

NEW WORTHY ADVISER . . . Malin Assembly Rainbow For Girls No. 49, is Darla Sarutski, installed recently in a ceremony in the Malin Masonic Hall. A large group of Masonic, Eastern Star officers and friends were present.

RAINBOW FOR GIRLS AT MALIN INSTALLATION RITES SEPT. 11

MALIN — At installation ceremonies held at the Masonic Hall, Sept. 11, Darla Sarutski became worthy advisor of the Malin Assembly 49, Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Darla's installing officers were Patti Smith, worthy advisor; Barbara Salys, chaplain; Elizabeth McVey, recorder; Barbara Cornett, marshal; Betty Bunnell, musician; Mrs. Hazel Bowman, mother advisor and Mrs. Nell Retherath, hostess.

Following the entrance into the assembly room of the installing officers, a word of welcome was given by hostess, Mrs. Retherath. Mrs. George Fabianek sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the presentation of the Bible.

First to be installed was the worthy advisor, who received the jeweled crown of her station from outgoing worthy advisor Patti Smith. After which she was honored with an appropriate address. Ribbons of indigo and blue, representing patriotism and fidelity, were tied on her wrist by two of the girls and a third read verses pertaining to the two words, that Darla has chosen for her theme. Projects and occasions planned by the new worthy advisor include sending Christmas packages to some orphanage in Oregon; Care packages overseas at Christmas; a reception for Ruth Kallins; a farewell party for Patti Smith; and the serving of a dance supper at Christmas or New Years.

Officers installed to serve with Darla were worthy associate advisor, Martha Beasley; Charity Pearl, Otoman; Hope, Barbara Bunnell; Faith, Jean Lovness; Chaplain, Joyce James; Drill Leader, Lucile Weber; Love, Diane Micka; Religion, Marie Rogers; Nature, Carolyn Fargo; Immortality, Artie Micka; Fidelity, Shirley Mock; Patriotism, Lou Ann Kandrak; Service, Geraldine Hendrix; Confidential Observer, Jane Howell; Outer Observer, Janice Sarutski; Musician, Lynette Lyon, and Choir Director, Kathryn Micka.

Honored guests welcomed were Mrs. Charles Hamilton, district deputy of Rainbow; Mrs. Alice Wilderson, mother advisor of Tulalake Rainbow Assembly; Sally Geist, past worthy advisor; A. E. Street, worthy patron of Prosperity Chapter, Order of Eastern Star; and Claris Williams, worthy patron of Aloha Chapter, OES.

Patti Smith, outgoing worthy advisor, was honored and presented with the past advisor's jewel. Nine girls, carrying letters of blue and orange performed in an intricate drill and ended it by forming into groups of three. Each group held a large printed letter and thus they spelled out the word "P A T". Their thanks and good wishes were given Patti on her completion of a successful term of office.

A tap and toe-dance routine by Susanne Kujac was a highlight of the program. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jess Smith and Patti following installation ceremonies. The refreshment table was attractively arranged with summer flowers and centering it was a large decorated cake inscribed Darla.

Pouring were Mrs. Clyde Gilbert and Mrs. Ken Wilson. Sally Geist served the cake.

STORK SHOWER
