hand, can't be counted on for passing.

BIG GAINS

The Owls didn't have to do much passing Saturday night—they threw four—as high-stepping backs tore off huge gains behind a big, hard-socking line that virtually ripped the visiting Rangers apart.

The Rangers scored three times as quarterback Merle Hagbo and halfback Wayne Brooks teamed up with a fancy passing game, but in all three cases Brooks slipped behind inexperienced halfback defenders for his catches. Two went all the way — 54 and 50 yards — for touchdowns while the third, a 45-yard gain, set up the Rangers' third score.

But the game was Oregon Tech's all the way from the opening moments when Odie Canada gathered in a punt on his 38, cut to the left, took advantage of a couple of spine-shattering blocks, and crossed the goal line.

NOTHING

Canada's 62-yard scamper came after Oregon Tech kicked off to Olympic and the Rangers gained exactly nothing in three running plays.

If Canada's punt return didn't convince the Rangers and the fans a rout was in the making, fullback Larry Jeter did the first time Tech got a chance to run from scrimmage. Jeter went 12, then 23 but on the last gain fumbled the ball when he was hit on Olympic's 42.

But Olympic couldn't run against Oregon Tech and the Owls started to roll from their 13 with Canada, Jeter and Len Genetin ripping off sizeable gains. Bittman tried a pass on Olympic's 15 but Hagbo intercepted, Olympic's Hugh Hopper gave the ball back to the Owls at a play that covered 54 yards. Intermission score was 21-7 after Don Helms' place kick.

The Owls drove 52 yards after the second-half kickoff and Jeter bombed over from the two-yard line. Genetin's kick was blocked this time. But late in the third quarter, the Owls pumped the score to 34-7 when Frank Dunn, second-string fullback, traveled 42 yards on a fake hand-off play and Genetin kicked his fourth extra point.

Early in the fourth Hagbo and Brooks worked their pass play, again against the Owl reserves. This one covered 50 yards and Jerry Schadeberg split the uprights with the extra point.

SIXTH TD

Brooks handed Oregon Tech its sixth touchdown when he bobbed Ken Sloan's punt on the five-yard line. The ball squirted over the goal and Dunn was there first as a whole flock of Techers converged on the ball. Vern Pryor missed his first for point. But on Olympic's next series of downs, Hagbo fumbled when he was chased back to the 16 trying to get a pass away.

On the third play, the Owls had another score with David Savage, a capable halfback replacement, running the ball over from the seven-yard line. Jim Hollenbeck's kick was blocked and the Owls had a 46-14 lead.

But Hagbo and Brooks got back in the act again late in the game. This time Brooks was hauled down by Sloan on the 18 after the play netted 45 yards. Three plays later Hagbo bootlegged around the right side for Olympic's third score. Helms kicked again for the extra point.

moments later on a fumble recovered by Charlie Wagner on the 22, Canada scooted to the 10 and Genetin on a pitch-out around the left side crossed the goal line on the first play of the second quarter.

SET UP

Genetin set up the next score on a punt return from Olympic's 47 to the 25. Canada, then Genetin, and Canada again worked the ball to the 10. Bittman was hurt on the next play but in two more plays Canada barreled around right end for the third touchdown. Genetin kicked his third of three and the Owls led 21-0.

Late in the second quarter Brooks slipped behind the Tech defenders and caught a pass from Hagbo on

Braves Draw Nearly Two Million in Move

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

Attention, American League club owners!

When you convene next Sunday to discuss the Browns' proposed transfer, it might be well to adopt the following slogan:

"Remember the Braves!"

It is doubtful if this amazing story—the Braves shift from Boston to Milwaukee and the tremendous loyalty of the baseball-happy Milwaukee fans—will ever be forgotten.

In its first major league baseball season in half a century, Milwaukee established a new National League attendance record when 1,826,297 cash customers came out to root their beloved Braves into second place. There is no doubt that the almost daily capacity crowds had much to do with the Braves' surprising showing. Even their most ardent admirers didn't dare hope for anything higher than fourth.

Although yesterday's games had no bearing on the final standings, a capacity crowd of 36,011 — one person for every seat in County Stadium—watched the Braves split a doubleheader with Cincinnati. Rookie Joey Jay, making his first major league start, shutout the Redlegs 3-0 in an abbreviated seven-inning nightcap after Cincinnati had won the opener 5-3.

The doubleheader, which concluded the club's home games for the year, enabled the Braves to shatter the old league attendance mark of 1,807,526 set by the pennant winning Dodgers of 1947. The only second place club ever to draw more than the current Braves were the 1950 Detroit Tigers, who drew 1,951,474. Briggs stadium seats 52,954 to 36,011 for Milwaukee.

REMEMBER

It might be well for the American League club owners to remember that practically this same Braves team drew 281,278 in Boston last year, an attendance just about duplicated by the '53 Browns in St. Louis.

With the pennant races decided days ago, attention was focused on individual performance yesterday.

Virgil Trucks became the fourth American League pitcher to win 20 games this year when he hurled the White Sox to a 5-2 victory as Chicago swept a doubleheader from the St. Louis Browns. Bob Keegan, 32-year-old right-hander, pitched his second successive three-hit shutout 4-0 in the opener.

