

FOR THE BENEFIT OF NEWCOMERS about every so often we run a picture of the old White Pelican hotel and the disastrous fire that leveled the big building that stood where Balsiger's building is today. An imposing structure (top) the hotel was famous all over the West and attracted the great and near great to its halls and banquet rooms throughout its lifetime. The fire which raged it on October 16, 1926 was the most spectacular that Klamath has ever seen. Any of the old timers can give you oodles of stories about the great hostelry.

Klamath Temple Sets Promotion Day Sept. 27

Sunday, Sept. 27, is one of the biggest Sunday School days of the year at Klamath Temple, 1007 Pine St. It is the final day of the annual Sunday School year and Promotion Day for 55 pupils of the Sunday School.

The program opens immediately following a short class period with a congregational song. There will be a welcome recitation by Dawn Revis and "I'm Ready," by Stephen Hume.

Following the introduction of Sunday School Superintendent Wilbur Book and Junior Department Superintendent the Rev. Werner Bock the new Cradle Roll will be officially inaugurated by the introduction of mothers and babies. They will receive a Cradle Roll certificate for their child and the child's picture will be taken for the Cradle Roll Plaque.

In connection with the new Cradle Roll, the church members have been actively engaged in putting a nursery in the basement of the church with beds, playpens and other equipment for the smaller children during the regular services in the upper auditorium. A loud speaker in the nursery enables mothers to hear the service while tending their youngsters.

The nursery and beginner classes through the primary department will wear white caps and gowns during the graduation exercises; all graduates will receive a flower corsage or boutonniere after receiving diplomas. There will be a recitation "Example" by Mike Ward and a solo, "Who at My Door is Standing" by Sharon Bock.

At the close of the graduation exercises there will be a teachers' reappointment ceremony and the exercises will be morning worship service; everyone is invited.

Pay Should Go On Water or None

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Come drought or high water, teachers should be paid, state school Supt. W. W. Trent says.

In a letter to county superintendents yesterday, Trent noted that some West Virginia schools did not open on schedule this year because of water shortages brought on by a late summer drought.

He also observed that floods in past years had prevented schools from operating on some days.

Commenting on this, Trent said: "As teachers were paid when there was too much water, it is my opinion that they should be paid when the lack of water prevents their holding school."

Lion Sought In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—County police were to search today for a lion in a wooded area northwest of Cincinnati where a squirrel hunter said he sighted the big game.

They were convinced William Fluellen, 39, was dead sober and serious when he saw the large animal yesterday.

Fluellen said the animal was identical with ones zoos and circuses have caged up.

His first instinct was to use his 12 gauge shotgun, but he thought he would be better off to run home and call the police.

Neighborliness Fools Enforcement

SPENCER, Mass. (AP)—What should a police chief do when he sees kids stealing pears from a neighbor's tree?

That question was posed for Spencer Selectmen by John J. Nolan who complained that Chief Charles H. Meloche encouraged and influenced the youngsters in raiding Nolan's pear tree.

Meloche had no comment on the complaint filed by Nolan — his street neighbor.
