Death Follows Cigaret Denial

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Two teenagers boys are being held on murder charges today in what homicide detectives say was the brutal beating and killing to death of a 52-year-old father of six who refused to give them a cigarette.

In addition, four other boys are being held as material witnesses and on assault and battery charges.

The victim was David Jenkins, a laborer.

Charged with his slaying are William B. Hindley, 18, and Ronald Abernold, 16, both of Pittsburgh.

In custody as material witnesses and being held for court on the assault and battery charges are: Robert Neely, 14, James F. Neely, 16, James E. Ford, 16, all of Pittsburgh, and Cyril B. Holmes, 17, Midland, Pa.

Detectives Louis Hamel and Martin Corcoran said this is what happened:

Frank Stevens, 41, a barber who rooms at the Jenkins residence, was attacked by a gang of boys late Saturday night. He broke away and told his landlord what had happened.

Jenkins went to a nearby corner, saw two boys loitering there and asked them if they had helped beat Stevens. They said they hadn't. They asked Jenkins for a cigarette but he refused.

The detectives said Abernold, who tilted as Hindley and Abernold, pounded on Jenkins and began hammering at his face and body. He ran into the middle of the street and fell. He was dead on arrival at a hospital.

Too Many Streets Called 'Unknown,' Letter Returned

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — It's not the known but the unknown that baffled Postmaster J. Tracy Moore.

Tuesday a letter was turned over to him. It was addressed, "William Hobbs, 110 Unknown St., North Carolina."

The Greensboro Record reported Moore's predicament.

Then came letters from Mt. Olive N. C., telling Moore that town had an Unknown Street and what's more there was a William Hobbs living at 110 on it. Moore thought his troubles were over until a Greensboro woman phoned him, asking would he please forward the letter to her brother, William Hobbs, 110 Unknown St., Roanoke, Va.

At that point the postmaster gave up. He returned the letter to the sender, hoping he would know which unknown is which.

Hollywood Social Season Picking Up, At Least

The week started out with a plush turnout to hear Tyne Power, Anne Baxter and Raymond Massey in "John Brown's Body" at the Philharmonic Auditorium.