Gus Zernial walloped homers Nos. 40 and 41 to help Philadelphia win two games from Washington 13-9 and 4-3. Zernial wrested the American League lead from Cleveland's Al Rosen, Joe de Maestros singled in the winning run in the 11th inning of the nightcap.

Billy Martin's three-run homer highlighted a five-run sixth inning that gave Eddie Ford his 18th victory and the New York Yankees a 10-8 slugfest victory over Boston. Ford was shelved from the mound when the Red Sox got five runs in their half of the sixth but fine relief hurling by Johnny Sain preserved his lead.

WINS 18TH

Mike Garcia also won his 18th game pitching Cleveland to a 6-3 triumph over Detroit after the Tigers had taken the opener 8-6.

Stan Musial, battling against long odds to retain his batting championship, cracked out a single, triple and his 28th home run in four times at-bat to lead the St. Louis Cardinals to an 11-6 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Musial is now hitting .330, 14 points below National League leader Carl Furillo of Brooklyn.

The pennant winning Dodgers divided a twin bill with Philadelphia, winning the opener 5-4 and losing the second 2-1.

Cal Abrams hit a grand slam home run that gave Pittsburgh an 8-4 triumph over the New York Giants.

Eddie Mathews committed two errors that gave Cincinnati four unearned runs in the Redlegs' 5-3 first game victory over Milwaukee.

Little Wins In Amateur

By HUGH FULLERTON Jr.

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—The United States Golf Association now has the annual task of picking a "cup" team for men's international play. And, from the results of the 1953 National Amateur Championship, some players who defended the Walker Cup against Britain early this month may be in for a surprise when the team is chosen to play Mexico and Canada for the America's Cup next summer.

There's no question, of course, about the new champion, Gene Littler. He's in any time the Navy will let him out to play golf.

This rather shy Navy airman from San Diego, Calif., probably is the best amateur golfer today. He plays the same kind of steady, thoughtful golf as Ben Hogan.

The hitch in Littler's case is that he still has 15 months to serve in his navy enlistment.

Dale Morey, whose biggest ambition now is to make the Walker Cup team, hardly can be overlooked for next year's lesser cup competition. He matched Littler, hole for hole, before losing on the tense 19th.

After these two, there's no telling how the other successful players in the 53rd championship will stack up a year from now. The others are Don Albert of Purdue and Bruce Cudd of Portland University, Ted Richards Jr., the national public links champion; Bobby Kuntz, Larchmont, N. Y.; Angelo Santilli, East Greenwich, R. I. and Ray Palmer, Detroit.

Except Littler, the 1953 Walker Cuppers who went the farthest were ex-champion Sam Urzetta, Jim Jackson, Bill Campbell, and the No. 1 alternate, Arnold Blum.

Webfoots Cash In On Breaks

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—An alert team of Westerners from the University of Oregon made the most of Nebraska's miscues Saturday and surprised the favored Cornhuskers 20-12 in 1953's first nationally televised football game.

Bad passes from center told the story.

Tom Oliver's first bad pass over Johnny Bordogna's head in the opening was snared by Oregon guard Jack Patera on the Nebraska 16. Five plays later fullback Cece Hodges plowed over from the one-foot line for the first Oregon touchdown.

The Webfoots' second tally came the same way only minutes later. Bordogna chased Oliver's pass to the two and tried to kick. He netted only nine yards and on the next play Oregon's Dick James raced around his own left end for the touchdown. George Shaw converted.

Nebraska came back to score in the second period. Rex Fisher reaching paydirt after a 63-yard downfield march. But Oregon bounced back for its last six-pointers three plays later with Ted Anderson rambling 66 yards untouched.

Shaw again converted and Oregon led 20-6 at the half.

Nebraska scored again in the fourth period with Dennis Korinek crossing the goal line on a 68-yard pass play.

Bonanza, Trojans Losers

The defending champion Merrill Huskies and the Chiloquin Panthers took an early lead in the Klamath County League football race Saturday with shutout scores.

Merrill blanked the Astoria at Bonanza Saturday afternoon, 24-0. Chiloquin whitewashed the Sacred Heart Trojans, 14-0, Saturday night at Merrill.

The Huskies couldn't get their running game in high gear, so they took to the air and Leroy Johnson pitched three touchdown passes, two to Dale McCulloch and one to Gary Walters.

Gerald Johnson traveled 15 yards for Merrill's second score in the second frame after John O'Neil intercepted a Bonanza pass and waltzed 50 yards.

Bonanza threatened several times, on one occasion reaching Merrill's 10-yard line, but lacked the clutch push to push over.

The Trojans battled Chiloquin on even terms in the first half that ended scoreless.

But after intermission time, Jo Jo George found the range and threw two touchdown passes, one to Ted Eggman for 10 yards, the second to Scott Hartley, who gathered the ball in just over the line of scrimmage and romped 29 yards to score territory.

George ran over the first conversion point, drop-kicked the second.

Georgia Tech line coach Ray Graves played two years of professional football with the Philadelphia Eagles.
